Washington County News

Current Comment-Timely Topics AUSTIN CRAIG

WASHINGTON COUNTY NEWS

REPUBLICAN

WILL FRENCH

Proprietor

ceived by the person or persons to whom it is sent or not .- Bellinger &

Cotton's Annotated Codes and Stat-

Office in Abbott Building.

Issued Every Friday in the Year.

One Dollar a Year in Advance.

tions to the Proprietor.

Address all business communica

All matter for publication should be addressed to: "Editor Washington

Application made for entry at the postoffice of Forest Grove, Oregon,

A tip-over on the mountain, near

Walt Smith's, on the Wilson river road, threw Mr. and Mrs. F. Seve.

arce and Mrs. Bunn from a carriage in which they were being driven over

by S. Iron of Tillamook. Mr. Bunn

was badly cut in the face and the others bruised. They were passing

Emmett Quick's wagon and drove out into the brush, having a narrow escape ladies fainted away in the excitement.

Chas. Lorenz, who works at Wm.

Tuesday train to Portland.

as second class mail matter.

Forest Grove, Oregon

Six Pages $1.00 a Year In Advance

Section 3832. Whenever any person. company or corporation owning or controling any newspaper or periodical of any kind, or whenever any editor or proprietor of any such newspaper or periodical, shall mail or send any such newspaper or periodical to any person or persons in this state without first receiving an order for said newspaper or periodical from such persons or persons to whom said newspaper or periodical is matled, shall be deemed to be a gift, and no debt or obligation shall accrue against any such person or persons, whether said newspaper or periodical is rethe contrast alone of the two men as "Where Rolls the Oregon." they showed themselves here is reason The Lewis and Clark Centennial and for a big Hermann vote. North Pacific Exposition,

BY WAY OF INTRODUCTION.

Portland, 1905.

A new paper, but not new to the past of Washington county, its people, its resources, its needs and its ways, The News feels no sense of strangeness nor recognizes any necessity for introduction. Its advent fills the county's quota, making the number up to the state's average, but The News seeks to occupy a field now vacant, to fill the position which it believes is to be the future of country newspapers, to supplement with local news as carefully gathered, well ordered and attractively presented the great dailies with which it could sustain no rivalry but which now are visiting many farmers' homes and will in thupenetrate everywhere, as the rural delivery system extends its advantages to the remotest residences. The columns point the way toward what may be expected when the news-gathering is systematized and the rush of get ting out the first issue settles into the regular routine. If you like it, take it. If it creditably represents the county, send it to your friends, and if you don't see in its pages what you want, ask for it.

REAMES, HERMANN AND ROOSE-

VELT. Democratic opponents of the Republican candidate for congressman are exercised over the possibility of Mr. Hermann not being as welcome a guest at the White House as one A. E. Reames, but it is noticeable that President Roosevelt did not invite Mr. Reames to accompany him on his trip from Salem to Portland. Neither has he yet given an interview in Reames' behalf, advising believers in Republican principles to vote for the gentleman whose eminent qualifications are all summed up in that he was not born out of Oregon, is a son-in-law of the late Republican Representative in Congress (who abhorred his principles), is the pupil of Capt. Sam White (whose Dixle ancestry makes him less ashamed to acknowledge belief in some Democratic doctrines. though the district attorney still feels it a duty to neglect his office of pros ecuting attorney in Eastern Oregon to foist on the people of Webfoot an unrepresentative Representative), without capability or convictions, and is being boosted principaly as a means of increasing the circulation in the

First District of a youthful Portland paper. Washington county will do the proper thing by Mr. Reames' candidacy and in respect to the memory of his regretted father-in-law express its appreciation of the honors the Republican party showed Mr. Tongue by giving the Republican nominee en undiminished Republican majority. But a rock. Drs. Large and Via put the injured member in a plaster cast.

Tuesday afternoon by falling against

Contractor Jerome expects to begin work this week on Mr. McEldowney's new residence. He is now busy with the foundation of Frank Wagner's dwelling on Pacific avenue.

