A dispatch from Coolee City, Wash., says that while Griff Jones, Charles Deeter and Ray Weston were rounding up a band of young horses on lower Crab creek, they undertook to swim the horses, below Rocky ford, across the stream. While crossing the horses became entangled and unruly, and Jones and Weston were thrown into the water and drowned, while Deeter managed to reach the shore.

Private John N. Stamm, of Walla Walla barracks, was accidentally shot during target practice, and it is not possible for him to recover. Sergeant Manes' pistol snapped while aiming at the target. He returned to where Stamm was standing, and was explaining to him the reason why the cartridge failed to explode. In doing this he pulled the trigger, and the revolver was discharged, the bullet striking Stamm in the groin, and passing entirely through the body, perforating the intestines, and coming out of the back.

The governors of Oregon and Washington have received copies of the call for the annual meeting of the trans-Mississippi congress, to be held this year in Salt Lake City, July 14 to 18, with a request that they designate a number of citizens to represent the state, including, "at least one speaker, who will be prepared to present some general subject in which the state is interested." The objects of the congress are to secure closer trade relations and national legislation of benefit to states west of the Mississippi. W. J. Bryan has been made president of the congress.

The great coon and varmint hunt on Fox Island, Washington, in which several hundred hunters participated, was anything but a success as a varmint-killing bee, though all who attended were well satisfied, as the courtesies of the islanders made the outing a most enjoyable one.

Seth L. Milliken, representing in the house of representatives the third district of Maine, died at Washington. For some time he had suffered from a serious affection of the bronchial tubes, which last week developed alarmingly, and was accompanied by kidney and liver complications.

A dispatch from Baker City, Or., says that Powder river is higher than it has ever been known to be, and is doing great damage. Only one bridge remains in the city, and if the warm weather continues, it will go out. The Sampter Valley railroad is flooded for miles, and trains will not be running for weeks. The northern residence portion of the city is inundated.

Chief Justice Fuller, of the United States supreme court, has refused a writ of habeas corpus in the case of Elverton R. Chapman, a broker, who refused to testify in the sugar speculation investigation as to whether senators had speculated in sugar stocks while the Wilson tariff bill was before that body. The sentence of the supreme court of the District of Columbia to 30 days in jail and $100 fine was affirmed, and Chapman's application for writs of certiorari and habeas corpus were denied.

As a result of a terrible accident in a mining camp near Rosland, B. C., six men were killed and several others injured. Twelve men were asleep in the camp when a landslide, 300 feet long and six feet deep, and fifteen feet wide, overwhelmed them.

A train near South Lycs, Mich., struck a vehicle on a crossing and instantly killed Harry Clark and Miss Sarah Fisher. Miss Ethel Just was seriously injured. Clark was a student at Ann Arbor, and Miss Fisher attended the state normal school at Ypsilanti.

FLOOD AT OTTUMWA.

Des Moines River Rose Suddenly and Broke the Levees.

Ottumwa, Ia., April 28.—The Des Moines river, which last midnight was stationary at high-water mark, established by the great flood of 1892, suddenly began to climb, and by 8 o'clock today had added fifteen inches to the record. The levees broke in many places, railroad embankments were undermined and hundreds of families were compelled to quit their residences in great haste. In Ottumwa, 500 families were compelled to move, a large number making their escape in boats. At Bradyville, eighteen miles north of this city, 150 families vacated their domiciles, and the principal streets are navigated in rowboats. At South Ottumwa, the river flows parallel with the main street. It broke across this street this morning, and caused a panic and scramble for higher ground. Five thousand people reside in this suburb. Several hundreds deserted their residences and removed their goods. The water stands four feet deep in Fairview Farm lands are completely inundated.

A large reservoir situated at the summit of Court hill is the source of considerable fear. The recent downpour has swollen the sources of supply, and the reservoir is now so full that it threatens to burst and flood the populous districts just below.

Rich farming lands above and below this city are inundated. The flood there has not reached a high stage, but has spread out in many places to a width of five to six miles. No loss of life has been reported, but the damage to property will be very large.

