Mr. Henry W. Corbett is still no nearer to being seated by the United States senate than he was when he received his appointment last March. It is understood now that he will not press the matter during the remainder of the session but allow it to go over until fall. Mr. Corbett left for Washington immediately upon receiving his credentials but did not present them for some time after his arrival. This apparent charge of intention was due to the fact that his first set of credentials would have appointed him for a full term of six years and the mistake was not discovered until at the national capital so that there was some delay in returning them for correction. The later indifference of the senators towards the governor's appointee somewhat dampened his ardor and when the matter finally drifted in and was postponed by the republican majority because no democrats were present his little remaining hope was put out.

The twin towns of Cottage Grove and Lemati in Southern Oregon are again quarrelling though so close neighbors. The other day Cottage Grove's marshal was caught on the Lemati side of the river and immediately taken before the recorder and fined five dollars and costs for wearing a marshal's badge in that city. Lacking the cash he had to spend four days in the cooler.

P. U. Commencement.

The exercises of the 53d commencement of Pacific university opened on Saturday evening with the annual recital given by pupils of the conservatory of music. Mrs. Walter Reed who has been the vocal instructor during the past two years, was in charge, and the general excellence of the program reflected great credit upon her instruction, as well as that of Mrs. F. R. Cook, the director of the conservatory and instructor in piano. It was generally admitted to be the most successful recital ever given here, and the hearty applause of the large audience which filled the spacious chapel of Marsh hall, showed its keen appreciation of the carefully prepared exercises. On Sunday morning at 11 o'clock, the baccalaureate sermon was preached by the Rev. J. R. Wilson, D. D., in the absence of President McClelland. It was a strong presentation of the theme that with divine aid a man may be entirely superior to his surroundings, and may even make a success of life in spite of them. The discourse was thoroughly practical and appropriate to the occasion, particularly so the well-chosen words addressed to the members of the graduating class at its close. In the evening Dr. Wilson preached the University sermon before the Christian associations of the college.

The "Darktown Jubilee" was the name of the concert given by the P. U. Glee Club in Verts hall Friday night. A good sized audience greeted the fourteen darkey minstrels who were dressed in character. Several rollicking choruses were sung, interspersed with up to date solos such as "My Girl is a Highborn Lady" and "O Ma Lulu", by Dr. Cole Black Aaron (Vroman), Mr. Hencoop Moses (Fletcher), Prof. Francis E. Adams Jr. (Lancefield), Hon. A. H. Washington (Bauer), Highwater Perimmons Noah (Johnson) and Rev. Beecher Payne (Bradley). The little fellow who was too bashful to sing turned out to be Gym Alley and his song "Teacher why am I so happy" adapted to the occasion. All other attractions, however, spite of their inky hue, paled beside the little Lambkins. This diminutive pair with their childish ways and grown up pretenses captivated their hearers and drew enthusiastic en-cores at their every appearance. The entertainment was gotten up by Mrs. Walter Reed, of the college conservatory, and she acted as accompanist. Local jokes were unworthy of mention except as being overdone, stale and devoid of interest.

Commencement exercises were especially good this year. First was a well-received piano quartette by Misses Yoder, Lee, Gertrude Marsh and Winifred Marsh. Dr. Ackerman, of Portland, gave the invocation, followed by a charming solo by Miss Merryman. Miss Lorena Gleason, of the Junior class read an essay on "The Expediency of an Upper House in Constitutional Government." Mr. J. E. Kirkwood, also a junior, treated of "The Study of History." A bass solo was sung by Mr. Fletcher, followed by an oration on "Webster as a Statesman" by Mr. John Miller, the third and last of the juniors. "Principle versus Example" was the subject of the first of the graduates, Mr. Harvey Hartley. Here came a beautiful piano solo by Miss Yoder and then Mr. C. E. Bradley told of the "Development of Medical Science." "Education as a Factor in Progress" was treated by Mr. P. E. Bauer. Mr. T. H. Adams, of the class of '94, presented a Master's oration on "The Evolution of Money."

Mrs. Walter Reed sang in her rich contralto voice, "When Love is Kind" and then in the due and ancient form Dr. Marsh, acting president, conferred the degrees. Prof. Ferrin voiced the regrets of the absent president, Dr. McClelland, now in the East, at his inability to be present, and told of bright prospects for the coming year.

The corporation dinner following the graduation exercises was as attractive as ever and the round table speeches bright and interesting.

The Choral Union, twenty ladies and ten gentlemen, gave their annual concert in the auditorium last evening before only a fair sized audience but in merit it was the peer of any previous musical occasion. The cantata "The Rose Maiden" was rendered with the leading parts taken by an excellent Portland quartet, Mrs. Albert Sheldon, soprano, Mrs. Walter Reed, contralto, Mr. Henry Hogue, tenor and Mr. Dom Zan, baritone. Mrs. Cook was accompanist.