Mr. C. B. V. Russell has built a fine big porch to his home and had it

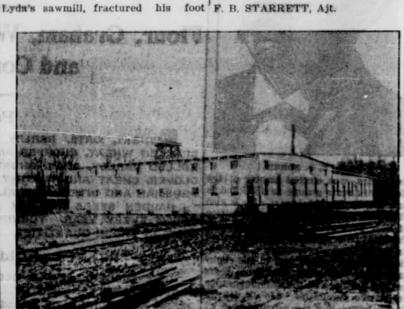

Eighth - grade examinations have been going on at the public school upon questions supplied by the state superintendent, 16 of the 18 who were privileged to take the examination being present. The papers will be reviewed at Salem.

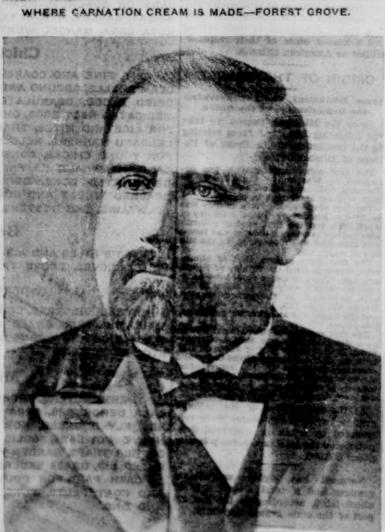

John O'Neal, a young man residing two miles north of here, was thrown out of a wagon Saturday morning, and the wheel passed over and broke the right leg near the ankle. Dr. Ward set the limb and Mr. O'Neal is getting along nicely.

Mrs. Esther M. Hall of Sherwood, wife of J. V. Hall, aged 24 years, who has been bedridden the past six weeks and removed to a sanitarium at Port land two weeks ago, died last week The remains were buried at the Hood View Cemetery. A husband, brother and three small children survive her Memorial Sunday. - Sunday, May 24 being the day ast apart for old soldier to attend church in a body, all over our land, J. B. Matthews' Post, which always observes this custom, cordially from a very serious accident. Both invites all old soldiers of any war to join us on this occasion. The Post will The Tillamook travelers took the early meet at Vert's Hall at 10 o'clock A M., form in line and march to the M. E. Church. The column will start at F. S. BARNES. 10:40 sharp.

> Post Commander. F. B. STARRETT, Ajt.

BINGER HERMANN, OUR NEXT CONGRESSMAN.

ORGANIZED LABOR, By DAVID M. PARRY,

President National Association of Manufacturers

REMAIZED LABOR IS PARTICULARLY DENUNCIATORY OF TRUSTS, BUT WHAT GREATER TRUST IS THERE THAN ITSELF? IT IS THE GRAND TRUST OF THE TIMES. IT IS THE MUSCLE TRUST, THE TRUST OF MEN WHO MAKE THEIR LIVING BY MANUAL LABOR.

It is to be hoped that, in accordance with the Nelson amendment to the department of commerce bill, the government, in turning the searchlight of publicity on the trusts, will not forget organized labor. If any institution needs to be exposed to the limelight, it is certainly trades unionism. But it is not only a trust itself; it is a creator of other trusts-of capitalistic trusts, as distinguished from labor trusts. ONE OF THE LEADING CAUSES FOR THE FORMATION OF A NUM-BER OF THE INDUSTRIAL COMBINATIONS HAS BEEN THE NECESSITY THAT HAS CONFRONTED EMPLOY-ERS TO UNITE THAT THE EXACTIONS OF LABOR MIGHT BE MORE EFFECTIVELY DEALT WITH.

Organized labor is not only seeking to absorb with its tentacles all the manual workers of the cities and factories, but it is also reaching out to take in the farm laborers. Unions of the latter are reported to be rapidly growing in Illinois and Indiana. It is also stated that they are preparing to exact double the wages heretofore paid for this class of labor. If a compact organization of farm hands could be formed, a very serious problem would confront not only the farmers, but the entire country. There can be no doubt that such an organization would demand, with all the unreasonableness of ignorance, a wage scale that would greatly enhance the cost of living to each and every one and would in all likelihood bring about the ruin of our immense export trade in grain and flour.