Railway traffic is almost at a standstill. All the small streams in Southern Iowa are out of their banks. Railroad bridges are gone and travel by highway is out of the question. The Burlington line between Chicago and Denver is cut in two by five miles of inundated tracks. Through passenger and freight trains are being run over the Galesburg & St. Louis and the Hannibal & St. Joseph roads to Omaha. The Rock Island also has five miles of track under water west of here. Train service was kept in motion with Keokuk until late this afternoon, when a large section of track went out at Cliffland, effectually blocking the Rock Island east and west. The Milwaukee & St. Paul roundhouse and yards are under water, and part of one approach to their bridge has been washed away. Trains are running only between Ottumwa and Marion. The Chicago Great Western line is entirely shut off. So is the Iowa Central. The Wabash still has entrance from the south, but is shut off on the north end.

Work on the levees has progressed since last Friday, but the sudden rise this morning destroyed a great part of the labor. Large forces are employed tonight in an endeavor to prevent further breaks. The suburbs have thus far been the worst sufferers. West Ottumwa, a large residence section, is entirely flooded, and the water is still rising. The inhabitants cling to their homes, however, hoping that the worst is over.

The Report From St. Louis.

St. Louis, April 28.—The Mississippi river registered a decline here this morning, but above, at Keokuk, Hannibal and other places, a rise of 1.6 feet is shown and the Missouri is also booming. At Kansas City the advance for the past forty-eight hours has been fully two feet, while at Boonville it is one-half foot. There are places near Quincy where the water spreads over the low lands from bluff to bluff, making the river from eight to ten miles wide.

The levees can stand a foot or two more of water, but the danger lies in the continual rising of surface water on the inside, which is now almost to the top of the banks.

Memphis Relief Work Ended.

Memphis, April 28.—The Memphis flood sufferers' relief committee acting in conjunction with the war department, ordered the formal closing of Camp Congo, at the home established for flood refugees early in the overflow season. All planters were notified to send in transportation for farmhands at once, as no further rations would be issued.

Condition at Hannibal.

St. Louis, April 28.—A dispatch from Hannibal, Mo., says: Flood conditions are becoming alarming. The government gauge at 10 o'clock this morning registered eighteen feet and eleven inches, being nearly two feet above the danger line. The water is up to front street, and cellars on Main street are filled.

Bridge Over the Kaw Damaged.

Kansas City, Mo., April 28.—One span of the Northwestern railroad bridge across the Kaw has been forced out of plumb by a great mass of driftwood.

Water Almost in Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, April 28.—The Red river continues to rise, and the flood situation is serious. The water is higher than in thirty years. Emerson, St. John and other towns between Winnipeg and the Dakota boundary line are under four feet of water, and the people are living in barns or the upper stories of their houses. The railroads cannot run trains, and all communication is shut off with several points. Winnipeg will have the water in a day or so. The water is now within a few inches of the electric power-houses, and soon the city will be in darkness.

Salt Lake, April 28.—

A private telegram from Price, Utah, says the posse which left Castle Gate yesterday in pursuit of the men who robbed the treasurer of the Pleasant Valley Coal Company had an encounter with the bandits and wounded one of them, whose name is supposed to be Fowler. The robbers were going toward Cedar mountains.

GREEKS HAVE BEEN DEFEATED

Larissa Evacuated by Constantine's Army.

Greek Forces Obligated to Give Way Before the Turks—Osman Pasha's Plan of Campaign—Details of Retreat.

Athens, April 27.—Larissa has been completely evacuated by the Greeks, who spiked their guns and carried away all the moveable cannon and munitions of war. All telegraphic communication with Larissa is interrupted, but it is understood that the retreat of the Greek army was conducted with the best of order. The excitement and disquiet at Athens because of the sudden abandonment of Larissa continues, but the tranquility of the city is unbroken.

