

About People

C. W. Merchant, Tualatin; M. A. Hendrix, Centerville; L. E. Livergood, Beaverton, and Ira E. Bradley and W. C. Hampton, Forest Grove, were Washington County names on Portland hotel registers Sunday.

A report was current Tuesday morning that Carroll, the bright little adopted daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Knox, whose sunny disposition had made her such a favorite here, was dead, but it proved the name should have been Mrs. Carrie Sampson.

Mrs. Carrie Sampson, daughter of Attorney C. W. Miller, a former resident here, and niece of Jasper Crossley, died Monday in Portland, aged 19 years.

C. M. Dunlap and J. Jackson, Centerville; Mrs. Buchanan, Forest Grove, and Mrs. C. E. Young and Mrs. L. A. Bloodgood, of South Dakota, but guests of M. H. Bloodgood, of Gaston, were registered at Portland hotels Saturday.

Remember J. T. Buxton makes a specialty of farmers' work. General blacksmithing.

Joseph Hughes, a prominent farmer of Van Wert Co., Ohio, is visiting at the Hundley home near Dilley. Like everybody else who comes here, he is very much pleased with Washington County and expects to locate here.

For the best candies and fresh fruits call at the City Bakery.

Mrs. Martha E. Fisher, who was married to Franklin George Fisher in Washington County 18 years ago, was granted a divorce in the Multnomah County Circuit Court Saturday, on the ground of cruelty. Fisher had abandoned her and her three children.

Mrs. Minnie Sias, of Portland, a daughter of Mr. Nicholson, and Roy C. Atwood, one of the Wasco Milling Co., an old friend, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. Nicholson.

We keep a fine line of groceries, tobaccos and cigars. Hines Bros.

Mrs. Cora Baker, of Portland, and Mrs. M. A. Baker, of McMinnville, relatives of Mr. H. Hunter, were guests at his home on Sunday.

Judge W. H. Hollis visited Portland Tuesday on legal business.

L. C. Pennell, who formerly lived at Dilley and in Forest Grove, visited Attorney Langley several days this week, returning Tuesday to Salem, where he is interested in the Capital Flouring Mills.

N. C. Hampton, of Forest Grove, E. B. Tongue and W. C. Hamilton, of Hillsboro, were registered at Portland hotels Monday.

Miss Varley, daughter of the proprietor of the popular Farmers' feed stable, who came to town to nurse her brother Sam, returned to Glenwood Tuesday. Mr. Varley had pneumonia, but is now improving.

Rutherford Whitlock, who has been working in Seattle, is here on a fortnight's visit to Mr. John Anderson. He was a student at the college six or seven years ago.

Mrs. Anna Reckmeyer, accompanied by her two daughters, the Misses Emma and Ethel, who formerly resided here, returned here last Monday from Osceola, Neb., to remain.

Farm for rent for term of years, 1 mile from Forest Grove. Langley & Son.

John Marsh, of near Centerville, is building a barn 42x48, with 20-foot posts, and carriage and cow-shed lean-tos. Mr. Bernard's has charge of the construction and is being assisted by H. R. Kay and three other carpenters.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.
Department of the Interior, Land Office at Oregon City, Oregon, June 1, 1903.

Notice is hereby given that the following named settler has filed notice of his intention to make final proof in support of his claim, and that said proof will be made before County Clerk of Washington county, at Hillsboro, Oregon, on July 17, 1903, viz.: George O. Sloan, H. E. No. 13,834, for the N½ NW¼ and NW¼ NE¼ Sec. 22, T. 1 N., R. 4 W.

He names the following witnesses to prove his continuous residence upon and cultivation of said land, viz.: Charles F. Miller, Edward L. Naylor, Robert O. Stevenson, Hamilton W. Burk, all of Forest Grove, Oregon.
ALGERNON S. DRESSER,
Register.

Geo. Smith, a negro, was hanged in Portland Friday for the murder last summer of his white wife, Anna, daughter of Joe Matod, who formerly lived at Buxton. The shooting was said to be accidental, Smith claiming to the last that the fatal bullet was intended for another negro of whom he was jealous.

The Portland Woodmen are making strong efforts to bring the 1905 convention of Modern Woodmen to Portland. It is estimated 100,000 visitors to the Lewis and Clark Exposition would be gained if they are successful.

G. A. R.—J. B. Matthews' Post meets every first and third Wednesday in Vets Hall at 1:30 p. m. F. S. Barnes, Commander; F. B. Starrett, adjutant.

At the lodge of sorrow held in Portland Monday evening for members of the Order of Eastern Star who have died in Oregon during the past year, Washington County furnished as its only loss the name of Congressman Thos. H. Tongue, of Hillsboro, who died January 11.