ORGANIZED LABOR AND THE SOCIALIST PARTY DIFFER IN ONE ESSENTIAL RESPECT. THE FORMER SEEKS TO BRING ABOUT SOCIALISM BY FORCIBLE METHODS, AND THE LATTER SEEKS THE SAME END THROUGH THE BALLOT BOX.

Its attempts to compel the shortening of the hours of labor without regard to the effect on industrial welfare, its dictation of uniform wage scales, which place the indolent and inapt on the same footing with energy and capability, and the absolute power it arrogates to itself over the individual on the theory that the individual has no rights which the many need respect, are all cardinal principles of socialism. SOCIALISM IS A DENIAL OF INDIVIDUAL AND PROPERTY RIGHTS, AND SO, ALSO, IS TRADES UNIONISM WHEN REDUCED TO ITS LAST ANALYSIS.

A Year of Prosperity For the West

By GEORGE GOULD, Head of the Gould System of Raliroads

CAN SEE A FULL YEAR OF PROSPERITY AHEAD FOR THE WEST. THE PHYSICAL CONDITION OF THE RAILROADS IN THE WEST WAS NEVER BETTER THAN IT IS NOW.

All our earnings are going ahead of the largest period we have ever had.

I have never seen wheat look so well in all my experience in the west as it does today. I BELIEVE THAT IT WILL BE SOME TIME BEFORE THE WEST WILL EVER NEED TO CALL ON NEW YORK

FOR MONEY. The western bankers have their own money to lend to their own people, unless money should get so high in Wall street as to make it profitable to send it east.

WHAT THE RICH MAN CANNOT PURCHASE

By President CHARLES W. ELIOT of Harvard

E WANT MORE HAPPINESS, MORE REAL SATISFACTION, MORE JOY, MORE ENJOY-

It is said that we Americans are always trying to get money-more pay, higher wages, higher salaries, more profit in our trade-and there is truth in that description of the American aim. Now, is that the ultimate end of life? Is that the way to win greater happiness, truer enjoyment, deeper satisfactions?

I THINK THE FIRST SOURCE, THE GREATEST SOURCE IN THIS WORLD, IS FAMILY LIFE, THE JOYS OF FATHER AND MOTHER AND CHILDREN AND GRANDTATHER AND GRAND MOTHER AND GRANDCHILDREN. THEY LAST.

In the natural course of life they last fifty, even sixty, years, and they grow as time passes by. They are always increasing; they are not diminishing satisfactions.

Does the rich man have any more of these true and high satisfactions than the poor man? Not one whit more! He cannot buy them. They are the result of natural affection and of disciplined character. They are absolutely unpurchasable in this world.

May 23 In History.

1761-Captain William Kidd and three coadjutors were hanged for piracy. 1783—James Otis, patriot or-ator of the Revolution. killed by lightning at Andover, Mass.; born 1725. "Otis was a flame of fire," said Adams,

1725. "Otis was a flame of fire," said Adams, referring to the first speech, in 1761. "With * * a rapid torrent of impetuous eloquence he hurried away all before him. American independence was then and there born."

8-Thomas Hood, English humorous poet, born in London; died there 1845.

24-Ambrose E. Burnside, eminent Fed-poet, born in London; died there 1845.

1824—Ambrose E. Burnside, eminent Federal general, born at Liberty, Ind.; died 1881.

1850—Jane Porter, author of "Thaddeus of Warsaw" and other heroic novels, died; born 1776.

1896—General Lucius Fairchild died in Madison, Wis.; born 1811.

1200—Francis Bicknell Carpenter, noted American portrait artist, famed for his painting of the "Emancipation Procisemation," died in New York city; born 1830.

May 24 In History.

1750-Stephen Girard, eccentric millionaire and philanthropist, born near Bordeaux, France; died in Philadelphia 1831. 1795—Silas Wright, governor of and sena-tor from New York, born at Amherst,

Mass.; died 1847. 1819—The Savannah, first steamer to cross the Atlantic, left Savannah; reached Liverpool in 25 days. The Savannah was the result of ten years' experi-menting in vessels and machinery for ocean navigation. She proceeded to Russia from England and returned from St. Petersburg to New York in 26 days. Both sails and steam were 1879—William Lloyd Garrison, abolitionist and journalist, died in New York; born 1805.