Academy exercises Tuesday were well attended and pleasing. The program, which was well rendered and won golden opinions for the class of '97, is here given:

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

The first annual Pythian conclave will be at Forest Grove by the four K. of P. lodges of Washington county on Wednesday, June 23rd. An address on the tenets of Pythianism and the fellowship of man will be delivered by Oregon's noted orator, Hon. Wm. Rasmus.

The grounds will be open at 9:30 a. m. and close when Knightly inclination dictates. Pythian parade at 10:30 a. m. marshalled by Knight F. T. Kane and led by two Reed and Cornet bands. Great tug of war between the four county lodges for the prize banner. This exhibition of brawn will close the intellectual exercises. Bicycle races, two mile lap for gold medal, half mile race for suitable prize. Entries open to all county cyclists. Free races, broad jump, running broad jump, pole vault etc. Come, bring your family and enjoy the day. Day to close with big, rousing, jolly clam bake. Pythian fraternity and general public invited.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All druggists.

"There's no use in talking" says W. H. Broadwell, druggist, La Cygne, Kas., "Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy does the work. After taking medicine on my own preparation and those of others' I took a dose of Chamberlain's and it helped me; a second dose cured me. Candidly and conscientiously I can recommend it as the best thing on the market." The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by J. C. Clark druggist.

Additional Locals.

The rains of Sunday and Monday came in the last day of grace for the ground was parched and crops had begun to brown with every prospect of utterly failing. As it is no serious damage has been done and the outlook is bright as it should be considering the extra attention farmers have given to their work this year.

Some for ten, some for twenty and some for thirty years have suffered from piles and then have been quickly and permanently cured by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great remedy for piles and all forms of skin diseases, J. C. Clark, druggist.

Mrs. Sanford E. Wilcox, aged about 70 years, died at the home of her son, Louis Wilcox, in Scoggins valley, of consumption, at 4 o'clock Saturday morning. She lived for over 40 years on part of the same farm where she died. She was one of Oregon's pioneer women. Five children survive her namely; Mrs. Melva Page, of North Yamhill; Mrs. Dell Madison, Louis Wilcox, Dudley Wilcox, of Scoggins valley; John Wilcox of Gaston. She will be buried in the Almoron Hill cemetery, near Gaston, Sunday.

Not only acute lung troubles, which may prove fatal in a few days, but old chronic coughs and throat troubles may receive immediate relief and be permanently cured by One Minute Cough Cure.

Almoron Hill, of Gaston was a passenger on Monday morning's train. Mr. Hill is a pioneer of '43 and an acknowledged authority on the early history of Oregon. He was much pleased with a recent article in The Advance which he thought gave Dr. Whitman his proper credit without making for him the extravagant claims which others have set up for him as the savior of Oregon. Mr. Hill says he has found himself to have erred in his published communication to the Oregonian last week, giving to another the leadership of the four hundred in the early emigration when he should have said Gov. Burnett. Mr. Burnett who was the first governor of California, had a claim near Hillsboro.

Dr. F. A. Bailey and Capt. J. D. Merryman, of Hillsboro, are in town today.

Mr. Horace Stewart has been making a special study of assaying for the past two years and has become very proficient. Mr. Stewart has done some very satisfactory work for local parties.

Rev. Dr. W. C. Cantner, of Salem, delivered before the college literary societies Monday evening an address which was a literary masterpiece and worthy of the cordial reception which it met from the large audience in attendance.

Mr. Leopold Huff, of Woodland, Wash., brother-in-law of Mr. Anton Pfanner, the missing banker, spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of Judge Baber.

The assignees of the Pfanner bank have so far found everything straight in their examination.

Rev. Mr. Jones, of Oswego, father of Miss Gladys Jones, the sweet singer, will preach in the Congregational church here one week from Sunday at the morning service.

Last week some misguided person stole from the walls of the Shady Brook school, where Miss Rose Wilcox is teaching, the exhibit of school-work consisting of maps, papers of arithmetic, geography, language and music, also valuable drawings and designs. The loss of these at the close of the term is a disappointment to the pupils. Apart from the school these papers had no value and the only object of the theft can be malice, mere meanness.

Hundreds of thousands have been induced to try Chamberlain's Cough Remedy by reading for others, and having tested its merits for themselves are today its warmest friends. For sale by J. C. Clark, druggist.