How about your printing? If you get it of The News it will be a little better and not so expensive. Costs nothing to inquire.

Among the 48 attorneys arrested in Portland Tuesday for not paying the city occupation tax appears the name of Milton W. Smith, a graduate and trustee of Pacific University. In company with him were the Deputy United States Attorney, the State District Attorney, County Judge, ex-State Attorney-General and most of the leading lights of the Multnomah bar. The attorneys had been so busy looking after their clients' that they neglected their own interests. Another case of the proverbial shoemaker's child going unsold.

Edward L. Naylor has a Cotswold buck lamb of his own breeding, less than one year old, that sheared 16 lbs., worth 16 cents a pound, or $2.56 return from what cost him nothing and picked up its own living.

No strike at our laundry. Take your laundry to Wirtz' barber shop. Try our baths, too.

Mr. Dethlefs, of near Dilley, has a common brindle cow which has been giving seven gallons a day, or at present rate bringing in $16.50 a month. For March from his 12 cows he got $125.

All kinds of builders' hardware at lowest prices. J. H. Westcott.

L. C. Pennell, a former resident of Forest Grove and Dilley, now interested in the Capital City Flouring Mills at Salem, visited Attorney Langley for a few days during the week.

Mrs. R. J. Thompson and son, Walter, of Los Angeles, Calif., who have been stopping at Mrs. J. P. Wagner's, returned home Thursday.

Councilman J. T. Buxton attended the grand lodge of Masons in Portland this week as one of the representatives of Holbrook lodge.

Mrs. Dugan has returned from her visit in the East.

Pleasure and economy in summer dress goods. See the pretty styles in our new line. Washable fabrics, stylish, comfortable and not too expensive. Come and look them over. Dugan & Watrous.

W. I. Haney is home again after three months' absence.

N. C. Barrett, formerly of Hillsboro, but now on the road as a commercial traveler, has been stopping at the Forest Grove hotel during the past week.

John Vanderwahl, of Greenville, the enterprising agent of the reliable London & Lancashire Fire Insurance Co., called at the office Monday.

County Surveyor A. A. Morrill, of Hillsboro, surveyed near Raleigh last week and now is busy cutting up a big farm in Yamhill county.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lyda were in town Tuesday. Mr. Lyda is handling a number of large lumber contracts, and keeps busy all the time.

John Matthews, the painter, Sunday sold a 13-year-old mare to Mr. Peterson, a Cornelius wet goods dealer, for $100. He has since bought a 2-year-old, which he is breaking to drive.

The city public baths, otherwise known as the Naylor swimming pool, have been well patronized during the warm days, averaging 50 an afternoon. There are accommodations for 100 at a time, and the location is only eight minutes' walk from the postoffice. Many of the college boys have been finding it a pleasant spot to recuperate from the exertions of examination week.

F. S. Barnes, the old reliable watchmaker.

Ex-Representative C. P. Yates, of Manning, was in town Wednesday. Mr. Yates was a pioneer journalist, connected with the New York Herald in its early days, assisted in getting out the first issue of the Rocky Mountain News, and had charge of the Portland Evening Telegram when it first came under its present ownership. For a time he owned and edited the Sheridan Sun, but is now settled on his ranch near Manning, among neighbors who gratefully remember him for the part he played in interesting Senator Mitchell in the cause of the "Quadrant" settlers and so saving their homes.

Money saving is buying our groceries. Good enough for anybody and cheap enough for everybody. Dugan & Watrous.

Good weather, good crops, and good times are prevailing now.

Pianos, $50.00 down, $10 per month; organs, $10.00 down, $4.00 per month, at The Bazar, Forest Grove.

THE SPEIRING-VANDERZANDEN WEDDING.

Among the most popular members of the Verboort parish are Albert Speiring, a prosperous young farmer of Greenville, and Mary Vanderzanden, of Verboort, and both have many relatives in the community, so that the ceremony by which they were united in marriage last Saturday, is of great interest and was largely attended.

The marriage was solemnized at the Verboort church, Rev. Father Verhaag officiating, and the full church choir sang the nuptial High Mass. The altars were splendidly decorated and the music delightful, while over 200 were present to observe and enjoy these pleasing features. Charles Speiring was best man, and Minnie Vanderzanden, bride's maid. At the conclusion of the ceremony the guests went by carriage to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderzanden, on the old Vandehey place, one of the most comfortable farms in the county. Here was spread a dinner abounding in all that could tempt the appetite, and to which the guests had exerted themselves to bring contributions that would show the high esteem in which they held the young couple. Fifty sat down at each table, and there were four full tables. It was a jolly meal, and after it was over games and amusements were heartily engaged in till three o'clock, when the musicians arrived, and dancing continued until evening. During this time refreshments were served by Lynn Vanderzanden and George Herb.

