

BIGGEST BUSIEST BEST

Washington County News

Vol. 1 Forest Grove, Washington County, Oregon, October 23, 1903. No. 23

Ernest, the 14 year old son of John L. Ohman, was severely injured one day last week by being kicked in the face by a horse.

Rev. Mr. Clemo, the former M. E. pastor at Cornelia, will preach at this place the ensuing year.

Mr. Peter Vandehey, from Verboort, spent several days of last week visiting friends and relatives at this place.

Mrs. Bunker will spend the winter at Vancouver, Wash.

Mrs. Wm. King returned Saturday last from several days visit at The Dalles.

Miss Belle McCallen is at home again, after spending the summer at Portland.

Miss Ruth Owens is visiting with her parents.

Mr. Thos. Maessen, who spent the summer at this place, has gone to Portland to work this winter.

BETHANY

People around Bethany taking advantage of the good weather to dig potatoes. The crop is light in places and diggers are hard to get.

John Berger is on the sick list.

A farmers telephone to this place is talked of, to connect at the Mauz e place with the line just building there.

GALES CREEK

On Thursday of last week Dr. Lurge was a Gales Creek visitor.

On Sunday Messrs. Haycock and Geiger were Gales Creek visitors.

Mr. Sam Wells has returned from Eastern Oregon where he spent the summer.

School opened last Monday with thirty pupils in attendance and Chas. Lilly as teacher.

Frank Fletcher accompanied by his mother and sister, Miss Eva, spent Sunday at the old homestead.

Iver Jacobson is improving the looks of his dwelling by adding a new porch and doing some inside work.

BEAVERTON

The District S. S. Convention held in this place Oct. 21st, while not very largely attended was very interesting and all there had a good time.

Road Supervisor Johnson, has secured the rock crusher and now has it in place ready to crush rock. It will be well for those who have subscribed work to report to the supervisor and inform him when it will be most convenient for them to work.

Mrs. Della McCuley is visiting Mrs. W. H. Boyd.

Miss Flora Fulton is visiting with her sister, Mrs. Eva Alexander.

Messrs. Chas. Johnson and Sam Hoover have succeeded Mr. Fisher in the butcher business. Their many friends wish them success in their new undertaking.

Mr. S. H. Zimmerman has taken up his abode in Beaverton. He has purchased stock in the Beaverton Milling Co. and expects to be employed in the mill.

CEDAR MILL

Mrs. R. M. Kyle is on the sick list.

Messrs. Parmley and Gerrigus, from Banks, passed through Cedar Mill on the 13th inst enroute for Portland with produce.

Mrs. C. Pomeroy returned Saturday last from a week's visit at Umatilla.

KANSAS CITY.

Apple picking, potato digging and plowing are the order of the day.

School commenced Monday with Miss Thomas as teacher.

Mr. Aydeotte, the milk hauler has a new boy at his home.

Mr. Kirt's sister from near Tillamook City is visiting here for a few days.

Mr. Davis and wife have moved back to his place, formerly the P. J. Ritchey place.

Mr. McGraw is finishing his clover hulling.

Mr. Chas. Chapman, of Lents, came out for a couple of days for a hunt.

Mr. Kerts is having a well dug by his barn.

SHERWOOD.

Blake True, of Middleton, passed through on the train a few days ago on his way to Baker City, where he contemplates working in a mine during the winter.

The first shipment of potatoes and onions to be made from this place in car lots, will be sent out in a few days by J. C. Snook. The potatoes go to California, and the onions to Seattle. Prices paid, 50 and 75ct. per cwt. respectively.

C. True, the Middleton prune man, is loading a car of his products at this place. The Middleton facilities for handling freight being quite limited, most of their car shipments are handled from here.

A fine lot of office furniture has just recently been received by L. S. McConnell, postmaster, for equipping the rural mail office at this place. The consignment consists of chairs, desks, and three large compartments containing pigeon-holes for distributing the mails in. About one month ago the government sent a nice section of lock-boxes which were installed in the post-office. We can now boast of an up-to-date office.

PROGRESS

Farmers are all busy digging their potatoes this fine weather.

Fanno Bros. have finished getting in their onions this week.

