

Councilman C. N. Johnson is around again after an illness of a week with sciatic rheumatism.

Your chance—75 pairs of shoes on hand must be sold, choice 50 cents per pair. Cash or trade.

E. Jacobson, Gales Creek, Oregon.

The Misses Lillian and Vida Parker have arranged for a dance to be given at Parker's Hall, at Greenville, April 16. Everybody invited.

We regret that it is necessary to carry our "County Correspondence" over till next week, but such is the case. However in next issue will appear a double amount.

Mr. John Pope, one of the Pope brothers of Nebraska, is here visiting for a few days. Mr. Pope is a civil engineer and has been engaged several years in California.

Elder Geo. F. Zimmerman will speak in the Christian church, Sunday morning at 11 a. m., subject, "Measuring Men by Christ." In the evening at 7:30 subject, "God's Anxiety for Men."

Forest Grove Man's Narrow Escape

Edward L. Naylor fell from a log in Gales Creek today while rafting, and narrowly escaped drowning. Mr. Naylor being an expert swimmer and not easily frightened, is the only reason that he reached the shore in safety.

Obituary

Miss Anna Johnson died at the home of Fred Watrous last evening, where she had been making her home while attending Tualatin Academy.

Deceased was a daughter of Mrs. James Bernard of Gales Creek, her father having died some years ago. She had been sick but a few days and not until a few hours before her death was she thought dangerous. At 7 o'clock last evening death came most unexpectedly and took her from our mid.t. She was but nineteen years old and in her second year at the Academy. Words cannot adequately convey the deep feeling of love and respect in which she was held by all who knew her. A loving disposition, always bright and cheerful and never discouraged. She was by nature a most faithful student, never known to shirk a duty, having won the highest esteem of her instructors and ever striving for a higher place in the educational world. She was loved for her kind and endearing disposition, as pure and refined as a lilly, unselfish and true to her ideas, she answered the call of her Heavenly Father with that purity of soul found only in those who have put their trust in the Maker.

She leaves to mourn her untimely death, a mother, three sisters and a brother.

Short services will be conducted from the residence of Fred Watrous at 9 o'clock Friday and the interment will be in the Gales Creek cemetery.

Marriage License

Edwin S. Gillis and Miss Mattie A. Newman were granted a marriage license on Tuesday by County Clerk, George A. Morgan.

County Court

A complaint has been sworn out against David J. Porter, by Emily J. Porter charging him with insanity.

Just Arrived

The large new supply of ladies and children's trimmed and untrimmed hats have just arrived. These goods were bought so they can be sold less than retail price. If you need a hat it will pay you to come and look at our stock. Thomas & James.