The groom is the owner of a feed mill, doing an extensive business, and of a threshing machine, besides being engaged in farming, and is an industrious and progressive young man. The bride is the eldest of Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderzanden's four daughters, and has nine brothers. Till two years ago she had been attending school at Banks, where she has many friends. Mr. Speiring is 28 and Mrs. Speiring 19. The first evening of their married life they were treated to a charivari, but the serenaders quickly ran out of noise.

Relatives of the groom present were: Mr. John Speiring, father; Mr. Peter Speiring, brother; Mrs. Peter Speiring and family; Mr. Joseph Speiring, brother; Mrs. Joseph Speiring; Charles Speiring, brother; Mr. Henry Cop and family; Mrs. Henry Cop, sister of the groom; Mr. Arnold Vandommelen; Mrs. Arnold Vandommelen and family; Mr. and Mrs. Victor Crop; Mr. and Mrs. Vanderzanden, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vanderzanden, Mr. John Vanderzanden, Mr. William Vanderzanden, Mr. Theodore Vanderzanden, Miss Bertha Vanderzanden.

Friends and neighbors present were: Mr. and Mrs. G. Sohler, Mr. and Mrs. William Kemper, Misses Anna and Nellie Sohler, Mr. Wendel and Henry Sohler, Mr. Frank Kemper, Mr. Joseph Moore, Mr. J. F. Peerenboom, Mr. Ben Heesacker, Miss Anna Heesacker, Mrs. Theresa Herb, Mrs. Rachel Herb, Miss Hattie Herb, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Lyke, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Herb, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Herb, Misses Mary and Aggie Herb, Mr. John Herb, Mr. George Herb.

Relatives of the bride present were: Mr. and Mrs. John Vanderzanden, parents of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Vanderzanden, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Vanderzanden, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Vanderzanden, Mr. and Mrs. William Vanderzanden, Mr. J. P. Vanderzanden, Mr. Leonard Vanderzanden, Mr. Albert Vanderzanden, Miss Minnie Vanderzanden, sister of the bride; also Miss Minnie Vanderzanden, cousin of the bride.

Among the many useful and valuable presents received were: One dozen each of plates, cups and saucers; 2 parlor lamps, 1 ten-piece toilet set, 3 sets glassware, 1 16-inch platter, 1 fancy wall pocket, 1 set graniteware, 1 set forks, knives and spoons (1 dozen each); 1 berry set, 1 pair lace window shades, 1 linen table cloth, 2 bed spreads, 2 home-made star-block quilts, 1 glass water pitcher, two combs and two mirrors.

John Anderson is agent for Charles A. Stevens & Co., of Chicago, ladies' tailors; also for the Salem Woolen Mills of Portland, who make the best clothes for men.

Mrs. J. T. Shannan gave a delightful open-air social in the Naylor Park Wednesday evening, chaperoning the Misses Maud Shannon, Sadie Cronin, Maud Buxton, Kate Shannon, and entertaining Mesdames Sibley, Adkins, Shannon, Gilbert and Diedrich. Strawberries and ice cream were served.

Miss Sadie Cronin visited in Portland Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Gertrude Kirkwood, who has been employed in a large millinery establishment in North Yakima, Wash., is spending her vacation with her parents in this city.

Neil Sorensen, a prominent business man and mining promoter of Sumpter, Ore., visited at Capt. W. H. H. Myer's last Friday.

For Sale—Some Angora goats and Cotswold sheep. Edward L. Naylor.

Miss Ora Caples returned last Wednesday from a prolonged visit in Portland.

F. F. Knight, who lives in South Park, is improving his place by building a fine large barn.

Miss Lela Nickin, the accomplished Salem violinist, who has been visiting at Dr. Geiger's, returned home this morning.

Ralph Dugan and C. B. Wellman made a trip to McMinnville last Sunday.

Edgar Meresse, who has been studying in Willamette University for the past year and has just received the degree of A. B. from that institution, is expected home today.

...Dr. Chas. Hines, Druggist...

(Successor to Hines & Wagner)

Exclusive Agent Security Stock Remedies, Wakeless, Squirrel Poison, Zimol, the Superior Headache Remedy.

Also a complete line of Drugs, Pictures, Stationery, Sundries and Cigars.

Accurate Prescription Work

at Reasonable Prices

Don't Forget

Peterson & Kelsey's MEAT MARKET

Fish for summer eating, fresh and fine meats—the kind you like to eat, full of juicy excellence and tender enough for any one. Cured meats of all kinds. Beef, pork and mutton. Best lard at lowest good-lard prices. Phone your order. Prompt delivery to any part of the city.

