

1776 1903

THE GLORIOUS 4TH

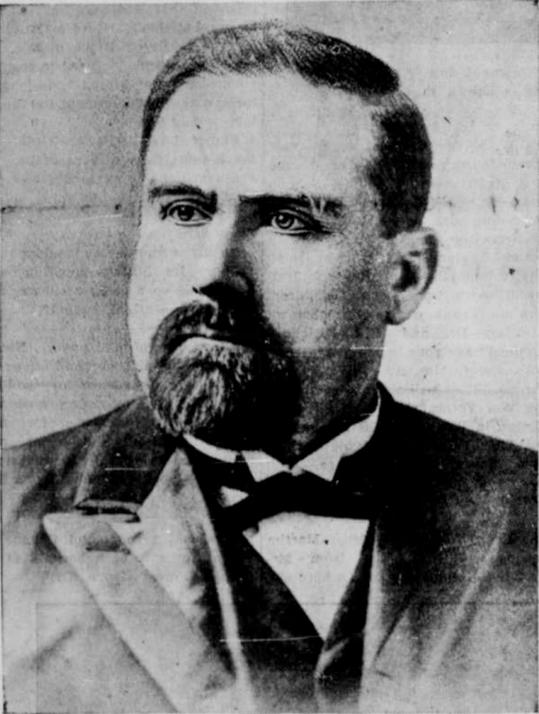

will be celebrated at

Forest Grove

Following the G. A. R. Reunion, which will be held at the same place, June 30 to July 3. It will be the biggest and best ever held in Washington County.

THE Grand Parade

Through the streets to Naylor's Grove, will start at 10 A. M. and will consist of BAND, CAR OF STATE, GODDESS OF LIBERTY, Secret Orders in Uniform, Floats and Citizens on foot and in carriages.

Orator of the Day,

HON.

Binger Hermann

Congressman of First Oregon District.

In the afternoon there will be

Sports, Games, Contests

And all manner of amusements. For full particulars see small bills.

A Brilliant Display of Fireworks

in the Evening.

Come out and enjoy an old-fashioned celebration.

AROUND FOREST GROVE

John Stribick has completed his moving, and is now comfortably located at home in the former sash and door factory.

Call and see Hines Bros.' new stock of groceries at popular prices.

The automobile which was in town last Friday was a beauty, the property of Banker Shute, of Hillsboro.

Milwaukee binders, rakes, mowing machines, at W. R. Hicks'.

The Harttramp Bros. have received a new baler from Portland on trial. They baled some straw for Mr. Gordon on Saturday.

A new planer passed through town Saturday for C. Miller at Gales Creek. There was a large crowd at the Academy graduating exercises Tuesday afternoon.

Commencement photos at Meresse's. The best at the lowest prices.

Mr. Eli Goodspeed, of Tillamook, who was visiting friends here last week, has had an operation performed upon his eyes at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Portland.

Billheads, envelopes, letterheads, business cards, all at short notice. See how nice for the price. The News.

There were immense quantities of flowers for commencement this week.

With the cows go the fences, then we shall have to put up the signs, "Keep off the grass."

Wood is likely to be scarce this season.

Frank Chinaman fell from a horse last week and received severe injuries.

Woods & Adams have a new clock in their store.

An address was given before the literary societies Monday evening, after which refreshments were served.

There are quite a number of students who have not been attending this term, here now for the commencement exercises.

Mr. Eldridge has moved from town. The baseball game Sunday at Hillsboro between Portland and Washington county resulted in a score of 7 to 3 in favor of Washington county.

While working in the slaughter house last week, Downing Robinson, a young man working for Dick Rhodes, cut his wrist with a sharp skinning knife. It was so badly lacerated that he nearly bled to death before a doctor could be called.

Attorney Hawks' new house is going to be one of the finest in town when it is finished.

Hines Bros' City Bakery has a new coat of paint, which makes it look well.

Sam Walker (the shoemaker) hauled his hay in from off Geo. Boos's lot with his one-horse teaming outfit.

The baseball game here Sunday between the Cactus and Cornelius resulted in a score of 17 to 18 in favor of Cornelius.

Mr. Wilson has quit the condenser on account of the intense heat. Other people are thinking of putting on their overcoats.

Miss Alice Evers returned home last Tuesday, having worked for Mrs. W. Van Der Vens for some time.

The highest market price paid for pork and veal by J. Van Tom, Centerville, Oregon.

