WOLVERINE SOAP.

Oh, wondrous soap, called Wolverine, 'Tis the very best the world has seen. It's sure to knock the blackest dirt From any fellow's socks and shirt. You use it once, you'll use it twice, And tell the world it's very nice. Dear ladies, when washing dirty clothes,

Use Wolverine, and then repose. Your cheeks will blossom like the rose. And if you're young, "he" will propose.

I find it's grand on dirty hands, And more, I haven't any doubt, It's used by Brownies in the night To make the silver moon shine out. Oh, Wolverine has come to stay, So dust and resin, get away; It beats all others out of sight. Dear public, now excuse my rhyme, Buy soap of Cheney every time. M. R. CHENEY, Exclusive Agent, Forest Grove, Oregon.
