Rev. J. S. Griffin, of Hillsboro, who came to Oregon in '39, today is celebrating his 90th birthday. Dr. Geiger Sr. is in Hillsboro visiting him. Mr. Griffin was connected with the earliest newspaper in the state, one published at Tualatin. The HATCHET is proud of having upon its subscription list a number of the first settlers of Oregon and of none more than Father Griffin who is the earliest of the men pioneers surviving.

To him it extends its cordial wishes that the returning years will find him upon this anniversary day as hale and hearty as he now is for time has dealt gently with him and a man twenty years his junior might envy his health. Washington county also boasts the eldest of the lady pioneers in Mrs. Mary Walker of Forest Grove, who came here a few years earlier than Mr. Griffin.

The cinegraph, one of the later products of Edison's genius, entertained large audiences in Verts hall Friday and Saturday evenings. A rapid succession of its anteaous photographs thrown upon a screen produces images which seem to have motion and are very realistic.
Scenes of fighting fire, skirt and serpentine dancing, fishing, railway travel, home life, etc., constituted performance. The wind up was an osculation performance which was received with unusual interest. The gramophone, one variety of the numerous talking machines, rendered selections "between the acts" but was good only in a whistling chorus and a piccolo orchestra selection.
Unfortunately the darkening of the house for the stereopticon gave opportunity for another of those exhibitions of rowdy-ism which are becoming of such frequent occurrence at public entertainments here as to make respectable people hesitate about going out in public. The city requires a license fee for such occasions and ought to in return protect the audience from these annoyances which in last week's instance transgressed the bounds of common decency.

The Forest Grove boys say that the reason that they were beaten in that game with McMinnville was on account of the "superior weight" of the Baptist college boys while the McMinnville Telephone-Register gives the weight of each player, aggregating 1807 for Forest Grove against 1756 for McMinnville.
For those interested in settling this important question the list is here given but let it be remarked that while the race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong yet generally the victory goes to the victors and the world honors them accordingly. Explanation upon the part of the vanquished, however plausible, is idle and better left unsaid. Our boys played a good game and the result was no disgrace to them.
The whyness of the why is not bothering the public. However any one caring to verify the addition will find that the Telephone-Register is better at figures than at arithmetic for it has transferred the totals and proves itself that McMinnville had the heavier team.

Obituary.

IRELAND.—Lucinda E. Miller was born May 23, 1838 in Putman county, Indiana, and departed this life Oct. 21, 1897, at the age of fifty-nine years, four months and twenty-eight days. Her parents moved to Henry county, Iowa, where she resided until her marriage to Geo. R. Ireland on Feb. 2, 1857. This union was blessed with six children, one of whom died in infancy, but the other five are living. She and her husband moved to Decatur county, Iowa, and there they both united with the Christian church in 1867, of which she remained a faithful member until her death. She with her husband and family, had resided in Nebraska about ten years. The children and grandchildren were all present, and she recognized them and called each by name to her bedside and bade them good-bye and asked them to live right and meet her in heaven.

The funeral was held Saturday at 2 p. m., at the residence, Rev. J. W. Hull conducting the services. Interment was at the Blair cemetery. Many friends extended deep sympathy to the relatives in this hour of their sorrow.

A Blair, Neb., newspaper contains the above obituary notice of Mrs.
George Ireland who was a sister-in-law of Mrs. Robt. Ireland of Greenville and had a number of relatives in this county.
Her husband visited here last year and will be remembered by many.

The True Remedy.

W. M. Repine, editor Tiskilwa, Ill., "Chief," says: "We won't keep house without Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds. Experimented with many others, but never got the true remedy until we used Dr.
King's New Discovery. No other remedy can take its place in our home, as in it we have a certain and sure cure for Coughs, Colds, Whooping Coughs, etc." It is idle to experiment with other remedies, even if they are urged on you as just as good as Dr. King's New Discovery.
They are not as good, because this remedy has a record of cures and besides is guaranteed. It never fails to satisfy.
