THATCHER.

Mrs. F. Bennett was the guest of Mrs. L. Sears one day last week.

Mr. A. Vaughn had the misfortune to lose one of his best horses.

There was a dance at Mr. Trout's, Mr. Mark Jones was chief of the night.

Mr. Stokesberry has finished his job grubbing for Mr. Frank Bennett.

Mr. Oliver Curtis, of Hillsboro, will teach the spring school in Thatcher.

One of Mr. George Hayden's horses has been very sick but is better at this writing.

The literary last week was a grand success and Mr. Clark Stokesberry is out of sight as an editor for a literary paper.

Mr. Ernest Bondson had a log rolling last week after which they tripped the night fantastic till a late hour at night.

Miss Rose Cox's school closes February 15th and there will be a box supper entertainment in the evening to commence at 7:30 p.m. Come one, come all and have a good time.

Prof. W. J. Wirtz, of Forest Grove, gave some grand lectures on Human Nature at the Thatcher school house, which were largely attended and we hope he will not forget to give us another call in the future as such instructions are very beneficial and should be carefully heeded by every intelligent person.

Last—A dear little child who made home happy by its smiles. And to think, it might have been saved had the parents only kept in the house One Minute Cough Cure, the infallible remedy for croup. J. C. Clark, druggist.

DILEY.

Elder Anderson is on the sick list this week.

Johanne Strait, of Portland, visited in town Monday.

John Cline, who has had an attack of neuralgia, is now improving.

Karl's Clover Root Tea Is a cure for Headache and Nervous Disorders. Nothing relieves so quickly. For sale at Clark's drug store.

FIR.

The pneumonia patients all seem to be improving.

Archie Collins returned to Scappoose on the 21st.

Mr. N. C. Goodwin, of Glenwood, was a caller on Mr. Collins on the 21st.

Mr. Jim Patton has been leveling off the ground around his house on his homestead.

Moore, Luster, Strait and Hughes spent the night of the 21st with B. M. Collins and family.

B. M. Collins took a very sudden relapse after getting up from an attack of pneumonia, but is now improving again.

Mr. John Strait's beaming face was seen in our midst on the 21st and 22nd on his way up and back from his homestead on the Salmonberry.

We are having fine winter weather for Oregon. What little snow had fallen the rains of the past few days has washed away. It seems more like spring than winter today. The 31st of January is mild enough to commence gardening. The grass and clover is green, the willows are budding and the bees seem to imagine working time has come.

Moore, Hughes and Goodwin, of Glenwood, had quite an experience in walking to Oregon City and back as witnesses for Mrs. Matilda Garvin Stewart when she proved up on her homestead on the 21st last, but no one can do it justice but Ed himself. He reports very heavy wind around Portland Heights, while the people of this vicinity experienced very calm and quiet weather.

It not only relieves; it does more, it cures. We refer to One Minute Cough Cure. Suitable for all ages, all conditions, at all times. J. C. Clark, druggist.

TUALATIN.

Commission merchants of Portland are doffing their hats to the onion raisers of this vicinity.

Dr. Taylor is said to have said: "I shall be heir and receiver of $60,000, before the corn grows green again."

The Midland cider mill will be stimulating our orchardists; as they will not be necessitated to go abroad for apple jack.

David Reghetta is on the war path. He reports "some people knowing more about his private affairs than he does." That is nothing, David, when you get accustomed to it.

Joseph Galbreath seems to have a corner on the onion market. We understand he refused $1.75 per sack. Joe is about the heaviest onion raiser on the coast, and now that the little fry is gone, he is in a position to dictate his own terms.

Ye scribe is glad to hear the many complimentary remarks about the HATCHET, and its spirited support of Mr. Mitchell. It has made many friends here among all shades of political believers. Its double bit is used with such cleverness as to keep the lion of the metropolis in a sweat. The public services of Mr. Mitchell shine with such remarkable splendor as to disarm honest opposition, were not the opposing forces led by the vapors of a subsidized sheet and a mortgaged brain.

All the different forms of skin troubles, from chapped hands to eczema and indolent ulcers can be readily cured by D-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure. J. C. Clark, druggist.

J. P. Pomeroy, of Idaho, came home last Tuesday to visit his parents. He has been up in Idaho for the past three years, and reports times good up there. He will return in the spring.

Chicora, Pa., "Herald's" Richard Vensel reports One Minute Cough Cure the greatest success of medical science. He told us that it cured his whole family of terrible coughs and colds, after all other so called cures had failed entirely. Mr. Vensel said it assisted his children through a very bad siege of measles. One Minute Cough Cure makes expectoration very easy and rapid. J. C. Clark, druggist.