Mr. Peck, the photographer at Centerville—give him a call.

Card of Thanks—We desire to express our sincere thanks to our many friends who so kindly assisted us during the sickness and death of our beloved husband and father, Phillip Beal.—Mrs. P. Beal, and family.

Ballots at the special city election July 1 will be white, all bearing "For License—Yes," and "For License—No," and upon them the voter will indicate his preference, the same slip being used for both sides. A jocose remark at the last council meeting has been taken seriously by some, that different ballots, and those of different colors, would be used.

See Hines Bros. for fancy groceries.

The assessment this year for the county will aggregate over $2,000,000, valuations having been raised from 10 to 20 per cent, this difference being necessary as some regions have gained in value more rapidly than others.

The scarcity in the sand market has been relieved by Grant Hughes receiving a 3-carload shipment this week.

M. A. SMITH
Osteopathic Physician.

OFFICE: At Residence of R. E. Nicholson. HOURS: 9 to 12 a. m., 2 to 5 p. m.
Forest Grove Oregon

KEEP THIS PROGRAM

KERMIS AT VERBOORT

THREE MILES FROM FOREST GROVE OR CORNELIUS, JULY 2, 3, 4 and 5, 1903

JULY 2

Beginning at 2 p. m.

Races for Men, Fat and Lean, Young and Old, for Lean and Fat Women, old and young, for boys and girls 7 to 12, Greased Pig, Greased Pole, Etc.

JULY 3

Lecture by State Agriculturalist at 2 P. M., Farmers' Congress. Races of all kinds. Amusements.

JULY 4

Oration at 11 o'clock by Hon. J. P. Kavanaugh, of Portland. Reading Declaration of Independence. At 2 P. M., Sack Races, Egg, Tub, Bicycle, Horse against Bicycle, Automobile race. Speedy Driving Horses with carriages will race, double and single. Evening, costly display of fireworks.

JULY 5

Sunday; at 2 p. m.

Grand Orchestral Concert by Portland Taent; 10 prizes. Admission 50 cents. Contest for Washington County Bands at 3:30 P. M.; valuable gold medal for winner.

Picture Show, Music, Dancing, X-Ray Entertainment Refreshments of all Kinds

COME! AL ZYNWELKOM

W. B. Rafferty, who lives west of Forest Grove on the Porter place, is making extensive improvements, by building a large barn and making repairs to other farm buildings.

The Woodmen of the World will give a grand ball Saturday afternoon and evening at Cornelius. Come and have a good time.

The man who wants business will have to hustle for it, or get The News to hustle for him. Try an adv.

Lost or Strayed—Light gray mare, weighing about 1000 lbs, with bell, and dark gray horse, weighing 1000 lbs., are missing from the ranch of W. Roebuck, of Hayward; last seen Tuesday two miles from Forest Grove on Gales Creek road. Finder notify News office or owner.

Mrs. D. D. Martin has returned from California after a four month visit with her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Thomson.

Dr. D. W. Ward made a professional visit to St. Mary's Convent, near Beaverton, Tuesday.

Mrs. Georgia Cheeny, who has been visiting in Portland for a few days, returned Wednesday evening.

No store is so independent that it can afford to ignore the opinion of the public.

Garfield Macrum, who has been attending the University of Oregon at Eugene, returned last Saturday.

Mrs. E. H. Coleman made the News office a pleasant visit last Tuesday afternoon, bringing a large bouquet of fragrant roses to adorn the busy place, besides giving her support as a subscriber and wishing the staff the best of success.

Will Buxton, a son of Thurston Buxton, who has been in Southern California for the past few months, returned to the Grove the fore part of the week.

Mrs. F. S. Myers, of Portland, an alumna of the university, visited at Prof. Fletcher's and Capt. Myers' during commencement week.

No merchant can afford to wait for the other fellow to push his business.

Miss Marie Thompson, formerly of this place but now of Seattle, spent several days at Mr. L. L. Hollinger's.

A. A. Atkinson, '01, who has been studying at the Cooper Medical Institute, San Francisco, during the last year, attended the exercises of his alma mater this week. Mr. Atkinson is now employed in the large sawmill establishment of Palmer & Co., at Bridal Veil, Wash.

Miss Maud Jones, of Portland, returned home yesterday afternoon, after spending a few days at the home of Dr. R. H. Hovey.

