

CIRCUIT COURT.

Circuit Judge Hon. Thos. A. McBride held court on Wednesday, the 28th. The object of the meeting of the court was to take action in the case against Mrs. D. J. Tromley who is held on a charge of larceny by bailiee. A petition had been signed by numerous citizens and presented to Harrison Allen, District Attorney, asking that she be released from custody on condition that she leave the state. On learning of the attempt at jail break and the woman's connection with it, the District Attorney refused to release her. Several other matters were disposed of as follows:

On motion of plaintiff's allowing the divorce suit of Molly B. Kendall vs Thomas B. Kendall was dismissed. An order of confirmation was entered in Henry W. Jones et al vs Margaret D. Jones et al. Erwin Ritter administrator of the estate of J. W. Lemmon, deceased, has brought suit against Robert A. Foreman and Ladd & Tilton, Agents to quiet title to realty belonging to the estate of J. W. Lemmon, deceased. Christina Miller has sued Francisco T. Miller for divorce.

PROBATE COURT.

Estate of Robert H. Whitehead, deceased. Inventory and appraisal filed and approved, showing a total valuation of $2084.

Guardianship of John Sommer, insane. Petition filed for license to sell real estate. All parties interested required to appear on Monday Nov. 30 to show cause why license should not be granted.

Guardianship of Eva L. and Hattie C. Norman, minors. Guardianship closed of record as to Eva L. Norman.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

County Clerk Geo. A. Morgan issued licenses to wed to: John Chatterton 29, and Lillian Newman 18, James B. Adams 35, and Minto Campbell 22.

CORNELIUS.

Frank McGrimmis will soon have the addition to his barber shop completed.

Hancock's new house is nearly completed.

Rina Henderson who is employed in Portland Sundayed with her parents.

Will O'Connor, of this place returned from Portland this week.

Eli Poe is repairing his house this week.

Will Dickson who has been quite sick was taken to the hospital last Sunday.

Nellie Phillips, a daughter of A. A. Phillips, returned from Baker City last Monday evening after an absence of six weeks.

Cora Neff, a daughter of Mrs. A. A. Phillips, is visiting Cornelius for a few days from Portland.

C. W. Phillips came home this week accompanied by his daughter from Eastern Oregon.

W. R. Phillips, a nephew of D. T. Phillips, of Lind, Washington, formerly of this state, came into Cornelius last Thursday after an absence of 37 years. He is engaged at present in hotel business and expects to stay in Oregon ten days or two weeks.

SHERWOOD.

S. O. Haugen is about to complete a fine two-story residence on Sherwood Heights.

The Sherwood school is closed for three days owing to the Teachers' Institute at Hillsboro. Prof. Faul-ing and Miss Briggs are attendants from this place.

Dr. A. L. Saylor, his daughter Miss Viola and Miss Smoock were sight-seeing in the metropolis last Sunday.

Gardiner & Schneller bought out the butcher business of P. T. Meeks Tuesday. The new firm contemplates putting the business in up-to-date style to keep up with the growth of the town.

J. S. Carter who has resided in this community the last twelve years was taken to the poor farm a few days ago. Mr. Carter's health has been failing very fast for the past year and having no relatives his desire was to be taken to the poor farm.

Owing to fine weather and the people in general being very busy, the series of meetings held by the Congregationalists were not as well attended as anticipated.

The German Lutheran church at this place has just closed their annual conference, there being about twenty-five ministers in all present.

BEAVERTON.

The wedding of John Chatterton and Lillian Newman was solemnized last Saturday evening. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends.

Geo. W. Telford and son Ernest are home to spend the winter.

The Beaverton mill is obliged to run over time on account of their large local trade and their export orders.

The rock crusher began operation-

ing and Miss Briggs are attendants from this place.

Mr. McMonie, of Portland, is visiting his daughter Mrs. I. J. Raymond.

Mr. and Mrs. C. V. B. Russell Sundayed with J. D. Hibbs and family.

J. C. Miller has sold his hops and is now busy loading them in a car to be shipped at once. Most of the hops around here have been sold and brought a very good price.

Mrs. Woodrum has returned from an extended visit to Portland, Hood River and various other places, reporting a fine time.

FARMINGTON.

Henry Peterson, who is laid up with a broken leg, is getting along nicely.

C. Rehse has the carpenters and painters at work on his house, and when they are through, Mr. Rehse will have the nicest and best home in the neighborhood.

