A good portion of the threshing is done and wheat and oats are turning out well considering the dry weather we had in the forepart of the season.

There was quite a tragedy occurred in Thatcher last Saturday night. Mr. E. A. Shaw came over to see if there was meeting at the church and going home in the woods which he had to go through, •Il at once there appeared an object in front of him and as it gave a growl, Mr. Shaw became very much frightened and thought it must be a wild animal of some kind so he thought it best to defend himself and the only weapon he had in his possession was his walking cane, he struck at what he supposed to be a wild animal and to his fortunate dog that gave the growl and poor Vic got the blow.