Mrs. M. A. Bird, of Hillsboro, a pioneer of '39, was one of the two of that year who headed the pioneer procession in Portland Wednesday.

Walter Bernard, of Verboort, is recovering from his severe illness.

Rev. Father L. Verhaag, of Verboort, was a Portland visitor Wednesday.

F. S. Barnes, the old reliable watchmaker.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Latourette, of the class of '78, attended the alumni exercises. Mr. Latourette is a prominent attorney and banker in Oregon City.

Miss Fern Stout, '01, now of McMinnville, visited with Miss Anna Roe.

Miss Anna English was the guest of her friend, Miss Ethel Moseley, of Herrick Hall.

Haven Belknap, after spending a few days with his parents, returned to Woodburn yesterday, where he is employed in a drug store.

Miss Bessie Stewart, who has been attending St. Helens' Hall in Portland, arrived last Tuesday morning to visit her sister, Mrs. Lynn Lancelfield.

Miss Sarah Lyman, of the class of '73, visited with Prof. Mrash's family during commencement.

Miss Clara Irvin, a former student, was the guest of her sister during the week.

Fire Crackers, Sky Rockets, Spinning Wheels, Red Heads and Double Headed Dutchmen for sale at the Bazaar, Forest Grove. Also Cannon Crackers, Torpedoes, and a dozen other kinds.

Mrs. Con. Caples, of Portland, spent several days at the Caples residence. Miss Mamie Hibbs, of Gaston, visited at the home of C. B. V. Russell over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Caples, of Portland, spent Sunday with relatives.

Miss Helen James, of Portland, who has been the guest of Mrs. John E. Bailey, returned home last Monday.

Chas. Scott, now employed in Portland, visited his parents last Sunday.

Chas. Nicklin, of Portland, was the guest of his sister, Mrs. Lelo Nicklin, at the home of Dr. C. E. Geiger, last Sunday.

Miss Stella Boscow, of Hillsboro, spent Sunday with Miss Maud Shannon.

Mrs. J. Ward Gregg visited the fore part of the week at St. Mary's Academy, near Beaverton.

Mr. Connell, who has been employed as clerk in the Miller pharmacy, left Tuesday for Portland.

Mrs. W. A. Cole, of Seattle, Wash., with her two children, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Martin.

Miss Gertrude Eddy, of Portland, is spending a few days with her friend, Miss Catherine Scott.

C. A. Ives, who lives about two and one-half miles from Glennwood, exhibited in The News office Wednesday two beautiful bear skins, one cinnamon and the other black, trophies of his trapping skill. One measures six and one-half feet and weighed about 400 pounds, and the other, a six-footer, weighed 350. Tanner Thomas is making over the official robes of these kings of the forest into floor rugs.

GUARDIAN'S SALE NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that in pursuance of an order of the County court of Washington county, and State of Oregon, made on the 15th day of June, 1903, in the matter of the guardianship of the state of William H. Lee, minor, the undersigned duly appointed and acting guardian of said minor and of his estate will sell, at public auction for cash, at the dwelling house on said premises, subject to the confirmation of the said county court, on Monday, the 20th day of July, 1903, at 10 o'clock a. m. of said day, all the right, title and interest of the said William H. Lee, minor, in and to said premises, described as follows, to-wit: Commencing at a stake 14 chains East of the South West corner of the North West quarter of section 2 T. 1 N. R. 4 W, and running thence North 20 chains, thence East 13.5 chains, thence South 20 chains, thence West 13.5 chains to the place of beginning. Excepting the following described tract, to-wit: Commencing at a point 50 rods West of the center of Section 2 T. 1 N. R. 4 W., and running thence North 80 rods, thence West 14 rods, thence South 80 rods, thence East 14 rods to the place of beginning. Containing 7 acres. All in Washington county, and State of Oregon. JOHN F. LEE, Guardian of William H. Lee, Minor. By his Att'ys, Langley & Son.

ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been duly appointed by the County Court of the State of Oregon, for Washington County, administratrix of the Estate of Asa Williams, deceased. All persons having claims against said estate are hereby required to present the same to me properly verified, as by law required, at Forest Grove, Oregon, within six months from the date hereof. Dated this 16th day of June, A. D. 1903.

SARAH E. CROW,

Administratrix of the Estate of Asa Williams, deceased.

Roe & Buxton are selling agents for the Standard Varnish Works of New York. Finest lustre and quality unsurpassed.