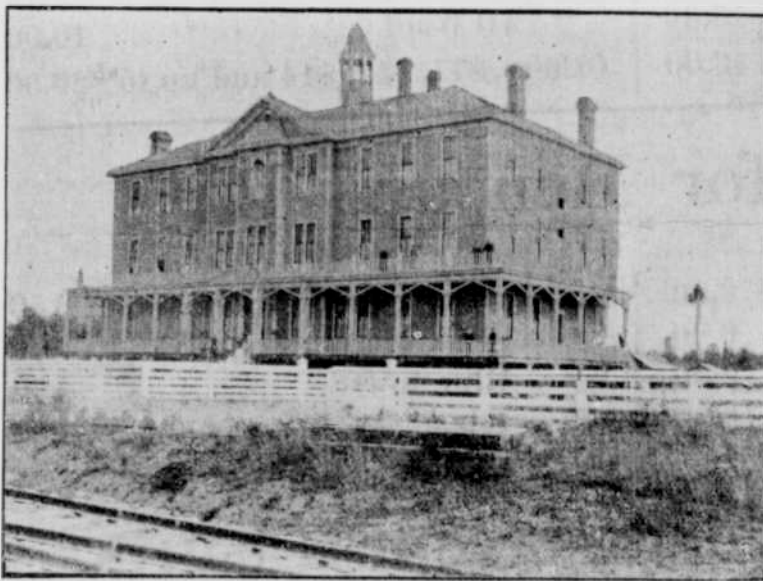

John Kama is laying cement walks all around his house which will still further improve the appearance of his place. We expect to see others follow this one good example which is worth all it cost.

Mrs. Fred Rood has returned from her week's vacation in Portland.

J. Q. Adams, who has been living on the J. Miller place the past year, has rented the John Robinson farm where he will make his home for the future.

S. Burkhalter is critically ill at his home. Hopes are entertained that

ST. MARY'S HOME TO TEACH TRADES.

The change of some time ago to keep boys only at the St. Mary's Home, near Beaverton, has been followed by the improvement at that time in mind, to establish a trade school where the pupils will be taught carpentry, masonry, plumbing, shoemaking, etc. under the direction of the Silesian Brother of San Francisco who have been very successful with their large institution along those lines and will furnish the instructors. About a hundred boys are now at the school and the section of land belonging to it has been cleared until there is ample room for teaching farming as well. The girls' branch of the Home was removed to St. Paul's in Marion County. The convent, however, has an academy for young ladies which it has been conducting since last January with great success.

last Saturday and will run for some time yet.

The improvement of the wagon road is quite noticeable already.

The Pomona Grange of this county met in Beaverton Hall Wednesday, Oct. 28. Many Grangers from various parts of the county were in attendance and a very enjoyable time was reported.

Samuel W. Hogate, of Blue Hill, Neb., was visiting friends and renewing old acquaintances in Beaverton this past week.

GASTON.

Miss Berta Jeter, of Portland, spent Sunday here with friends and relatives, returning Monday morning. Mrs. Boyd, of Patton Valley, has been spending the week in town, the guest of Mrs. Neal Brown.

Mrs. E. J. Ward and children visited in Cornelius Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scholfield, attending a family reunion and wedding anniversary.

Mr. Thomas, principal of the school, was called home Friday on account of the serious illness of his brother who is very low with typhoid fever. Miss Lena Parker is filling his place during his absence.

John McCormick, who has spent his vacation with Jos. Robinson has returned to his home in Portland.

Petitions are out for a free Rural Mail Route to cover the Farmington-Laurel country.

James Adams has been hauling a lot of brand new furniture to his new home. We suppose congratulations are in order and that we will soon have to scratch James' name off the bachelor's list.

James Adams, our genial blacksmith, and Minto Campbell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell, were united in marriage last Sunday at the home of the bride's parents by Rev. James Campbell. Both of the contracting parties are well and favorably known in our community and have the best wishes of all.

Master Jos. Ingram has been ill at his home for the last week or two.

The News is getting new friends with every issue, everybody likes it and everybody awaits anxiously the coming issue.

News and Weekly Oregonian, $2 a year.

TIGARVILLE.

The S. P. R. R. surveyors have just finished correcting their preliminary line near here and are waiting for further orders. It is expected the route will be approved and a survey completed.

H. B. Tigard will soon start his cider mill for the benefit of the public.

Revival meetings are being held in the Evangelical church and are conducted by a Modern disciple of Ham.

At the regular meeting of Butte Grange, on Wednesday, October 21st, Geo. W. Smith, a charter member and Mrs. Fannie K. Marion were married in the presence of the entire Grange and a few relatives, H. B. Tigard, Justice of the Peace, a brother of the bride, officiating. There were many useful and costly presents from the Grangers and friends. A dinner by the Sisters of the Grange was partaken of by all present. The festivities concluded with a ball in the evening attended by almost the entire community.

HAYWARD.

The young folks of Hayward made a great charivari last Sunday night on account of something new that is going to happen soon and Eva Kessler lost her cap while helping them.

Mr. Bothman, of Gresham, was visiting his friends at Hayward last Sunday and went back Tuesday.

Mrs. Lemmermann was visiting at Blooming last Sunday.

G. Kessler is building a new turnip cellar.

Katie Boos visited Vanderwal's, of Greenville, last Tuesday.

