Sibley who have been here for some time, left for the city last week. They will shortly go to Pendleton, Oregon, where they will make their future home.

Surprise parties are all the rage here this winter. Mr. and Mrs. Dave Wheeler were the victims last Saturday evening. At eight o'clock about twenty young people bounced in on their quiet home circle. Dancing, games and card playing were the order of the evening until twelve when a repast was served. Then all returned to their homes planning which should be the next place.

The Unity Chapel Sunday school has moved its headquarters from the chapel to Mountain Side until after the bad weather. Mr. Lee, an aged gentleman residing with Mr. LeBeau, is lying in a precarious condition. Small hope is entertained of his recovery. The usual monotony was somewhat dispelled last Monday by a prize fight between two of our worthy citizens. The fight was declared a draw. T. There is talk of a creamery being started near our little spur. Mr. Holstead left for California to look for a home. He will be greatly missed by his many friends, but we wish him good luck. "But people will talk you know."

Mr. Andrew McMillan, of Hayward, attended church here last Sunday. Rev. Tilden returned home from North Yamhill where he was assisting in a protracted meeting. He reports a grand success. There was a chicken house broken into here a few nights ago. Such work is not only a disgrace but is getting suspicious. There was a surprise party given in behalf of Rev. Miller's sixty-seventh anniversary. It was well attended and all report a pleasant time.

DILLEY.
