WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Productiveness of 1897 Never Before Equaled.

HILLSBORO, Nov. 23.—Never in the history of this county has the productiveness of 1897 been equaled. The increase in price of farm products has not been confined to grain but embraces all the principal products the farmers have to sell. Even the straw piles, which have heretofore usually been burned, in many instances this year have been baled and disposed of at a good profit. Hops and oats are probably the only crops that fall short of former years, the shortage in oats being due to better prospects in wheat, and in hops to the rain and mold at harvest time. The quality of the hops harvested is, however, reported by buyers to be the best in the state. A very careful and conservative estimate of the output of Washington county products for 1897 follows:

Wheat, bushels	Number	Value
Oats	650,000	$ 487,500
Barley and Rye	450,000	135,000
Corn	20,000	8,000
Potatoes	1,500	300
Fruit, including apples, prunes, plums and pears	400,000	160,000
Onions	75,000	66,000
Hops, bales	6,000	140,400
Hay, tons	40,000	400,000
Wool, pounds	40,000	4,800
Butter and cheese	600,000	150,000
Grapes	160,000	8,000
Bacon	400,000	40,000
Lumber, feet	10,000,000	75,000
Sheep	7,500	15,000
Hogs	5,000	17,500
Horses	1,000	40,000
Cattle	4,000	60,000

Total value.....$1,867,500

Nov. 29.—In the circuit court today Ledrick Kabe, indicted for selling whisky to minors, pleaded not guilty and his trial was set for December 2.

James Biggs, indicted for stealing $4, was arraigned and given until tomorrow to plead.

John Moore pleaded not guilty, and his trial was set for December 2.

John W. Corey waived arraignment on two indictments for selling liquor to minors, and pleaded not guilty.

In the case of J. W. Shute vs. Allen Parrent et al., foreclosure, judgment as prayed for in the amended complaint was granted.

Default was entered in the case of Minnie Latimer vs. William Latimer, and the case set for hearing December 3.

In the case of Jacob Nowark vs. J. B.
Prickett et al., the Dilley Labor Exchange, action for money, a motion to strike out the amended complaint was argued and submitted, and taken under advisement.

In the case of M. H. Lowery vs. T. Y.
Ralston et al., action for damages, defendant was allowed until the last day but one of this term to answer, and plaintiff was allowed 30 days from that time to reply.

The case of C. P. Bacon vs. J. W. Lawyer, for possession of realty and damages, is now on trial.

"They Twain Shall be One Flesh."

The happy pair were Eva Blanche Sears and Charles A. Kern. The ceremony took place the day before Thanksgiving at the residence of the bride's father, S. C. Sears, near Thatcher, Rev.
Daniel Staver the officiating clergyman.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter N. Sears stood up on either side of the young people through the embarrassing ordeal.

A turkey dinner was then served with five kinds of cake; bride's cake, groom's cake, fruit cake, layer cake and stomach ache to all who ate too much.

A large number of beautiful and most useful presents expressed the good wishes of many relatives and friends.
After a season of delightful interchange of thought and innocent joke, the company dispersed and the young wife accompanied by her husband left for the afternoon train to go to her home in Sunnyside, Portland, Oregon.

"What God hath joined together let no man put asunder."

Following is the list of relatives and invited guests: Mr. and Mrs. Sears, Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Sears, Mr. Charles A.
Sears, Mr. Bert Sears, Miss Ethel Sears, Miss Harriet Sears, Miss Abbie Sears, patrotic and historical. One of them is to stimulate interest in the American Revolution and loyalty to its principles.

For this purpose the society offers three prizes of $25, $15 and $10 respectively, for the best essay written by any student under 21 years of age, in any public school in Oregon, on any one of the following four subjects:

1. The Continental Congress—the influence which caused it to assemble; its character and rank as a deliberative body; what it accomplished.

2. The causes which led to armed resistance in Massachusetts, including the contest of Lexington and Concord.

3. The Trenton-Princeton campaign.

4. The surrender of Cornwallis and the causes leading up to it.

Essays are limited in length to twenty-five hundred words; must be written on legal cap on one side of the paper in the student's own handwriting and must be accompanied by the certificate of the principal of the school attended by the author, to the effect that the author is a bona fide student in the school and has been in attendance therein not less than six weeks during the school year of 1897-8. Essays must be forwarded to the chairman of the committee in charge, Wallace McCamant, 34 Concord Building, Portland, so as to reach him not later than February 1st, 1898. In awarding the prizes the committee will be governed by these three considerations:

1. Historical accuracy.

2. Manner of treatment.

3. Orthography, grammar, syntax and punctuation.

Any additional information relative to the competition which may be desired, will be cheerfully furnished by the chairman of the committee. The essay which is awarded the first prize will be published in full, with the name of the author, in the public press.

Experienced statesmen and politicians in Washington do not refuse to express the view that a refusal by the Republican members of the Ohio legislature to support for Senator the man who was unanimously nominated for the position by the state convention and most of the county conventions would destroy the political standing of men refusing. The steady growth of public sentiment in favor of election of Senators by the people will not brook a refusal of a member of a legislature to be governed by the expressed wish of the people in state and county conventions and at the polls, as was the case at the Ohio election.—

Thanksgiving at Cornelius.

Many and loud are the praises heard of the thanksgiving supper and entertainment. Songs by the Misses Henderson, Cornelius, Vickers and Tibbitts and a duet by Messrs. Stratton and Phillips were pleasing features of the evening.
Little Lena Hancock and Miss Stella Tibbitts distinguished themselves. Lena in her recitation and Miss Stella in her reading "Legend of Bregenz". While Miss Echo James as a "Maiden Lady" in her lecture on "Woman" brought down the house. Stereopticon views with many witty comments by Rev.
Luce, formed the latter part of the entertainment after which the audience sat down to a "Feast of Fat Things" which the ladies of Cornelius know so well how to prepare. The proceeds of the evening were $16.75 which will be expended in the interests of the church.

Something to Know.

It may be worth something to know that the very best medicine for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This medicine is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centres in the stomach, gently stimulates the Liver and Kidney, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c or $1.00 per bottle at the Miller Pharmacy.

"I crave but One Minute," said the public speaker in a husky voice; and then he took a dose of One Minute Cough Cure, and proceeded with his oratory.
One Minute Cough Cure is unequalled for throat and lung trouble. J.
C. Clark, Druggist.

Rheumatism, which is caused by an acid in the blood, is cured by the use of Ayer's Sarsaparilla. External treatment is of no avail. Until the blood is thoroughly cleansed of all impurities, it is useless to expect the cure of any disease.
Hear and others, will cure you.

Early Risers, the famous little pills for constipation, biliousness, and all stomach and liver troubles. They never gripe.
