

GARDEN HOME.

Thrashing Slow—Telephone Changes—New Rural Mail Route—Sick Woman Taken to Portland Hospital—Cider-Making.

Garden Home, Sept. 15.—The farmers here are beginning to think that their grain will spoil before the threshers will get here; the rain hinders them considerably. Miss Carrie Nicholson is home or a three weeks' vacation. Mr. William Morgensen has a telephone in his house now. Messrs. Otto Nicholson, Geo. Peterson and John Gaarde put up the line and the phone. Mrs. and Mr. Pearson and Mrs. Geo. Peterson and children, Mr. Sanderson and a gentleman from Portland spent Sunday afternoon very pleasantly at Mr. Morgensen's house. Mr. John Shoemaker had quite a number of young people Sunday at his house. Miss Carrie Nicholson had quite a pleasant surprise Sunday evening. She was walking down the walk when a carriage load of friends from Portland drove up. Mr. Iver Okestrom spent Sunday at Mr. Nicholson's, and Gus Lindane was also there. Mrs. L. H. Nichols has had the telephone taken out of her house. She is also closing out her store. Laurence Huffaker is working for Ole Oleson in his onion patch. Mr. Olson is paying $1.50 per day. There are several mail boxes up along the new mail route already. Mrs. Singer was taken to Portland to the hospital Monday; she is in a very bad condition and an operation will have to be performed. A friend of Mrs. Singer's took her in and on her way home met with rather a bad accident, having her nose broken and some other injuries, so that she was forced to remain in town. Mrs. Singer has five little children. At Peterson's they are having a sweet time of it, making pear and apple cider.

Threshers Busy—Crops Good—Shingle Mill Improvements—New Dwelling House—Woman Mail Carrier—Good Oats Yield. Albion, Sept. 13.—Mr. Gust Schmidlin is getting better, but is still at the hospital in Portland. Mrs. Mowse is visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary McDaniel. Mr. Holt hauled 3000 feet of lumber for Mr. Roselair last week. Thrashing is the order of the day and farmers happy over good crops. Mr. Albert Schmidlin is putting in a new engine in his shingle mill; he intends to commence cutting shingles soon. Mr. and Mrs. S. Mowse and Mrs. Mary McDaniel were visiting at Mr. Holt's last week. Mr. Felt is building a new house for Mr. Shanahan. Albion has a lady mail carrier nowadays, Miss Maud Rice. J. R. Dallas threshed 439 bushels of oats from eight acres of land. Mrs. Roselair and three children were visiting with Mrs. McDaniel last Sunday.

SCHOLLS.

Thrashing Over—Saw Mill Starts Up—Big Timber Deal—Dance Coming—Auction Sale—Hay Baler Goes to Newberg.

Scholls, Sept. 15.—The thrashing machines have all left our valley, and everybody is wearing pleasant smiles again, to think their grain is all in the granary without getting wet. Mr. Wm. Crator was in Newberg last Sunday after his father, who is going to finish his house for him. Rowell & Grover's sawmill started up last Saturday after about two weeks vacation, and with only nine men cut 19,500 feet of lumber. M. S. Miller, of Portland, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. M. C. Miller. Mr. E. Winstrum has sold all his timber to the G. & R. Co., about 3,000,000 feet. Mr. F. Groner and family have gone to the coast for a two weeks vacation. Jessie Snyder and L. M. Miller were in Sherwood at the dance Saturday night. Watch out for a big dance at Scholl's about the first of next month. Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Emrick have gone to the State Fair. Mr. F. G. Miller is going to make a sale of all his personal property, about the first of the month; look out for the bills next week. Mr. Will Corby has returned from the harvest fields; his folks are coming from the East in a few days, and will locate in or near Scholls. C. Hinton's thrashing machine from Reedville passed here on Tuesday. E. E. Schmeltzer is running his engine this season. Will Fletcher and Eddie Sutherland finished pulling their onions today. Cyrus Brown came home yesterday from Woodburn, where he has had charge of a large hop yard. Miller Brothers have sold their hay baler to a man from Newberg. Will Wahlagel has been on the sick list for a few days. Dr. Fletcher attending him.

Many Away Hoppicking—Big Slashing Burned—Thrashing Over and Threshers Move On—Hess Bros. Again Lose by Fire.

