Miss C. P. Goemans, from De Pere, Wis., is spending the summer at the home of J. W. Vandervelden, and visiting her relatives, the Van Dykes, the Bernards and the Vanderveldens. Miss Goemans is much pleased with Oregon and is enjoying her visit.

Remember that Hughes, the hardware man, sells the McCormick binders, mowers and rakes. He is the only man in the city who gets his machinery in carload lots. This saving in freight makes it possible to get as much profit as others, and still sell below what they can afford.

Bernard Ostermann, who after 18 years of hard work has cleared 68 acres of the 70 on his farm, has one of the finest ranches in the county, splendidly fruited with all varieties of apples, peaches, prunes, cherries and grapes in abundance. Mr. Ostermann has been making an excellent grade of wine from his surplus cherries. Two boxes of cherries submitted to The News as samples were very much appreciated, and evidenced the merit of the fruit.

Mrs. Seidler, wife of the section foreman at Cornelius, died Wednesday, aged about forty years. She leaves a husband and five children.

All Lutherans of the county are invited to attend the convention of German Lutheran churches which will be held at Blooming the week July 1 to 5. About forty ministers will be present.

A policeman in full uniform has been an interesting figure this week on the evening west side trains from Portland, going as far as the summit and returning on the incoming train. Whether as a protection against hold-ups or to prevent youngsters throwing stones at the train the conductor will not disclose.

F. K. Van Domelin began Thursday cutting piles for Mr. Bradley on P. J. Ritchie's place, two miles east of Gaston. The contract with Mr. Ritchie is to cut all on his place, which will be about 250. Whetstone Bros. have been cutting wood for some time on the P. J. Rich place, and have a number of cords cut and corded.

The question of closing the Hill school house near Gaston to religious services has been decided by the voters in the negative.

The band benefit Saturday evening will not only be a dance worth attending, but the excellent work the band is doing deserves notice. The band is a credit to the city, and is entitled to encouragement.

Get your pictures at Meresse's, and get them at cost.

Cornelius, June 28.—Mrs. Ida Douglas, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Merrill, is visiting her parents. She is from Nebraska and is expecting to remain here all summer. Mrs. Douglas is so well pleased with the country that she may induce her husband to sell out and come to Oregon. The wife of Herman Seidler, who died Monday morning at her residence near town, was buried today in Cornelius cemetery, Rev. Mr. Clemon preaching the funeral at the church. There was a large gathering of friends. Mr. Seidler's brother and two sisters, from Portland, attended the funeral. Mrs. Sam Applin, from Rainier, who has been here visiting her relatives for some time, has gone to Yamhill, where she will spend a few days with her sister. Chris Peters made a flying trip to Portland one day this week. Ben Schofield's new house is looming up in good shape. There was a man, who shall be nameless, but he lives in Cornelius, who went to Portland to meet his daughter from the East. She came out on the evening train and he stayed a day or two and concluded she was not going to come and came back to Cornelius to find his daughter here.—Mr. Barnhart, an uncle of C. B. Buchanan, who has been in the mines for some time, came back to Cornelius this week to stop awhile with friends and relatives.