Miss Ursula Kaufman of Yancouver visited in Progress last week.

Miss Minnie Doeneka of Portland spent Sunday with Maude Hingley.

Mrs. W. H. Beharrel and son Wesley visited in Progress last week.

Mrs. McKay spent a few days in Portland last week visiting her daughter.

Messrs. Anna and Sarah Rogers of Portland spent Sunday with Mrs. A. R. Fanno.

Mr. Vaughn Beharrel made a flying trip out from Portland on his wheel last Wednesday evening.

Mr. Henry Husilage, wife and daughter, Mabel from Tigardville spent Sunday with Mrs. George Blasser.

HILLSIDE

School has opened up, Miss Lena Loynes as teacher.

Mr. Frank Maitland has considerable plowing done already.

Wm. Dunswoor has been thinking of going East with with a carload of prunes.

Only two ring necks are left on Hillside, one on Mr. C. R. Macy's place and the other is running at large, likely to be taken at any time.

A very destructive notion struck Mr. William Claphaw the other morning before breakfast and immediately after eating a few buckwheat pancakes and a cup of coffee he went out to his old barn and began to tear it down, but as luck had it he has a new one full of hay and with room for all of his horses and cows.

GLENCOE

Miss Lucy Davis has gone to Portland to work.

Mr. Chas. Loudon, gave an enjoyable dance Friday evening.

Mr. John W. Connell is up in Eastern Oregon, buying horses.

John Wright, from Canada, is visiting his nephew, Thos. Connell.

Albert Thomas is teaching the Gaston school. It commenced last Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mays, have been visiting friends in Portland this week.

HAYWARD.

Mr. Louis Strohmyer took a load of his brother-in-law's things to Portland, Saturday.

Mr. J. Boos, while coming home with a load of chop feed, Saturday, lost two sacks just below Mr. Mann's, on the Beaverdam road.

Mrs. R. Whitten has been visiting Mrs. Lyda Friday, and having a very pleasant time.

Miss Katie Boos went Saturday, to visit her sister, Miss Anna B. Os, who is working below Greenville.

Mr. C. Lorenze was hauling lumber from Lyda's saw mill the other day, when his team became frightened and ran away, but did no damage.

Mr. Bill Lyda will finish sawing, this week and will begin tearing down his mill to move to the new site near the Bellinger bridge, 3 1/2 miles from Forest Grove.

VERBOORT.

H. E. More and Wilhelmina Van Der Zanden were united in holy matrimony, in the Catholic Church at Verboort, Rev. L. Verhaag officiating.

Wednesday, Oct. 21st the wedding of William VanDerVelden and Anna VanDyke took place at solemn High Mass, the Rev. Father Verhaag officiating and the Rev. Father O'Brien O. P. assisting as Deacon and Rev. Father Springer assisting as Subdeacon. The happy couple have the rare distinction of being the first to be married at Solemn High Noon at Verboort. Numerous guests came to congratulate the newly married at the home of the bride and to spend the day.

Last Tuesday, Father O'Brien O. P. concluded a successful mission at Seghers. Thursday and Friday of this week he will go to the church South of Cornelia. Saturday he will go to Buxton to open a mission there on Sunday.

GASTON.

Mrs. McEldowney and daughter, of Forest Grove, and Miss Ida Hay, of Mt. Tabor, spent Sunday with J. D. Hibbs and family.

Miss Mary Wills, who has been quite sick for the past three weeks, died, Tuesday, Oct. 20, of consumption, at the home of her grand mother Mrs. Moore. The remains were taken to Corvallis, Thursday morning, for burial.

Howard Satterlee is again able to be around, after a severe illness of two weeks.

The lack of cars still prevents the farmers from shipping their hay.

Geo. Douglas, of North Yamhill, was seen in town Sunday. He comes down this way quite often there seemingly is some cause for these frequent visits.

Phily Porter has been helping his brother, A. M. Porter, in the store, for a week or more.

GARDEN HOME.

The dog belonging to John De Horne, bit one of the children quite severely on the arm; the animal was getting so cross that he had to be killed.

Mrs. Gaarde was in Garden Home, Friday.