Many, Sept. 17.—Things are very quiet around here. Most of the people are picking hops at Saltzgerber's yard. He will finish about Saturday. Thrashing is about over. Abe Grossen went to Gaston, where he expects about ten days' run. W. Frey burned his big slashing yesterday and got a very good burn for the time of the year. Hess Bros., who have been thrashing around this neighborhood, went home to thresh their own grain yesterday. One of the stacks caught fire and burned their new thrashing machine and barn, and it was hard work to save the house. The separator was insured for $400. This is hard luck for the boys, as they lost a machine by fire last year and a lot of grain.

Injured in Logging Camp—School to Open—State Fair Visitors—New Arrivals from Norway.

Farmington, Sept. 17.—Ed. Ingram, who has been working in one of the big logging camps down the river for some time, came home last Sunday with a badly crippled foot. He was caught in between some logs as the donkey engine was unexpectedly started. He will be laid up for some time. Krebs will pay most for your produce. We would like to know what is the matter with our Farmington boys, as we learn that one of our best-known prominent young ladies has been captured by a young man from over the hills, who will soon take her from our neighborhood. Boys, wake up! and don't let that happen again. Keep the girls here, if you do have to marry them. The postoffice store will sell as cheap as you can buy elsewhere and you will get reliable goods. The farmers have finished thrashing and most of them are hauling grain now. Hoppicking is also a thing of the past. Slashings have been burning around us the past week or so; some of them burning farther than wanted, causing some damage to fences. Mrs. Chas. Litz, from La Tama, Wash., has been visiting the past week with her brothers, George and J. J. Krebs. The Misses Carrie and Bessie Withycombe will attend school in Newberg this coming term. Krebs keeps full lines and sells at low figures. Farmington school will open next Monday with Miss Agnes Delsman as teacher. A full attendance is expected. Pres. Southworth is going to leave our neighborhood before long. He will sell all of his stock and household goods at public auction. Messrs. Thos. Withycombe, Wm. Schulmerich, Dan Burkhalter, Andrew Jack and Charles Johnson are spending the week at Salem, taking in the State Fair. Mr. Fred Johansen and family are new and desirable arrivals in our community. They came all the way from Norway, and are staying at present with their kinfolks, Mr. Jacob Halverson.

Bear Cub Killed—State Fair Visitors—Big Wages for Young Woman Hoppicker—Kelly Knowles Wedding—Thresher and Bagg Burn—$2250 Land Deal.

Glencoe, Sept. 17.—Geo. Darey killed a young bear about a mile from his home, Monday morning. It had been seen several times during the summer, but no one had got a shot at it. J. W. Connell and wife have gone to Salem this week to attend the State Fair. M. C. Lincoln and wife are also there. J. N. Hayes is a marshal on the grounds. Mrs. Walter's baby Bert has been quite sick, but seems to be improving. The hoppickers are all at home again from North Yamhill. From reports they all did well. One young lady made $3.50 one day. Perry Miller has returned from Eastern Oregon, where he has been for his health. He is but very little better than when he left, and is talking of going to California to spend the winter. The friends of Mrs. J. R. Mays will be sorry to learn that she is quite ill and has gone to the Portland Sanatorium to be treated. Mr. Harland Kelley and Miss Laura Knowles, residing on Pumpkin Ridge, were married in Hillsboro at the Court House by the County Judge. Mr. Kelley is the son of George N. Kelley and his bride is the only daughter of Mrs. Knowles, who lives near Mountaineale. On Sunday evening a large crowd of boys went and charivari'd them, and on Monday they had a wedding dinner at Mr. George N. Kelley's. The barn, thrashing machine and out-building of George Hess, an industrious farmer, living two miles west of this place, burned to the ground this afternoon, about three o'clock. They were thrashing when the sparks from the engine caught the straw afire, burning all their grain, separator, barn, which was full of hay; a pigpen full of fattening hogs, and several other buildings. All that was saved was the house. This is the second machine which they have had burned, as they had one burn last year. Gus S. Lambotte has sold his place in Shady Brook to a man from Portland for $2,250. Mr. Lambotte intends to go to Eastern Oregon and may buy there. Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Crimp have been visiting their aunt, Mrs.