The foreign warships have been signaled off Phalerum. A special dispatch received from the frontier asserts that the Turks, while attacking Mati, were repulsed several times yesterday. At 6 o'clock in the evening, the Greek forces were obliged to give way. The Greeks retreated in good order on Karacoles, where they are entrenched.

The wounded remain at Larissa under protection of the Red Cross flag. The evening papers counseled the people of Athens to receive the bad news with patience and sang froid, considering that the army fought courageously in defense of the national honor, paying the price by heavy sacrifices.

A Semi-Official Announcement

Athens, April 27.—The semi-official announcement was made this afternoon: "In a fierce engagement at Mati yesterday the troops fought heroically until 6 o'clock in the evening, and compelled the Turks to retreat, whereupon the Turks were heavily reinforced, and our positions were shaken and a retreat ordered. It is not yet known if the retreat was general."

A second dispatch from headquarters of the staff says: "Our troops are concentrated along the line of Pharsalos, and in consequence of these operations the abandonment of Tynavos and Larissa is considered inevitable."

The Retreat From Larissa.

Athens, April 27.—About 4 o'clock yesterday, the official in charge of the telegraph office at Larissa, observing a cloud of dust raised by the advancing cavalry of the Turks, asked leave to dismount the office. He was directed to leave it. Since 3 P. M. Saturday, the Larissa office had made no response to calls from Athens.

A Reveni dispatch says Edhem Pasha, on learning that the Greeks had been ordered to fall back, attempted to deliver a crushing blow with considerable force, which had been resting thirty-six hours, and succeeded in breaking through the Greek lines in several places.

A report has reached here that a Turkish force of 13,000 men, having pushed its way through the passes at Viodenros, Analipsis, Nezeros and Rapani, has descended on Derli. The Greeks have retreated to Makrychori. It would appear, however, that the position at Reveni itself, and at Boughazi is unaltered. The Greeks, as a result of the orders of Crown Prince Constantine, stopped just short of seizing Damasi.

Details of the Retreat.

London, April 27.—A dispatch to the Times from Milouna says: The Greeks abandoned Kritiri during the night and fled. The Turks are now marching on Larissa. Edhem Pasha will not allow his troops to enter the town, which, but little damaged, is surrounded by a cordon of cavalry. An officer with a squadron of horse has been dispatched for the protection of the Greek monastery in case of any disorder.

The Greeks, in their hurried flight, forgot to cut the telegraph wires between Milouna and Tynavos. The Turkish cavalry has reached the environs of Larissa and has taken several Greek soldiers captive. These say a perfect panic prevails in the town. Edhem Pasha makes his headquarters in Greece tonight. The sultan has sent him the Immiaz order in brilliant. The coast road between Elasona and Milouna has been cleared, and thus a supply of provisions and ammunition is assured. The discipline of the army is excellent. Today it is rumored here that the Crown Prince Constantine has fled. The Turkish loss so far has not been great, only about 400 at the most.

The Post's Athens correspondent says: A terrible panic took place on Friday night during the retreat, which became a miserable rout, the Turkish cavalry using rifles, bayonets and revolvers indiscriminately. The correspondents of the London Times and the Reuter Telegram Company were nearly killed. Mr. Williams, who represents the Daily Chronicle, remained at Tynavos. Other correspondents lost their sketches and their baggage.

The Daily Telegraph's Elasona correspondent says that Edhem Pasha's orders with respect to the inviolability of private property are strictly respected by his troops. The Greek villages are not sacked, and only a few "spirit stores" have been burned.

The Standard's correspondent at Milouna says the Turks captured large stores of provisions and ammunition at Tynavos.

Canadian Detective Shot.

Detroit, Mich., April 27.—Charles Mahoney, a government detective from Windsor Ontario, was shot and fatally wounded today, while attempting to capture two negro robbers at Belle River, Ontario.

THREE MEN DROWNED.

Fishermen Lose Their Lives Near Bonneville.

Bonneville, Or., April 28.—Three Finnish fishermen—John Sunquist, Anton Johnson and a man named Snyze—were drowned yesterday morning in the Columbia, in the narrow channel between the Oregon side and the island directly above this place. Only the body of Sunquist has been recovered.

