

Hop Yard Finishes Picking—New Residence—Portland Visitors.

Scholls, Sept. 8.—Messrs. John Gerritsie, Bud Taylor and T. J. Wallen, with their families, started to Winters' hop and last Tuesday. — E. C. Hanson finished hop picking last Thursday. It lasted five days. — Mr. and Mrs. Stills, from Portland, have been visiting friends here at Scholls. Mrs. Stills returned home Monday, taking Seth Miller with her to visit a week. — Mr. Wm. Crater has commenced building his new residence in the north part of Scholls. — Misses Minnie and Jennie Sutherland have gone to Portland to sew at Lipman, Wolfe & Co's. — Mr. John Adams started down the Columbia river last Wednesday to work in the logging camp.

FARMINGTON.

Forty-five Cents for Hop Picking—New Residence Building—Farm Sold—Church Notice.

Farmington, Sept. 5.—Hop picking commenced here last Wednesday, with prospects for about nine days' picking. Hops are not quite up to last year's yield, but of good quality. Pickers are getting 45 cents per box this year. — Your hop money will go farther at the Postoffice Store. — J. M. Martin has sold his place to L. Landers. Mr. Martin came here from Old Virginia a few months ago, having bought the old Ben Jones farm, which he has now disposed of again at a good profit. — School books and school supplies at the Farmington Store. — J. P. Cahow is building a new residence on his place, Carpenter Crawford having the contract. — Krebs sells as cheap as good goods can be handled. — Sam Lorensen is back from the lumbering camp to stay home for awhile. — Mrs. Wm. Hummel, of Portland, is spending her vacation days with Postmaster Krebs. — There will be preaching at the Christian Church next Sunday, morning and evening, J. Campbell officiating.

SEGHERS.

Good Harvest Returns—Big Day's Threshing—Onions Coming on Well—Threshers Short-handed.

Seghers, Sept. 8.—Mr. Joe Bowens likes his new home first-rate, but thinks the work a good deal harder here than in the old country. — Mr. August Roth has got his 33 acres threshed at last, 20 of which were oats and 13 wheat; the average on the whole, 50 bushels per acre. — Mr. Nick Peterson has got his fine, big crop of oats and barley threshed, taking him all day, until 10 o'clock at night, to finish, replenishing the boys freely with Weinhard's best to make them hold out. — Anyone who thinks there is no white, bright oats in the country, just call on or write to old Nic Peterson or Gus Roth for the same. — Mr. Joseph Riefenroth, who has had a contract of about 300 acres of grain cutting, has finished here and bid all of his patrons goodbye until next season. — Mr. Vandomlin's onion harvest will in about two weeks be ready for market. — There are six threshing machines running here now in full blast, and they don't fill the wants of all yet, because hands are so short here that most of them must run short-handed, and the neighbors have to exchange work as best they can.

REEDVILLE.

Vacation Over—New Manager of Witch Hazel Hop Yard—School begins.

Reedville, Sept. 9.—Vacation has passed by. — J. Millar and A. W. Dant are on the sick list this week. — Misses Agnes and May Duffy are visiting friends in this vicinity. — Mrs. Claude H. Miller and daughter, of Portland, spent Sunday and Monday with friends. — Rev. and Mrs. O. O. Tweed and son are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hansen. — Mr. and Mrs. Thomsen and Miss Merchant made a business trip to the metropolis Tuesday. — Frank Weisenback and family have moved to Witch Hazel, where Mr. Weisenback has charge of the large hop yard recently planted. — Monday the school bell summoned the knowledge seekers to school, where Miss Chalmers, of Centerville, and Miss Staehr, of Forest Grove, are to wield the rod.

HAYWARD.

Prune Prospect Promising—Lyda Mill to Move—New Barn—Neighborhood Deserted for Hop Fields.

Hayward, Sept. 8.—Mr. George Kessler went to Portland Tuesday with beef. — The Hayward people have about all gone hop picking, and things are dull here now. — Anyone wishing silver prunes to can or for other use, should call on J. A. Jennings, Hayward. — Mr. George Lemmerman returned Sunday from Portland, where he has been at work. — Prunes are ripening fast around Hayward, and will soon be ready to dry. — Mr. Will Lyda went Monday to work on his new mill on Dairy creek. They will be moving some of these days before long. — Mr. C. Rinechor is covering his new barn today.

DILEY.

Everything Hops — Invalid Treated at Medicineless Sanitarium — Patton and Scoggins Valleys Waiting for Thresher — Hay Baler at Work—Long Pedestrian Trip.

Diley, Sept. 10.—Nearly everybody is running and hurrying and jumping to get to the hops. — Miss Blanch Quine of Portland is visiting her cousin, Miss Mable Cummins. — Donald Martin came home last Monday from a course of treatment at a medicineless sanitarium in Portland, but we have not heard with what results. — Rev. Mr. Putnam went to Patton's mill this week and back via Patton Valley, a trip of about 25 miles, all on foot except 4 or 5 miles. — Rev. Mr. McClelland and wife, of Portland, who spent their vacation of a month here, as guests of Miss Mack, returned home last week. — Mr. Hubbard's baler worked in Scoggins Valley last week. — Charles Odell and wife, who lately left here, have gone to see the old home and friends for two months in Iowa. — Matthew Patton is down from the mill, looking for a cook for his camp. — W. C. Gray did business at the Grove Monday. — Farmers in Patton and Scoggins Valleys are anxiously waiting for a threshing machine to come their way. — Geo. Briggs and wife, of the firm of Briggs Bros., will go in a few days to harvest their fine prune crop on their large farm in Washington. — Hon. A. Briggs went to Portland on business Wednesday. — Mrs. Newman was at the Grove on business Wednesday. The Newmans are a very pleasant family and own a beautiful home about two and a half miles southwest from here.