1805.
1809—Senor Don Emilio Castelar, Spanish republican statesman, died at Murcia, Spain; born 1832. 1902—Lord Pauncefote, British ambassa-dor to the United States, died in Washington; born 1828.

May 25 In History.

1803—Raiph Waldo Emerson born at Bos-ton; died 1882. Emerson at Harvard was rather a reader than a student. He passed much of his time in the library and was not brilliant in the classroom. Ordained as a Unitarian preacher, he rebelled against the orthodox views of the Lord's supper and dox views of the Lord's supper and resigned. After a trip to Europe he began to lecture and to write. Transcendentalism was his field, and he contributed to the organ of that school of thought, the Dial, becoming its editor in 1842. Emerson's most famous production is his volume of studies called "Representative Men."

called "Representative Men." 1894-Dr. Alexander Kohut, a distinguish-ed rabbi and oriental scholar, died in New York city; born 1842.

New York city; born 1842. 1899—Rosa Bonheur, famous animal painter, died at Fontainebleau; born 1821. 1900—Signor Gluseppe Puente, famous opera baritone, died in Germany; born

May 26 In History.

735-The Venerable Bede, first Anglo-Saxon historian, died; born 672. 1703—Samuel Pepys, whose diary of common life in England is noted, died. 1509—Joseph Haydn, musical composer, died; born 1732, 1840—Admiral William Sidney Smith, a roted British officer in the wars with Napoleon, called the hero of St. Jean d'Acre, died; be the hero of St. Jean d'Acre, dled; born is62—Henry Thomas Buckle, eminent Brit-ish historian, died at Damascus; born

-The greatest flood ever known on the Mississippi reached its highest point; loss of property from Kansas City to New Orleans at least $50,000,000; many lives lost. 1902—Henry Greville (Alice Marie Durand), noted French author, died in Paris; born 1842. Jean Benjamin Constant, noted French painter, died in Paris;

May 27 In History.

1564—John Calvin (Jean Chauvin) born; died at Geneva 1599.

1794—Cornellus Vanderbilt, capitalist, born near Stapleton, N. Y.; died in New York Jan. 4, 1877.

1836—Jay Gould, financier, born in Delaware county, N. Y.; died 1892.

1840—Nicolo Paganini, celebrated Italian violinist, died at Nice; born 1784. 1880—The hundredth anniversary of the birth of Thomas Moore, the celebrated Irish poet. 1896-Southern Illinois and eastern Missouri devastated by a terrible tornado. In St. Louis the damage amounted to over $10,000,000; 321 buildings were total-by destroyed and 7,312 severely dam-aged; deaths in St. Louis alone, 427.

1800—Lord Roberts' army began the in-vasion of the Transvaal in force. The Boxers began their march toward Pe-

May 28 In History.

1660-George I. of England

born, a comparatively obscure German prince-ling, son of the elector of Hanover, at Osna-burg; died near there 1721; king of England 1714.

1727; king of England 1714; 1807—Louis John Rudolph Agassiz, naturalist and geologist, born in Mo-tier, Switzerland; died Noah Webster.

1843-Noah Webster, American lexicographer, died in New Haven; born at West Hartford, Conn. 1758. Webster went through Yale and served as capwent through the and served as day-tain of the militin in a campaign be-fore he was 2i. In the course of his second 20 years he taught school, ed-ited papers and a magazine and pre-pared the famous spelling book which formed the basis of a common school education the first half of the century.

education the first half of the century.

At the ripe age of 50 he began the equally famous dictionary and devoted ten years to inquiry into the origin of our language. He was 70 when the first edition appeared from the press, yet he lived on 15 years to labor for its perfection.

1832—Great suffering in the southwest from floods; Arkansas City inundated and tens of thousands of acres of land in Arkansas, Louisiana and Mississippi submerged.

pl submerged. 1900—Total eclipse of the sun,