The men had been visiting their nets, which were set in an eddy, near the shore, and were tacking back to Bonneville. There is a fearful current in the river in the channel, particularly at the present stage of water, and navigation is always dangerous. When in one of the most hazardous places in the stream, the wind, which was blowing a gale, caught the sail and capsize the boat, dumping the three men into the rapid water. They instantly disappeared.

A man named Olin, who was walking along the track of the O. R. & N., witnessed the accident, and endeavored to get a boat out to the rescue, but was unable to launch it in the rapid current. Seeing that all efforts to save the men would be in vain, he ran down the track abreast of the boat, which was drifting swiftly down stream, and caught it after it had lodged on a boom near the mouth of Tanner creek, below Bonneville.

A tant rope extended from the boom into the water, which pulled and tugged in the current, as if there was an anchor attached to it. Pulling it up, Olin was horrified to see that it supported the body of a man, and lifted out Sunquist, dripping and lifeless.

He immediately searched about in hope that the other two men had secured themselves to the boat, but could find neither of them, and their bodies have not as yet been recovered.

Sunquist's presence of mind in securing himself to the boat might have saved him in easy water, but it availed only to save his body in the terrible water below the cascades.

FORMAL SESSIONS.

No Business Transacted in Either House of Congress.

Washington, April 28.—The senate chamber had a deserted appearance when the session opened today, many of the senators having gone to New York to attend the Grant ceremonies. Harris of Tennessee was at his desk for the first time in many weeks, and was congratulated on his recovery from a serious illness.

In the absence of the vice-president and President Pro-tem, Frye, Nelson occupied the chair. Dr. Milburn's opening prayer was an eloquent reference to the gathering of thousands to pay tribute to the great chieftain, Grant, and he prayed that the glow of patriotism freshly kindled may strengthen our government and the union of states.

When the Indian bill was reported from the house, an effort was made to send it to conference, but German objected, saying it had been understood that no business was to be transacted. Thereupon, at 12:25 P. M., on motion of Morrill, the senate adjourned.

In the House.

Washington, April 28.—The house held a purely formal session today. Many of the members had gone to New York to attend the Grant monument exercises, and under the arrangement made last week after the reading of the journal, adjournment was immediately taken. The president's message transmitting the report of the Mexican boundary line commission was, however, received before adjournment. There was less than fifty members present.

Accident in London.

London, April 28.—A tremendous explosion occurred on the underground railway at 5:30 this evening, as a train filled with men from the city was making its usual stop at the Aldersgate station. The glass roof of the station was blown out, and the platform was strewn with debris. Many of the gaslights in the waiting-rooms and on the platforms were extinguished, and the station was left in semi-darkness. A panic ensued. When comparative quiet had been restored, it was found that a first-class coach had been wrecked, and that its occupants were lying about maimed and bleeding. Ten of the injured were found to be in a precarious condition, and were removed to the hospitals. A number of persons who were standing on the platform were also hurt. Much of the wreckage was hurled across the station.

The cause of the explosion is not known, but it is believed to have been the result of an accumulation of gas which became ignited in some way. Many persons, however, believe the disaster was not due to accident, but was caused by the explosion of a bomb, which had been placed in the station with the intention of wrecking it.

Fatal Boating Accident.

San Francisco, April 28.—Charles W. Lehmann, a young banking clerk employed by the German Savings & Loan Society, went yachting yesterday with a party of friends, and while being transferred from one of the yachts to another slipped upon the stern of the yawl and sank, probably striking his head as he went down. He caught the side of the frail craft and tipped it so that it filled rapidly and sank, throwing the three occupants into the bay. In the confusion which ensued, Lehmann was not seen to rise, and as he was unable to swim, he was undoubtedly lost, although the accident occurred close to the shore.

Muraviev's Appointment Confirmed.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—Emperor Nicholas has formally confirmed the appointment of Count Muraviev as Russian minister of foreign affairs, and he has conferred the decoration and order of Vladimir upon M. de Kotzebu, the Russian minister to the United States.