Big preparations for the conclave of Pythians which meets in the Grove here on the 23rd, are being made. Bicycle races will interest and Hon. W. M. Rasmus, of Portland, will instruct the multitude. Teams from the four lodges of the county, Glencoe, Cornelius, Hillsboro and Forest Grove, are to have a tug of war. In the evening will be a big clam bake. The general public is invited to come and bring its viands. The Knights of Pythias have repeatedly proved themselves hospitable hosts and the day will be a grand success.

When Anton Pfanner left he took the S. P. Ry., and he arrived at his destination safe and sound. This is the route to take for all parts of the United States. Buy your tickets of I. W. Patterson, agent, at the Hatchet office.

Dr. Everest, of Portland, has purchased Jeter's drug store of Gaston.

Mr. L. I. St. Clair and his family of eight persons arrived in the Grove Tuesday evening from McCune, Kansas, to make this vicinity their home. At present they are located in the Bradley house belonging to Mr. Pfanner, on the base line, until they find some property satisfactory to them. Mr. St. Clair was a man of considerable prominence in Kansas and came to Oregon at the instance of his friend, Mr. Thompson, who has been here some months. A number of his Kansas neighbors will come to the county soon if he finds the country equal to the favorable report they have heard.

A. H. Patter with C. E. Atkins & Co., Ind., write: "I have never before given a testimonial in my life. But I will say that for three years we have never been without Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house, and my wife would as soon think of being without flour as a bottle of this Remedy in the summer season. We have used it with all three of our children and it has never failed to cure—not simply stop pain, but cure absolutely. It is all right, and anyone who tries it will find it so." For sale by J. C. Clark, druggist.

Splendid offer.—For our regular price we will furnish you the HATCHET and Chicago Weekly Inter-Ocean both for one year. This offer is to new subscribers as well as to all who renew for a year in advance.

Mr. Boatman, a brewer at The Dalles, was the first man to get his money from the bank and he got it in full. A man from above Gales Creek was owing him on a mortgage and deposited the money in the bank here. Mr. Boatman was notified of the deposit and forwarded the mortgage by registered mail but heard immediately after of the bank's closing and stopped delivery of the letter by telegraph. When he arrived here himself he got the letter and presented the mortgage to the assignees. As soon as the matter was made clear the money was paid over and the mortgage was satisfied. Quite different was the experience of Mr. Fuqua who was the first to lose, selling a $50 account to Dr. Ward for fifty cents on the dollar.

The Oregon State Horticultural society will hold its midsummer meeting at Newberg, Oregon, June 29 and 30. Beginning Tuesday evening the session continues through Wednesday evening. Program consists of: Address of Welcome, J. H. Littlefield; Response, Pres. E. L. Smith; Evaporation, C. L. Dailey, Salem; The Cherry, C. E. Hoskins; Some Notes, R. D. Allen, Silverton; Economy in Evaporators, J. R. Shepard; Some Points About an evaporator, C. J. Kurtz, Salem. (Wednesday the afternoon will be devoted to visiting orchards, inspecting evaporators, orchard tools and appliances, and other equipments.) Practical Evaporation, Hon. G. W. Riddle, Riddles; Observations and Experiences in Fruit Evaporation, H. E. Dosch, Hillsdale.

The Maccabee county picnic drew four or five hundred people to Greenville Friday, who put in an enjoyable day in that hospitable town. Speeches by Deputy Supreme Commander Sherwood, of Portland, and Editor Long, of Hillsboro with songs by the Wheeler brothers and Messrs. John Wirtz, Chas Dolstrom, and Met Wagner occupied the forenoon. Dinner time was the occasion for the display of a bounteous feast for every one had brought the best the land afforded and enough to feed the neighborhood. Then followed an evenly matched ball game in which Greenville defeated Forest Grove 13 to 12. After that dancing and music by the Maccabee band, of Forest Grove, kept up the interest till far in the night. A big crowd was there but it was good natured and had a splendid time.

Rev. J. S. Griffin, '39, of Hillsboro, is among the pioneers in Portland.

Marriage Licenses.—Robert Alexander and Emma Sheldon, Walter J. Wismer, and Laura Held, Theodore P. Bowlby and Emma May Simpson.

Mrs. Walker, of Forest Grove, is probably the oldest pioneer in the state having come here in '37.

Ed. Schulmerich, R. B. Goodin and A. B. Bailey, of Hillsboro, and E. J. Thomas, of Beaverton, are attending Masonic grand lodge in Portland.

Quite a number of ladies are learning of Mrs. Noak how to do macrame work. It is done with the fingers by tying knots and produces a prettier effect than crocheting which it considerably resembles. Mrs. Noak is the lady to whom reference was made last week. She is deserving and it is gratifying to see the encouragement she is receiving in her efforts to provide for herself and family.