MIDDLETON.

Hoppicking Going on Nicely.—Returns to Missouri.—Jewett-Bristow Wedding—Building Boon.

Middleton, Sept. 10.—Hoppicking is progressing nicely. A week or ten days more of good weather and they will all be saved. — Charles Goodson left for his old home in Missouri yesterday after six months' residence in Washington County. He says there is no place like Oregon and will return in the spring. — Married, at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. Wm. Parrish, Sept. 6, Miss Mary Bristow and Amos Jewett. — Middleton has a building boom this summer, five new barns, seven houses, two hop driers and one large fruit drier being built in this vicinity. — I. M. Kerr and family, of Quincy, Ore., are visiting Mr. Joe Kerr, of this place. — J. C. Smock, of Sherwood, and an old friend of his boyhood days in Missouri, were visiting the hop yards in this vicinity the first of the week.

HILLSBORO.

Social News—Initial Club Dance — Charles Bradley Fractures His Leg.

Hillsboro, Sept. 10.—Principal B. W. Barnes returned from Seaside Saturday. — Mrs. Mackinder, who has been a guest of Miss Minnie Warren, returned to her home in California Saturday evening. — Hon. S. B. Huston and family returned from Newport on Friday. — Miss Beason, of Salem, who has been a guest of Miss Elizabeth Milne, returned home Sunday. — Miss Mary Bailey, of Forest Grove, visited Hillsboro the first of the week. — The opening club dance of the season took place at the opera house Saturday evening, and was well attended and a success in every particular. S. T. Walker, of Forest Grove, furnished the music and a number of Forest Grove young people attended. — Hop picking commenced in the Woods yard on Tuesday. — Charles Bradley, of this place, fractured his leg on Saturday.

FARM SCENE WEST OF FOREST GROVE.

Get your implements at Mrs. Mathies' store, Cornelius, and get them at reduced prices.

EXPLANATION.

It was quite true, as Rev. Mr. Curran explained, and as stated by a Hillsboro correspondent to the Oregonian, that Mr. Curran took a Bible in to Rev. H. R. Kennedy in the county jail, but the correspondent failed to add that the Bible and another book, with a package of clothing, and some fruit were sent in by Mrs. Kennedy and taken in at her request by Mr. Curran.

Lost.—Sorrel horse, star on forehead, lump on right hind foot, iron-gray mare and colt, strayed from Banks; last seen east of Greenville, heading east. Reward for return or information leading to recovery. E. B. Fair, Banks, Or.

DEATHS.

Hartrampf.—At St. Vincent's Hospital, Portland, on Sept. 4, Charles Hartrampf, aged 32 years. The remains were brought to the Grove Friday evening and Sunday afternoon funeral services were conducted at the Christian church by his former pastor, Rev. Arthur Cane, and burial was in the Naylor cemetery, according to the rites of the Woodmen of the World.

Mr. Hartrampf came to Forest Grove about ten years ago and was highly esteemed by many who knew him. His widow, parents and brothers and sisters have the sympathy of the community in the sad termination of the valiant fight for life which had been going on so long, and in which it was generally expected the sick man was going to win.

SUMMONS.

In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, in and for Washington County.

John W. Barcroft, Plaintiff, vs.
Harriet N. Barcroft, Defendant.

To Harriet N. Barcroft, Defendant Above Named:—

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby notified that the plaintiff herein has filed a complaint against you in the above entitled Court, and you are hereby required to appear and answer said complaint on or before the last of the time prescribed by order of publication hereof, to-wit: On or before the 23rd day of October, 1903.

You are further notified that if you fail to appear and answer the complaint herein, or to plead thereto, the plaintiff will cause your default to be entered and will apply to the Court above mentioned for the relief prayed for in the complaint herein, that is to say, for a decree forever dissolving the bonds of matrimony that now exist between plaintiff and defendant, and for such further relief as the Court may deem equitable in the premises.

The date of the first publication of defendant's summons is Friday, Sept. 11, 1903, and that of the last publication thereof is Friday, Oct. 23, 1903, and the said summons shall be published on Friday of each week for a period of six consecutive weeks between said dates.

This summons is published by order of Hon. L. A. Rood, County Judge of Washington County, Oregon, said order having been made in chambers Sept. 10, 1903.

W. M. LANGLEY & SON,
Attorneys for Plaintiff.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.

United States Land Office, Oregon City, Ore., July 23, 1903. Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provisions of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the States of California, Nevada, and Washington Territory," as extended to all the Public Land States by act of August 4, 1892, Columbus W. Cowan, of Portland, county of Multnomah, State of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 6223, for the purchase of the NE¼ of SE¼, Sec. 12, T. 2 N., R. 6 W., and lots 1, 2 and 3 in Township No. 2 N., Range No. 5 W., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before the Register and Receiver of this office at Oregon City, Ore., on Thursday, the 22 day of October, 1903.

He names as witnesses: James B. Houston, W. A. Trites, L. R. Houston, W. A. Gordon, all of Portland, Ore. Any and all persons claiming adversely the above-described lands are requested to file their claim in this office on or before said 22nd day of October, 1903.