THE SITUATION IN BANES

Weyler Will Attack Cubans by Land and Sea.

SMALLPOX HAS BROKEN OUT

Four Americans in Cabanas Have Contracted the Dreaded Disease—One Already Dead—Lee Intervenes.

New York, April 26.—A dispatch to the Herald from Havana says: Smallpox has made its appearance in Cabanas prison. Owen Melton, an American correspondent and a member of the Competitor crew, contrived to send a note to friends here, under date of April 18, in which he says: "Smallpox has appeared in cell No. 4, in which there are four Americans. One prisoner has died and three others have got the disease. I nursed a friend named Gonzales, not knowing he had smallpox, and so I suppose I will have it. I can only hope for the best."

This information was carried to General Lee and he promptly informed the United States government of the state of affairs, also wrote Acting Captain-General Ahumada inquiring if there had been smallpox in Cabanas, and what steps had been taken to guard the health of the Americans imprisoned there. A reply was received making no statement of the prevalence of the disease, but stating that the Americans would be vaccinated at once.

It is thought here that the appearance of smallpox will make the American government press for the release of Melton and others, as it is understood Spain has practically decided to liberate them. General Weyler is an obstacle to the release of any Americans. He said last week in Santa Clara that Americans were set at liberty without good cause.

General Weyler's recent declaration that Santa Clara is pacified means that newspaper fighting there will be meager. Nevertheless he admits that within three days of his declaration of tranquility more than ninety rebels were killed in the province. He says he will no longer require any troops to fill the places of his killed and wounded, which means simply that he has been told to expect no more soldiers from Spain.

The situation in Banes, a seaport town in Santiago de Cuba, now commands much attention here. The gunboat Galicia and the cruisers Nueva Espana and Reina Mercedes are waiting outside the narrows until three columns sent by General Weyler have had time to move on the rebels by land. The insurgents have held the town since Rolo's expedition landed there on March 25. The harbor is one naturally capable of easy defense, and it is said the insurgents have placed torpedoes in the channel. It is most difficult to learn any definite news of the recent operations there, but it is plain that the Spanish recognize the necessity of moving in force against the town and attempting to attack it simultaneously by land and sea, for the purpose of preventing the rebels from continuing to hold the port.

General Gomez, according to the last reports, has left Arroyo Blanco district and moved nearer Trinidad. There is a rumor that he may be elected president of the republic to succeed Cisneros. Another idea is that he has decided to contest the possession of Banes, and many who thought his siege of Arroyo Blanco was a ruse to entice Weyler into the country where moderate force might be attacked to advantage, now believe that Weyler's movement toward Banes will meet a steady resistance which will add to the evidence already piled up to disprove General Weyler's declaration of pacification.

Expectorated on the Floor of a Car.

San Francisco, April 26.—W. B. Bradbury, the millionaire, was before Police Judge Low yesterday on a charge of expectorating on the floor of a street-car. He was arrested about two weeks ago, but in deference to the request of his attorney the hearing was postponed until yesterday.

The conductor of the car testified that he had requested Bradbury to refrain from spitting on the floor of the car, and called his attention to a placard on which was printed a copy of the ordinance prohibiting public expectoration. He said that the millionaire replied by requesting him to tell Mr. Vining that he (Bradbury) had paid his fare and would do as he liked. The conductor's testimony was corroborated by Mrs. P. C. The man was seized before he could carry out his purpose, and the king proceeded to the Campenelle race course, seemingly unmoved. Arriving at the race course, his majesty was greatly cheered. Acciarito appears to be a political fanatic. He says he had no accomplices.

The boy's father, residing on street, witnessed the affair, and over. Riffe and the father engaged a fight, and the latter drew a knife and stabbed Riffe in the side, four inches below the left nipple. The knife struck the seventh rib and glared ward penetrating the thoracic cavity. Riffe was taken to his room, hotel, and Howard was placed under arrest.