Main St.

Forest Grove

Mrs. A. J. Wirtz has added to her deserved reputation as an artist by a beautiful scene showing deer in the forest, which has been elegantly and appropriately framed.

For housefurnishings go to the Auction house, where both new and second-hand goods can be had at reasonable prices.

Mrs. John Robb, of Portland, who is stayin at the home of Mrs. James, had a pleasant family reunion this week, at which were present a number of relatives from a distance.

Roe & Buxton have a large new stock of extension dining tables, best styles and all varieties, at prices that ought to place them in every home in the county.

John Boeker's basket factory at Greenville is one of the best industries in the country. The quality of this ware is shown by the fact that for twenty years one Portland firm has taken all their baskets. From three to eight men are employed the year around, and they have about twelve acres in willows.

Pioneer Lead is handled by Roe & Buxton, the leading brand. Undoubtedly the best in the market. It's its own recommendation, as wise buyers know.

The Christian Advent convention met in Dilley last Friday with Rev. Messrs. Dunlap and J. H. Stuckey, both of Vancouver, B. C., assisting Rev. Mr. Fitch. The business session began Tuesday, June 9. Revival services, morning and evening, are planned for the ten days' meeting.

The Foresters' picnic at Verboort Saturday promises to be one of the pleasantest events of the season.

A. G. Hoffman, who with his family has been visiting his brother, Attorney Hoffman, started Tuesday for his home at Arnold, Nebraska. He was so well pleased with Forest Grove and its prospects that it is not unlikely he may this fall remove here. Mr. Hoffman is connected with the First National Bank of Lincoln, Nebraska.

The Lyda and Carstens mills are both crowded to full capacity with orders away ahead. Two contracts now being filled are each for half a million feet, and a local order for 100,000 for road planking was refused because the mills were too busy. Mr. McNew, who is in position to know, states there is more lumber going from the mills this season than in all the five preceding years.

Roe & Buxton are selling agents for the Standard Varnish Works of New York. Finest lustre and quality unsurpassed.

THE SCHOOLCRAFT-HUBBERT WEDDING.

One of the most elaborate weddings in this month of marriages was the ceremony at the M. E. Church of Dilley Wednesday evening, by which Miss Dora Hubbert became Mrs. Thomas Schoolcraft. The bride, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hubbert, had completed the course of the Dilley public school, graduated at Homes Business College in Portland, and for the past three years has been the S. P. Ry' Co.'s agent at Dilley. The groom is a prominent farmer and stockraiser, and both are deservedly popular among a wide circle of acquaintances, as was evidenced by the many kindly expressions from the large gathering at the church, the numerous and valuable gifts, and the enthusiastic shower of good wishes as well as rice which accompanied them as they set off on their bridal trip the following morning.

The church had been beautifully decorated, an arbor reaching over the carpeted aisle, while festoons of evergreens varied with floral rosettes and monograms garlanded the walls, while a rose bell hung over an altar, lost in its wealth of flowers. To the music of "Lohengren" the bridal procession approached the officiating clergyman, Rev. W. S. Gordon, the pastor of Leslie M. E. Church of Salem, the bride tastily attired all in white and supported by Miss Edith Shogren as bride's maid, while the groom, in the conventional black, had E. J. Hubbert, the bride's brother, for his best man. Little Misses Esther Conwell and Lizzie Briggs, as flower maid and ring page, were attractive features of the procession, and admirably did they perform their parts. Miss Conwell acted as usher.

At the altar the impressive ceremony of the Methodist Episcopal Church ritual was gone through, then Miss Bradley, of Hood River, sang "O Promise Me," congratulations and good wishes were showered, and Mr. and Mrs. Schoolcraft with forty relatives and friends returned to the Hubbert home, where elaborate wedding supper had been prepared, at which no one was neglected, through the watchfulness of Misses Hulda Shogren, Cora Wilkes and Blanche Conwell, who, with Mrs. J. A. Hubbert, acted as waitresses. An informal musicale closed the evening.

Among the guests from a distance were Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Bradley and Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Bradley, of Hood River; Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hanson, Miss DeForrest, of Portland; Mrs. Vought, of Hillsboro, and Mrs. La Chapelle and daughter Lennie, of Forest Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. Schoolcraft went to Portland Thursday afternoon, and will make an extensive bridal tour eastward.

JOHNSON & CO.

The Brick Livery

Feed and Sale Stable

FINEST RIGS BEST HORSES GOOD DRIVERS

See our adv. in the T. P. A. Guide Drummers' trade our specialty.

Our Bus meets all trains. Carries U. S. Mail.

Baggage and Freight Called for and Delivered.

CORNER MAIN AND PACIFIC AVE., FOREST GROVE