Always open — The Pacific Restaurant, next door Wertz' Barber shop.

Day and night, we are ready to serve warm lunches at the Pacific Restaurant.

The milk wagon will call at your door. Leave orders at Bazaar.

HAYWARD.

Mr. Louis Strohmyer took a load of his brother-in-law's things to Portland, Saturday.

Mr. J. Boos, while coming home with a load of chop feed, Saturday, lost two sacks just below Mr. Mann's, on the Beaverdam road.

Mrs. R. Whitten has been visiting Mrs. Lyda Friday, and having a very pleasant time.

Miss Katie Boos went Saturday, to visit her sister, Miss Anna B. Os, who is working below Greenville.

Mr. C. Lorenze was hauling lumber from Lyda's saw mill the other day, when his team became frightened and ran away, but did no damage.

Mr. Bill Lyda will finish sawing, this week and will begin tearing down his mill to move to the new site near the Bellinger bridge, 3 1/2 miles from Forest Grove.

VERBOORT.

H. E. More and Wilhelmina Van Der Zanden were united in holy matrimony, in the Catholic Church at Verboort, Rev. L. Verhaag officiating.

Wednesday, Oct. 21st the wedding of William VanDerVelden and Anna VanDyke took place at solemn High Mass, the Rev. Father Verhaag officiating and the Rev. Father O'Brien O. P. assisting as Deacon and Rev. Father Springer assisting as Subdeacon. The happy couple have the rare distinction of being the first to be married at Solemn High Noon at Verboort. Numerous guests came to congratulate the newly married at the home of the bride and to spend the day.

Last Tuesday, Father O'Brien O. P. concluded a successful mission at Seghers. Thursday and Friday of this week he will go to the church South of Cornelia. Saturday he will go to Buxton to open a mission there on Sunday.

GASTON.

Mrs. McEldowney and daughter, of Forest Grove, and Miss Ida Hay, of Mt. Tabor, spent Sunday with J. D. Hibbs and family.

Miss Mary Wills, who has been quite sick for the past three weeks, died, Tuesday, Oct. 20, of consumption, at the home of her grand mother Mrs. Moore. The remains were taken to Corvallis, Thursday morning, for burial.

Howard Satterlee is again able to be around, after a severe illness of two weeks.

The lack of cars still prevents the farmers from shipping their hay.

Geo. Douglas, of North Yamhill, was seen in town Sunday. He comes down this way quite often there seemingly is some cause for these frequent visits.

Phily Porter has been helping his brother, A. M. Porter, in the store, for a week or more.

GARDEN HOME.

The dog belonging to John De Horne, bit one of the children quite severely on the arm; the animal was getting so cross that he had to be killed.

Mrs. Gaarde was in Garden Home, Friday.

Always open — The Pacific Restaurant, next door Wertz' Barber shop.

Day and night, we are ready to serve warm lunches at the Pacific Restaurant.

The milk wagon will call at your door. Leave orders at Bazaar.

HAYWARD.

Mr. Louis Strohmyer took a load of his brother-in-law's things to Portland, Saturday.

Mr. J. Boos, while coming home with a load of chop feed, Saturday, lost two sacks just below Mr. Mann's, on the Beaverdam road.

Mrs. R. Whitten has been visiting Mrs. Lyda Friday, and having a very pleasant time.

Miss Katie Boos went Saturday, to visit her sister, Miss Anna B. Os, who is working below Greenville.

Mr. C. Lorenze was hauling lumber from Lyda's saw mill the other day, when his team became frightened and ran away, but did no damage.

Mr. Bill Lyda will finish sawing, this week and will begin tearing down his mill to move to the new site near the Bellinger bridge, 3 1/2 miles from Forest Grove.

VERBOORT.

H. E. More and Wilhelmina Van Der Zanden were united in holy matrimony, in the Catholic Church at Verboort, Rev. L. Verhaag officiating.

Wednesday, Oct. 21st the wedding of William VanDerVelden and Anna VanDyke took place at solemn High Mass, the Rev. Father Verhaag officiating and the Rev. Father O'Brien O. P. assisting as Deacon and Rev. Father Springer assisting as Subdeacon. The happy couple have the rare distinction of being the first to be married at Solemn High Noon at Verboort. Numerous guests came to congratulate the newly married at the home of the bride and to spend the day.