A TRIO OF JERSEYS FROM ATKINSON'S FAMOUS HERD, NEWBERG.

Emily Trumley. Mrs. Grace Connell, who has been to the coast for the last three or four weeks, returned today. Miss Rachel Wescott has gone to Portland to work. Miss Lizzie Connell is going to attend school in Hillsboro this fall.

CORNELIUS.

C. B. Buchana finished up his hoppicking the fore part of this week. His crop amounted to 50,000 lbs. Geo. Susbauer finished picking Wednesday; Mike Susbauer will finish today; John Buchana is still picking at his yard. Fred Barber, who got hurt in the baling machine not long since, is around on crutches and is mending slowly. Harry Kritzer, formerly of this place but now of Portland, visited here last Sunday. A. A. Phillips, the agent for the Willamette Real Estate Co., sold this week four lots to Albert Bunning and eight lots to C. W. Hendricks. Mr. Hendricks will build a fine residence soon on his property. C. C. Hancock, one of the popular merchants of this place, will soon commence to build a residence north of his store. Thos. Talbot and wife are attending State Fair this week. A sister of Mrs. Greenwood, of this place, is visiting her for a few days this week. A son of T. S. Cornelius, of Astoria, is visiting his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Schofield. He is expecting to remain here all winter. Mrs. Etta Matthies, of this place, met with a misfortune this last week. Some one during Saturday shot her so badly that the animal had to be killed. Mrs. Matthies says she thinks she knows who did it.

BEAVERTON.

Youthful Miller—Several Sick—Hops a Third Short—Store Enlarged—Gaston Railway Water Tank—Accident to Railroad Employee.

Beaverton, Sept. 17.—Born—To the wife of L. H. Alberts, the Beaverton Miller, a son. This being Mr. Albert's sixth son, shows that he is not a believer in race suicide. J. N. Fisher is reported as dangerously ill with typhoid fever. His daughter, Mrs. W. H. Cady, arrived Tuesday night from Pendleton, Or. G. W. Stitt is suffering with a severe attack of cholera morbus. W. H. Borton, J. M. Smith, M. D. Cady and August Ross are among the Beaverton visitors at the State Fair. The hop crop this year at the Mott yard was one-third short. C. E. Hedge has begun a new warehouse at the east of his store. F. W. Cady is literally "raising the roof" of his residence this week. Henry Jones and family are moving to Portland. R. D. Benham and wife made a flying visit to Beaverton last week. Miss Minnie Spaulding and Mr. Burt Cady visited with F. W. Cady's family Sunday, the 13th inst. C. Chas. Meagher met with a slight accident while working on the railroad this week, in the shape of a cut on his knee. F. E. Waters, of the McMinnville Mutual Fire Association, was in town Wednesday. The fine weather of the past week has cured the onions and farmers are now busy putting them in their barns. J. A. Chilton has a contract for supplying the S. P. Co. at Gaston with water, and is busily engaged at present installing a gasoline engine and pump.

Visitors—Grange Organizer—Improvements—Home from the Seashore—Slight Accident.

Beaverton, Sept. 17.—David Purser and wife returned from Long Beach Saturday. Mrs. Purser reports having quite a time getting home, as the steamer "Potter" does not run now, and everybody wanted to come home at the same time. Full line of school books and supplies at Hedge's. While sawing wood Thursday of last week Arthur Moor very severely cut his knee in two places, but he is now able to be around and says it is doing nicely. Plenty of capped jelly glasses at 25c per dozen at Hedge's.

Dr. J. S. Casto, State Organizer of the Patrons of Husbandry, was in attendance at the Grange at this place Saturday. Hedge keeps fruit jars. F. W. Cady is having his house remodeled this week. E. D. Summers is doing the work. Mr. Earl Hedge visited his uncle at this place Tuesday evening. He informs us that he is going back to Indiana, to the land of his birth. Austie Hedge is visiting for a few days at Milwaukie with Mr. McLaughlin's family. Hedge will pay you cash for first-class butter and eggs. Sam Landucci is offering his place for sale. He wants to quit gardening and go away for his health, as he has been very poorly this summer. Some of the hop-pickers are beginning to return. Bert Cady is visiting home folks for a few days.
