

TROMLEY'S LATEST.

Judge McBride and District Attorney Allen were in town Tuesday to take up the petition signed by over 200 for the suspension of sentence of Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Tromley on condition that they leave the county, but the discovery of a plan for jailbreak makes it likely they'll stay in the law's custody for some time.

Sheriff Sewell discovered that Tromley had gotten a file and case knife with which he had manufactured two clever wooden keys that would open the jail locks and was working on the third for the outer door, at the same time preparing another exit by removing bricks from the rear wall.

Sheriff Sewell, E. B. Tongue and J. W. Morgan made strict search in and about the jail as a result and discovered $200 in greenbacks in the toe of one of Burke's shoes. Tromley was to receive $100 for his services.

The officers are now investigating how money and tools got into the jail and strict guard is kept though a watch had been placed over a weezago who would have given more wounds to Mr. Burke had he gotten to the outside.

It is said the conviction of Mrs. Tromley of burning her dwelling is assured and that the evidence implicates Tromley.

WM. SATTLER, OWNER. B. P. CORNELIUS, Auctioneer.

Of interest to school officers is an opinion just given by Attorney General Crawford upon request of State Supt. Ackerman, which holds that where a pupil is transferred from one district to another, it is the duty of the Board of Directors to transfer that pupil's proportion of the school funds to the district to which the child removes. If the Board of Directors of the first district refuses to transfer the money a mandamus proceeding may be brought by the parents of the child to compel the directors to perform their duty.

ANNUAL TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The annual teachers' institute of the county began its three days' session Wednesday morning in the circuit court room with an unexpectedly large attendance. Over a hundred were registered the first day and it is a deserved tribute to Supt. Ball as well as convincing proof of his popularity among the teachers, that many are at the institute who by law were not required to come as they also attended the state teachers' association.

Thursday evening's lecture begins at 8 o'clock and is by Prof. Adrian, on "A day in our Nation's Congress in War Time."

The instructors are Supt. L. R. Traver of Salem, formerly of Beaverton. Prof. Resler, of the Monmouth Normal and Prof. H. A. Adrian of Wisconsin. State Supt. Ackerman will be present Friday.

News and Weekly Oregonian, $2 a year.

PUBLIC SCHOOL TEACHERS.

Most of the public schools in Washington County are now in session, though of course closed during the time of the institute. Supt. Ball has so systematized the schools that teachers report promptly at the opening of each term with a program of class-work and it is from these reports, through his courtesy, that the following list was obtained. First comes the number of the district, next the date when the term opened and then the name of the teacher.

BEAVERTON S. S. CONVENTION.

A District Sunday School Convention was held at Beaverton, at the Congregational Church, Oct. 21.

After devotional exercises by Rev. Mr. Clemo, of the M. E. Church of Beaverton, Dr. Milligan, of Portland, spoke of "How to Win and Hold the Children and Youth in Sunday School," which was followed by a general discussion.

"Anchored", a solo, was prettily sung by Miss Birdie Vincent and was followed by a reading by Miss Olsen, of Raleigh, "How to conduct a Sabbath School Service," which was thoroughly discussed. Then came more music, and the benediction closed the morning service. An elaborate dinner at Morton's Hall, to which all were invited, pleasantly passed the noon hour.

In opening the afternoon service the devotional exercises were conducted by Mr. Robertson, of Raleigh. "Decision Day," was a reading by Rev. Mr. Clemo, which was followed by a general discussion, music and a well-delivered recitation, "The Little Pilgrim," by Mrs. Lillis Gaskell. "The Power of Individual Life," the subject of an interesting reading by Mrs. Fred Cady, then Miss Vincent sang another solo, and Dr. Milligan spoke of "Home Department and Cradle Roll," whose discussion brought out many new features.

A Question Box was well conducted by Rev. Mr. Robinson, then under "Election of Secretary," Miss Myrtle Gaskell, of Beaverton, was chosen for that important post. With the singing of the closing hymn, "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," and benediction, by Rev. Mr. Robinson, of Hillsboro, a meeting which had been full of interest and profitable suggestions for Sunday School workers closed.

Death of Mrs. John Benefiel, of Manning.

Mrs. John Benefiel, an Oregon pioneer of 1852, died at her home near Manning Sunday, aged 74 years.

Mrs. Benefiel was twice married. Her first husband died in 1855, on the plains. About four years, later, in Yamhill county, Oregon, she was married to John Benefiel, whose death occurred in 1891. She was born at Knoxville, Illinois, and is survived by the following children: Mrs. Mary Ann Larkins, Garfield, Wash; Wilson Benefiel, Portland; Thomas Benefiel, Chicago; Chaney Benefiel, Mrs. Lois Carstens, Manning; and Perry Benefiel, Buxton.

Interment was in the Wilkes cemetery Monday.

SMITH-MARION WEDDING AT TIGARDVILLE.

