SHADY BROOK.

A party took place this evening this week at Mr. Andrews on Swede ridge. Prof. Ira Smith, of Shady Brook, delivered the music. It was not well attended. W. C. Waitlock finished digging potatoes on April 2, and Peter Rooney has quite a lot to dig yet. The ground has not been in good fix for digging potatoes this spring on account of so much rain. Enos Davis is going to move to Glencoe in a few days, and James Covey will move on his place. We are glad to have Jim come in our settlement, he is needed up here to keep the Shady Brook boys straight. On Saturday of last week a special school meeting was held for the purpose of voting on getting money by taxing the district. The result was a three mill tax carried by thirteen votes against eight that wanted no tax. About 24 new seats are needed very badly for the school. All of the property holders in the district took quite an interest in the meeting. Quite a number of lady voters were in attendance and they claimed it was their influence that secured the tax. Now, if the school directors and church members do not see that the new seats are taken care of in school and in church, there certainly should not be any more money appropriated for such use.

REEDVILLE.

Mr. Adrian Dante transacted business in Hillsboro Saturday. Mr. Bert Hager, of Hillsboro, is the guest of Fred Everson. Mr. Herb Thivon is spending the week in Hillsboro with friends. Miss Madge Hetzel, of the city, visited here with friends recently. Mrs. Carrie Rosenburg, of Portland, spent Sunday with relatives. Miss Annie Bergstrand, of Portland, spent Sunday with her parents. Mr. John Karsteter of the Ladd and Reed farm, transacted business in the metropolis Saturday. Mr. Davies, of the Johnson farm, went to the hospital last week, and on Sunday had an operation performed, the removal of a tumor. A serenade was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Coleman last Tuesday evening by their young friends. They were invited in and candy and cigars were passed around. A birthday surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. Hans Rasmussen at their residence last Thursday evening. A pleasant time was had with dancing the feature of the evening. At twelve o'clock dainty refreshments were served, after which the guests returned home wishing the host many happy returns of the day.

THATCHER.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. G. Arnold a boy. Boat riding was the topic of the day last Sunday. Mr. Orval Wilks was the guest of Mr. Tilden's family last Monday. The social last week was a success; $3.75 was taken in for the purpose of purchasing bibles for the Sabbath school. There was a birthday party last Monday given in honor of Mr. E. Shaw's seventy-first anniversary at his residence. The officers elected in Sabbath school for the next quarter are as follows: Mrs. E. A. Shaw, president; Rev. Miller, teacher of the Bible class and Mr. Warren Thatcher, secretary.

GREENVILLE.

Mrs. Dickens visited friends in the Grove last week. Mr. J. Connell, of Glencoe, visited friends here Sunday. Miss Ida Watson is home after an absence of several weeks. Dr. Parker is still at his old place of business and glad to meet friends anytime. Mr. L. Hoyt and family will soon leave for Hillsboro where he will go into business. Miss Ella Harrison who has been attending Tualatin Academy, is staying with her grandmother Mrs. Ireland. Mr. Staver preached here Sunday. We will have special services Easter Sunday in the evening. All are cordially invited. Mr. Bellingher, an old friend and neighbor who has been sick for years, died last week in Portland. He was ever ready to lend a helping hand to the needy and will always be remembered for his charitable deeds. His many friends will greatly miss him.

Personal.—The gentleman who annoyed the congregation last Sunday by continually coughing will find instant relief by using One Minute Cough Cure, a speedy and harmless remedy for throat and lung troubles. When the spring time comes, "gentle Annie," like all other sensible persons, will cleanse the liver and renovate the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, famous little pills for the liver and stomach all the year round.

PUMPKIN RIDGE.

Mrs. Coburn visited in Portland a couple of weeks ago. Miss Alice Rice is home from Portland on an extensive visit. Mr. and Mrs. A. Nichols went to Portland last week for a short visit. Miss Mary Keenan has gone down on the river near Holbrook to stay with her sister. Miss Maud Butler came home from Hillsboro last week where she has been attending school. Miss Hattie McCumsey will teach at the Arcade school house this spring beginning the 29th of March. Miss Eliza Shorey will teach the spring school at Pleasant View and Miss Carrie Frutchey will teach at Mt. Vincent.

It should be made a matter of public knowledge that DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve will speedily cure piles of the longest standing. It is the household favorite for burns, scalds, cuts, bruises and sores of all kinds.

GALESPUR.

Steve Tupper was at the Spur last Sunday. Frank Kertson was the guest of August Roth last Sunday. August Roth will build an addition to his house this spring. Mrs. Rettie Tolson is talking of building a barn this spring. Carl Tupper, of Dilley, was the guest of G. W. Beal last Sunday. Mrs. J. J. Crosley visited with Mrs. Minnie Atkeson last Sunday. W. W. Lewis shipped a car load of lumber to Cornelius last week. There are no middle of the roaders now, everybody is hugging the fence. The wind storm of March 25th, wrecked our school house badly. Mrs. Nell Story, of Dilley, visited with Mrs. G. N. Miller several days last week. The last end of the democratic party can be seen on the seat of the working men's pants. Robert Wirtz, who is teaching the young ideas how to shoot in our district, seems to be the right person in the right place and all of the patrons of the school express themselves as being well pleased with him as teacher.

Not only acute lung troubles, which may prove fatal in a few days, but old chronic coughs and throat troubles may receive immediate relief and be permanently cured by One Minute Cough Cure.

FARMINGTON.

Geo. Madison was the guest of Wm. Jack Sunday. Albert Jack visited the county seat last Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Ingram were visiting with Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Jack Sunday. Mr. Chas. Kieth is sitting out an orchard of about two hundred fruit trees this week. Thirty years is a long time to fight so painful a trouble as piles, but Jacob Mitchell, of Unionville, Pa., struggled that long before he tried DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which quickly and permanently cured him. It is equally effective in eczema and all skin affections.

Lucas left here Tuesday evening for The Dalles where he, in company with Fred Dilberger, of Laurel, expects to start a merry-go-round which they will operate in Eastern Oregon this spring and summer. Frank Stewart commenced school this week in district 75 in the north-western part of the county and U. S. McHargue at Columbia Academy. Both of these gentlemen have held forth in their respective districts prior to this. Mr. McHargue has just closed a six months term in Yamhill county. Captain Collins was so unfortunate as to get his hand severely injured Wednesday morning at the depot, by a bale of barbed wire rolling upon it. The freight crew was unloading freight when the bale escaped and was about to roll over a child standing by when the captain caught it with the result above mentioned.

When the spring time comes, "gentle Annie," like all other sensible persons, will cleanse the liver and renovate the system with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, famous little pills for the liver and stomach all the year round.

PATTON VALLEY.

Mr. Bert Porter commenced school here Monday. A. Hinman is the only one in Patton Valley that has hay to sell. The snow and rain has been too plentiful to suit the farmers this year. Mr. Fred Robinson is out again at work after being laid up with a cut across his knee. Mr. Theare got stuck with a load of seed wheat just below his house on returning home. Mr. and Mrs. Lee Anderson were seen in the valley last Sunday. Everyone is glad to see them back again.

Wherever the good qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy become known the people will have nothing else. For sale by J. C. Clark, Druggist.
