THE SUNDAY SCHOOL. LESSON IX, SECOND QUARTER, INTER-NATIONAL SERIES, MAY 31.

Text of the Lesson, Rom. vill, 1-14. Memory Verse, 1-Golden Text, Rom, vili, 14-Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

[Copyright, 1903, by American Press Association.] 1, 2. There is therefore now no condemation to them that are in Christ Jesus, for the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death.

We may be very thankful for one lesson from this glorious portion of Scripture, but we trust that no teacher will be content with the verses assigned as a lesson, but will not only read the whole chapter, as suggested, but will study the whole chapter. Dr. David Brown says, "In this surpassing chapter the several streams of the preceding argument meet and flow in one 'river of the water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb' until it seems to lose itself in the ocean of a blissful eternity." I have quoted these two verses from the R. V., and they state the complete absolution from condemnation of all believers in Christ. The sting of death is sin, and the strength of sin is the law, but thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ (I Cor. xv, 56, 57). 3, 4. That the righteousness of the law fulfilled in us who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit. The law of God is holy and just and good; it is perfect as God Himself, but because of our sinfulness and inability to keep it it becomes to the sinner the ministration of condemnation and of death, shutting our mouths if we would attempt to plead anything but our guilt and pointing us to Christ, who was made a sin offering for us, the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth (II Cor. iii, 7, 9; v, 21; Rom. ili, 19; vii, 12; x, 4; Gal. iii, 21, 22). Coming as sinners, having nothing but sin and receiving Christ as our Saviour, He is made unto us righteousness, and thus we are accepted in Him before God, not that we may be fit for His presence only, but that we may by righteousness before men commend God to men (I Cor. i, 30; Eph. i, 6; Matt. v, 16; Tit. iil, 8); that people reading us may see God.

5-9. For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh, but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit. • • But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you.

Flesh and spirit, carnally minded and spiritually minded or (as in Eph. iv, 22, 24; Col. iii, 9, 10) the old man and the new man are other ways of saying unsaved and saved, unrighteous and righteous. The unsaved live unto themselves, enjoying the pleasures of sin for a season. They are in bondage to the world, the flesh and the devil. The saved live no more unto themselves, but unto Him who has redeem-Mrs. Wilbur McEldowney ed us by His blood and has given us His Spirit to live in us, making us temples of the Holy Spirit (1 Cor. vi, 19, 20; II Cor. iv, 14, 15). This is the way that it should be, but it is often not so. Forest Grove because after we receive Christ the

One of the best books in the English language, in one of its most attractive editions, is offered in a competition open to all absolutely without cost. The little labor involved itself will benefit every competitor. This is one of a series of similar offers, to appear one a week, and those who persist in the contest, even if they do not win a prize in the beginning, will find the training gained of great value.

The puzzle picture represents the name of one of the books of Charles Dickens. Find out that name, write up the news of your community and send both with your name and address so as to reach The News before next Wednesday. Those giving the right title will have their news report submitted, in such way that the judges can not discover whose work they are criticising, to two competent persons who will estimate its news value according to the opportunities afforded by the region reported. In this way very competitor will have an equal chance to prove his value as a newsgatherer, to test his ability to see what is happening about him. The form or style will not count, only the news value of the report. Not merely accidents, fires, births, deaths, weddings, socials, church and lodge happenings, crop prospects, improvements, changes, school matters, are news; whatever concerns or interests the people of its territory is the material for the newspaper. If you will judge by what interests you and try to bring out the points that impress you, presenting the matter as nearly as you can as you see it, you will find yourself most successful as a newsgatherer. It is this ability for grasping and bringing out the news features that marks the good reporter, the one who finds news where others can see nothing. Remember, if you will be honest with yourself you really like to see your name in print, especially accompanied by a good word, so others are likely to be pleased to have you speak well of them.

The name of the winner of this competition together with the judges will appear in the next issue. The winner will be mailed an elegant edition of the book named in the puzzle.

You will be helping to make a live county newspaper in which your home will be represented, may get a book worthy of a place in anyone's library, and are sure to profit by the experience of looking for news. There is no faculty so valuable as that of close observation.

Address your letter, "Editor Washington County News, Forest Grove, Oregon," with the words, "News-Rush," in the lower left hand corner, and the words, "Dickens Competition," in the upper left hand corner. Washington County News, Forest flesh or old man, is still in us, and instead of being reckoned dead, put off. denied, it is yielded to, indulged, pampered, and thus the Spirit is grieved and God dishonored. We are taught in these verses that the old sinful nature never can be improved, never can be subject to the law of God, but when we receive Christ we receive a new nature, a divine nature, are born from above, and we must let Christ have full control. 10, 11. But if the Spirit of Him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell you He that raised up Christ from the dead shall also quicken your mortal bod-ies by His Spirit that dwelleth in you. The words "In Christ" and "Christ in you" describe the believer, the justified person who has passed from death to life and shall not come into judgment for sin (John v, 24), but in the resurrection body shall appear before the judgment seat of Christ to be judged for service, our works as saints tried and either approved and rewarded or else rejected (Rom. xiv, 10; Cor. v, 10; I Cor. III, 14, 15; ix, 27, R V.). The body that becomes a temple of the Holy Spirit shall by the Spirit in due time become an immortal body like unto Christ's glorious body, and for this we walt and groan (verse 23; Phil. iii, 20, 21: I John III, 2), but It seems to me that there is in this eleventh verse some reference to the present body in which the Spirit has come to dwell and His power and willingness to keep it if only we will be willing and obedient. 12-14. For as many as are led by Spirit of God they are the sons of God. the The spirit of adoption which we have received beareth witness that we are the children of God. Some ask, How does the Spirit bear witness? And they long for the witness of the Spirit, supposing it to be some feeling or pe cultar experience. It is made so plain in I John v. 10-13, that any one who is willing to be taught by the Spirit cannot fail to see it. God says that He loves me and gave His only Son for me that I might not perish (John iii, 16). I believe this and receive Christ and then take His word for it that it is all as He says it is; that by His sacrifice for me. I receiving Him, am a child of God (John 1, 12). Thus I, receiving and resting on the word of the Spirit, have the Spirit's testimony or witness, for the Spirit bears witness by His word. Feelings may come and go, but the word abides and changes not. Go ing on through this chapter and just believing God, we rejoice that in Christ we are joint heirs with Him of all that He is heir to and that freely we receive in Him all things (verses 17, 32).