Last Tuesday, Father O'Brien O. P. concluded a successful mission at Seghers. Thursday and Friday of this week he will go to the church South of Cornelia. Saturday he will go to Buxton to open a mission there on Sunday.

GASTON.

Mrs. McEldowney and daughter, of Forest Grove, and Miss Ida Hay, of Mt. Tabor, spent Sunday with J. D. Hibbs and family.

Miss Mary Wills, who has been quite sick for the past three weeks, died, Tuesday, Oct. 20, of consumption, at the home of her grand mother Mrs. Moore. The remains were taken to Corvallis, Thursday morning, for burial.

Howard Satterlee is again able to be around, after a severe illness of two weeks.

The lack of cars still prevents the farmers from shipping their hay.

Geo. Douglas, of North Yamhill, was seen in town Sunday. He comes down this way quite often there seemingly is some cause for these frequent visits.

Phily Porter has been helping his brother, A. M. Porter, in the store, for a week or more.

GARDEN HOME.

The dog belonging to John De Horne, bit one of the children quite severely on the arm; the animal was getting so cross that he had to be killed.

Mrs. Gaarde was in Garden Home, Friday.

Always open — The Pacific Restaurant, next door Wertz' Barber shop.

Day and night, we are ready to serve warm lunches at the Pacific Restaurant.

The milk wagon will call at your door. Leave orders at Bazaar.

CIRCUIT COURT

Molly M Kendall on the 17th of October, filed complaint in a suit for a divorce from Thomas B Kendall. She alleges that they were married on September 12, 1886 at Callaway Nebraska, by M H Deems, Justice of the Peace, that there were four children to said marriage. As a ground for divorce she alleges that the defendant drove her from their home on the 14th of September and cruelly treated her. She asks for the care and custody of Nora Gertrude Kendall and Archie Ramona Kendall, and for about $400 worth of personal property. Hollis & Hawks appear as attorneys for plaintiff.

If you want something nobby call and see Westcott. He will tell you all about it.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS.

Clark Hewitt et ux to John A Kirkwood, 7.48 ac in A J Master's dlc.	$1075
Nancy I Banks et al to ET Turner, 1 ac in T 2 N, R 3 W.	100
Jno F Carstens et ux to Montgomery Turner, 1 ac in sec 25, T 2 N, Jno B Martin et ux to Frank I Knight, 16 ac in sec 10, T 1 S, R 4 W.	240
J H Lambert to Adam Engel, lots 10 and 12, Peachvale.	300
Donald McKenzie et ux to W J Lyth, N 1/2 of N 1/2 of lot No 2, Block 10, Forest Grove.	700
Thos W Henton to Woodruff Ward, NW 1/4 of NE 1/4 of sec 17, T 1 S, R 3 W, 40 acres.	1450
Jane A Perkins to Nick Kemmer, 59.81 ac in T 1 S, 1 W, Will. Mer.	1350
J B Kuhns et ux to Jas E Beecher, S 1/2 of lot 2, block 15, Forest Grove A Hinman to Chas L Hinman, lots in Forest Grove S of block 35.	1
Sarah E Reeves to Thos Tallman, lot 3 in blk 5 in Finney's add to Hillsboro.	250
Joseph A Allison et ux to Jno W Hartrampf, lot 1 in blk 10 in Thorne's add to Hillsboro, also 150x33 ft adjacent.	650

Nice clean lunches and meals 15c and up, at the Pacific Restaurant.

The Pacific States Telephone and Telegraph Co., are now busily engaged in adding another wire to their line down the Yamhill division. The increase of business, they state, has necessitated the additional wire.

Have you seen those fancy dressers at Roe & Buxton's? New line just arrived.

Wm. Baxter, an old resident of Scoggins Valley, died Wednesday morning of heart disease caused by rheumatism. He was born in Scotland 72 years ago and came to Washington County in '75.

The County pension board, Drs. Wood, Tamiesle and Large examined four applicants Wednesday besides one from Portland.