A very pretty wedding took place Wednesday, Oct. 21, at 12 o'clock, at the hall of Butte Grange, Tigardville, the contracting parties being Mr. George W. Smith and Mrs. Fannie K. Marion.

At the appointed hour the bride and groom entered the hall to the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin, played by Mrs. Gussie Tigard, and took their positions under a beautiful arch made of evergreens and ivy, entwined with white cosmos, where a beautiful and impressive ceremony was performed by Justice of the Peace H. B. Tigard. The bride looked charming in a dark blue gown and carried a bouquet of bridal roses.

The groom wore the conventional black.

After the ceremony and congratulations a bountiful dinner was served in the hall by members of the Grange and about 60 guests partook of the sumptuous repast.

Many beautiful and useful presents were received by the happy couple. Mr. and Mrs. Smith have hosts of friends and acquaintances and are well and favorably known, having made Tigardville their homes for years.

After a brief wedding trip to Portland, they will be at home to their friends after Oct. 25.

NEW SAW-MILL FOR PATTON VALLEY.

J. W. Wright, of Forest Grove, is now installing a new saw-mill plant in Patton Valley three miles west of Gaston on the Chas. Hering timberland, where there is about 4 million feet of lumber accessible. This will be one of the best plants in the county when completed, capable of cutting 15,000 feet daily and equipped to turn out first class lumber of all kinds. Mr. Wright has for some time been interested in timber lands, owning valuable tracts in Polk Co.

Found Dead in His Kitchen.

John Parson, an old man who has been living alone for the past ten years in a dwelling belonging to W. H. Wehrung in the edge of town on the Reedville road was found dead in his kitchen Monday afternoon by neighbors who had missed him. He had not been seen since Thursday and so Messrs George Ledford, R. Kuhn, Cummings and Calvin Briggs, who lives next door, made a search and, seeing the body through the cracks in the kitchen wall, broke in the door. Chin and wrist were so disfigured that an inquest was deemed advisable and Coroner Large was summoned.

Dr. Tamiesie, the coroner's physician, made a careful investigation which showed the suspicious marks on the body were from the gnawing of rats and was satisfied that death had come from apoplexy, probably Friday morning as the rigidity was leaving. After this report, an examination of the premises and listening to the testimony of two witnesses, Messrs. Cummings and George Ledford, who had been earlier on the scene, the jury, Messrs R. Kuhn, A. H. Wright, John Northrup, Calvin Briggs, R. T. Johnson and Craig, brought in a verdict of death from natural causes. The condition of the house, especially the sleeping room with its grimy pallet, discarded clothing for a pillow and floor covered with the accumulated evidence that during all his ten years, occupancy the tenant had found solace in smoking and chewing, apparently the only pleasure of a solitary life, all made the observer realize that death ought not to have been an unwelcome guest in such a home.

Mr. Parson came to Oregon in '47, at the age of sixteen. About a dozen years ago he sold a 40 acre tract he owned near town to Corwin and Wooster and the $1100 received for it kept him so that he had still left a couple of hundred, it is said, at the time of his death. He had drawn five dollar when last uptown but had not spent it as between six and seven dollars was found in his pockets. He was a man who used good language, had evidently been well educated and was a great reader.

DEATH OF CASPER BAUMANN, OF BEUTNEY.

Casper Baumann, who came to Beutney in 1872, and when taken up at his home near Beutney, died there Tuesday morning of heart disease after suffering for some time with a complication of troubles. He was about 75 years of age and has no relatives nearer than a brother who lives in Elizabeth, N. J. The rest of the family are in Germany where before his coming to this country he served in the Prussian army and his sword is now in the custody of Montezuma lodge here to whom he presented it.

Mr. Baumann had been under a doctor's care for many months, suffering from a complication of diseases, but his death was immediately due to heart trouble. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon from Donelson's undertaking parlors and was under the charge of Montezuma Lodge No. 50, I. O. O. F., although Minerva Lodge No. 19, of Portland, to which he belonged, was represented by a delegation of members. The burial was in the Odd Fellows cemetery.

The Supreme Court Monday will announce its decision on the new tax law with every likelihood that as a result an extra session of the Legislature will be required that the public revenues may be properly collected. Such an event will not be unwelcome as it gives opportunity for repealing the Celilo portage appropriation which would save Oregon $140,000 after paying the expenses of the session.

A Name Worth $5,000 a Day. In 1880 P. T. Barnum, the great showman, journeyed to the Pacific coast to visit a relative. On his way back east he stopped at Kansas City to see the great Barnum & Bailey show. To the editors of the local dailies who called upon him Mr. Barnum said: "Gentlemen, Mr. Bailey tells me that my presence at the performances of the Barnum & Bailey circus is worth $5,000 a day to the show. If this is true it is my name that is so valuable. It is known in every town, city and hamlet; it has become a household word throughout the country. "Now, gentlemen, all of this was done by newspapers, and if advertising can make a name worth $5,000 a day what is it that advertising can't do?" You lose much of the value of your business reputation if you do not keep your name constantly before the public in our columns.