G. Kessler and family are digging potatoes with the plow. They are going to have about 350 sacks this year.

Mrs. John Becker, of Greenville, was visiting here last Sunday.

C. Lorenz and family are going to Buxton next Saturday night to take in the Basket Social.

GLENWOOD.

M. Sidwell and son Marie returned home Tuesday from Gales Creek, where they have been busy painting M. Parkin's new residence.

Mrs. Cora McCoy has been visiting with her cousin, Mrs. Geo. Stewart for the two past weeks.

Miss Virginia Varley has gone back to Forest Grove, to meet her sister, Mrs. C. M. Schofield, from Eugene.

M. Jno. Jordan, the forest fire warden was up from West Chehalis Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Purdin, who were employed at Hamblin's shingle mill have moved to Forest Grove; Mrs. Overhalt and daughter filling Mrs. Purdin's place as cook.

Henry Deitz met with quite an accident last week, bruising his back in falling from a tree, a distance of about 30 feet.

Roads are likely to be better this winter than last as they are being corduroyed in necessary places, and a few bridges repaired.

GALES CREEK.

Mr. and Mrs. Day, formerly of Forest Grove, moved to Portland last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Zane Haines were the guests of Mrs. Bateman over Sunday.

The Rev. H. Duprey preached at the A. C. Church last Sunday to a large audience. He was accompanied by his wife and baby.

Mr. Sam Wells has at last found a place to reside after several unsuccessful attempts to get a house in town. He found a house at Lyda's mill and decided to move in and work for Mat Hines this winter.

John Heisler Sr. came out from Portland Saturday night and spent Sunday with his family.

Mrs. Jim Burke starts for Hood River the last of this week to visit her brother Henry Williams,

School is progressing nicely; the children and parents seem to be well satisfied with their school-boy teacher. At the present writing Mr. Lilly is attending the institute at Hillsboro.

On Sunday last, Dan Willtrout killed a two year old bear in the mountains about three miles from the Gales Creek P. O.

BUXTON.

Last Tuesday, Oct. 27, Father O'Brien, O. P. of Portland, concluded a very successful mission at Buxton. The attendance was fair all three days and on Tuesday some were heard to express their regret that the mission was so soon over.

PROGRESS.

Several of the people of Progress attended the Sunday School Convention in Beaverton last Wednesday.

Ora Lee Price and wife of Portland spent Sunday with A. R. Fanno's family.

Mrs. A. R. Fanno is spending a few days in Portland.

Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. McKernon, Mrs. Reamer and several others spent Sunday with Mrs. James McKay.

The new minister, Mr. Clemo, preached his first sermon here on Sunday.

Miss Maude Hingley and Mrs. Geo. Blasser spent Sunday in Portland.

Chas. Erickson brought out a new organ on Saturday.

Robt. Stevens and Thos. Bradley are busy getting out their potatoes with a new potato digger they have just bought; they say it works very nicely.

Miss Viola Bauman spent Saturday and Sunday in Portland.

GARDEN HOME.

Peterson's wood-house roof caught fire from a chimney burning out and had gained considerable headway when discovered, but by hustling it was put out. The women were home alone but no one fainted.

Old Mr. DeHorne is at his son's.

Mrs. King was visiting her sister-in-law Friday.

The house in which Mr. Hoover is living is being repainted.

Mrs. Schanz, her son and his wife were visiting at John DeHorn's Friday.

Mr., Mrs. and Miss Turner were visiting Mrs. Nichols, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jespersen, of Scholls were visiting their friends in this place, also their son, Jesse Jefferson was in Garden Home.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Metzger were out from Portland looking after their property.

Mrs. Peterson and children and a cousin, Miss Spencer, visited the Jensens Sunday; also a couple of gentlemen from Portland were there.

Mr. King is digging potatoes for his brother at Raleigh.

Mr. Charles Lehman is moving in with his brother, at Progress.

HILLSBORO PERSONALS.

Prof. Horace Lyman of Astoria, who is on the St. Louis Exposition exhibit board, was in Hillsboro this week on business connected with the exhibit.

Mr. A. E. Booth and wife left for Idaho, Thursday evening, after a short visit with James Young, father of Mrs. Booth.

Mr. Gus Patterson, wife and child are visiting with relatives. Mr. Patterson, who is a son of Geo. W. Patterson, has sold out his business at Woodlawn, Oregon.

Miss Anna Rood, entertained friends Wednesday evening with a lunch party at the residence of Judge L. A. Rood. The Misses Curtis, Elizabeth Milne and Josie Schulerick, and Messrs. Watson, Oliver Curtis and Prin. B. W. Barnes were among the invited guests.

Next Sunday, Nov. 1st, Father O'Brien, O. P., of Portland, will hold services in the Catholic Church at Hillsboro.

News and Weekly Oregonian, $2 a year.