

Fred Marsh has just completed a two years' course in the North Pacific Dental College. He is a graduate of Pacific University and a son of Prof. Joseph W. Marsh. Mr. Marsh is a young man favorably known in the community and many will be glad to learn that he has made arrangements to be in position to do first class work at his home.

J. Q. Jackson is chopping wood on a big scale, cutting 1300 cords on his last run. A view of this interesting scene will appear next week.

Verboort—Walter Bernard is quite sick with the grip. Miss Moore, near Cornelius, was taken sick Thursday, but is now reported improving.

Mr. Philip Beal is reported as unimproved. He has been quite sick.

Forest Grove has more healthy old people, more handsome young people, more happiness, comfort and prosperity than any other city of its size in the United States. But there's room for more, to live long, get handsome and be happy.

The public school had a holiday Thursday, Roosevelt Day, of which many of the teachers availed themselves to visit Portland.

The Dilley school has been flourishing under the principalship of Miss Susie Jackson, who recently came from the East with the highest recommendations. Her room has 40 pupils and the eighth grade state examinations are now in progress with the prospects of four graduates. Two other teachers assist Miss Jackson, who is receiving $50 a month, quite above the woman-teacher's average, and is giving entire satisfaction to the patrons.

The plant which manufactures the popular Carnation Brand of condensed cream, is equipped with the very latest devices for its work, and so successful it is that this and its sister factory at Kent, Washington, are far behind their orders, while only a comparatively small field near home is necessary to take up their full output. The Forest Grove plant can handle the milk from 3000 cows, but will be enlarged as the farmers build up their herds. Many thousand dollars are put in circulation each month. A number of farmers are realizing over 6 cents a quart for their milk, for which the factory sends its wagons to their farms.

No strike at our laundry. Take your laundry to Wirtz' barber shop. Try our baths, too.

The mutual telephone which ex-hall May 27 and 28.

City council's next meeting will be the second Tuesday in June and a lively time is expected.

The Independent Telephone Company, of which S. G. Hughes of Forest Grove is owner, reaches from Portland to Tillamook and is fast spreading a network of wires over this county. Tigardville and Scholl's lines having been the latest additions. Forest Grove exchange has 125 phones and the Tigardville and Scholl's exchange 75 phones. Besides giving free switching within the county to subscribers, the company has lowered the Portland rate from 35 to 15 cents and to Tillamook has given a rate of 25 instead of 75 cents.

Independent telegraph line extends from Forest Grove to Tillamook. Messages received at S. G. Hughes' office.

Woodsaw—the fastest in the county and the best equipped. Chas. Hartrampf.

Orders taken for wood:aving by up-to-date saw and skillful sawyer. Will call anywhere in town and saw wood in short order. Chas. Hartrampf.

Miss Sadie Cronin, a competent operator, is in charge of the Independent Telephone Co.'s central office and is making the service very popular among their patrons by her courtesy, ability and good management.

Road Supervisor Clark has been employing Charles Hartrampf to use his traction steam saw, one of the latest and most modern machines, to propel the grader, putting the roads in the finest condition they have ever been.

Mrs. Chas. F. Miller is visiting her mother, Mrs. Tompkins, at Tillamook.

Mr. Campbell, who was manager of the Keeley Institute when the cure was located here, with his wife, a daughter of Mrs. Jerome Porter, are expected shortly to make their home in the Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Levi Smith went to Beaverton on Tuesday's afternoon train, intending to visit Portland before their return.

Mr. Baxter of Scoggin's Valley stopped over night here Tuesday and the next morning went to Portland.

Mr. T. W. Thompson, heavily interested in milling as well as owning a fine farm near Gaston, who has been in Portland during the winter, was in the city Wednesday.

Mr. St. Smith and family, formerly of Almena, Kansas, who for the past year have been residing near here, are moving to Albany.

Mr. A. E. Bell of Beaver City, Nebraska, after a trip through California and Washington, is looking over Washington county. He is an old friend of Mr. Philip French of Thatcher, who formerly resided in Beaver City.

Hillsboro's club dance Saturday evening, last of a successful season, was enlivened with excellent music from Walker's orchestra. Sam Walker played the violin, Willard Wirtz clarinet, Norville Atkins cornet, and Mr. Raymond the piano.

J. J. Wirtz has completed an attractive addition to his popular confectionery store in the way of the neatest ice cream parlors, finely enough furnished to suit the "400," though not all at once. Ice cream is very healthy at this season.

Miss Coral Wilkes, of Dilley, has just finished a nine months' term at the Blooming school.

The event of the baseball season is to be the great game next Sunday, when the single men will cross bats with the married. It will be an all-star performance, bristling with home runs. Don't forget to be at the park Sunday afternoon.

What was advertised as an "old fashioned revival meeting," but in its street parades, neat uniforms and other characteristic features, bears a close resemblance to the Salvation Army, has been interesting large audiences in the street and at their big tent in the park. Four women and five men sing gospel hymn sentiments to rag-time music in a catchy way and are interesting speakers, earnest in prayer, and have made a most favorable impression.

A few second-hand pianos and organs for sale at a bargain at The Bazar, Forest Grove. Call at once or write to the manager, Mr. K. N. Staehr.

Pianos, $50.00 down, $10 per month; organs, $10.00 down, $4.00 per month, at The Bazar, Forest Grove.

Everybody has been wondering lately how The Bazar, in Forest Grove, could sell organs and pianos cheaper than the same instrument could be had in Portland, but it is easily understood when a person stops to consider the tremendous rent, clerk hire and other expenses the big Portland houses have to put up with.

G. A. R.—J. B. Matthews' Post meets every first and third Wednesday in Vets Hall at 1:30 p. m. F. S. Barnes, Commander; F. B. Starrett, adjutant.

Stove Snaps

A few "Charter Oak" stoves and ranges on hand which are reduced to such a point that if you are in need of a stove you can't afford not to buy now.

Dishes Reduced

All decorated ware and all large pieces of white ware such as platters, turquoise, butter dishes, pitchers, etc., reduced 10 to 30 per cent.

Many substantial reductions in hardware, tinware, graniteware, etc.

During this sale we will continue to pay the highest price for

Country Produce

Butter, eggs, poultry, wool, tallow, hides, etc., and they count the same as cash. But we cannot make any but short time credits to anyone, and do not want to open any new accounts.

As fast as possible materials are being collected for the construction of our splendid

New Brick and Stone Store

which is to replace the old wooden one we now occupy. Between now and July 4th we must reduce our enough to pack it into less than half the space we now occupy. To do this we are reducing prices so as to make it a special inducement for people to help us unload.

It is plain to everyone that it is better for us to make considerable sacrifice rather than cart goods back and forth, and we are trying to do this in the most intelligent manner we know. We are buying nothing we are not compelled to have, and we are slaughtering everything we can get along without. No item closed out will be replaced until we are in our new store.

Come now if you want the BEST BARGAINS
