

Local Happenings

Downs' pop corn—The best on earth.

Feed, hay, and grain at Martin's Feed Store.

Cow for sale— $\frac{7}{8}$  Durham. Enquire at the News office.

J. S. Clark was in Portland last Thursday on business.

Notions of all kinds, spring goods, everything the latest at the Magnet.

Best lots in Forest Grove for the money. Wagner addition. J. P. Wagner.

Finest line of garden and field seeds in the market at Headquarters.—T. A. Ritchey.

James and Mike Pope left Monday for a few days trip about the Willamette valley.

For sale—An a grade surry in first-class repair, at a bargain. Enquire of F. E. Waters.

Ex-Senator E. W. Haines is able to be out again after a serious illness during the past few days.

Rooms for rent—On Main street, ground floor and in good location. Enquire Brook & Son, Harness shop.

At Hillsboro last Thursday the democrats renominated J. H. Wirtz for Justice of the Peace and Ed. Dixon for Constable.

Mr. Fred Ward and family, of the Dalles, is visiting his father-in-law, J. H. Baker and his cousins, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. King.

Farmers—when you buy your field and garden seeds don't fail to call on T. A. Ritchie, at Headquarters. His line is complete with the very best.

The Fleur de Lis club met with Miss Manche Langley at her home on A street. An enjoyable evening was spent and dainty refreshments served.

Everybody who owns a foot of ground or rents for the summer should plant some roses. They are easily cultivated and add wonderfully to the looks of the city.

The band dance, which was to occur on Saturday evening, April 23, has been postponed to Saturday evening, April 30 at which time a most enjoyable evening will be spent.

Abbott & Son have received a large consignment of jewelry, also two new show cases which are very neat and attractive. The circular revolving case is the subject of much admiration.

Justice Wirtz holds the year's record of being the first to excavate and complete a cellar. It is located on his property in South Forest Grove on which he will move and remodel his home into a handsome residence.

Capt. Henry Mont and wife, of Silverton, were here this week for the purpose of locating. They are pioneers of Oregon and for a number of years Mr. Mont, was master of a well-known river steamer. Later he engaged in hop growing and has made a snug fortune in the industry. It is hoped that the favorable conditions of this locality will be an inducement for them to make this their future home.

The Forest and Stream Rod and Gun Club met at Roe & Buxton's store Friday evening and transacted considerable business among which was the adoption of the same rules to govern the local club as now govern the American Association. They placed the membership fee at $1.00 and also voted to accept as permanent grounds the plot belonging to Ed. Naylor, below the ball park.

Mr. S. Bacon, from Bacona, was in town Saturday. This is the first time he has been out during the winter. Mr. Bacon is manufacturing shingles and will have them on the market this summer. In his locality is one of the finest timber belts in the state and so far is untouched. It is certainly a good opening for a sawmill.

F. W. Bullock, who recently left here to return to his home in Hooper, Nebraska, writes from Baker City that the Short Line passengers are stranded at that place owing to the fact that three bridges are washed out between Baker City and Huntington.

Mr. Lewis, an old time friend of John Templeton, arrived here from Minnesota last Friday. He is here with the intention of purchasing property for a home, and is quite well pleased with Washington county and its climate.

Prof. J. M. Garrison left Tuesday for an extended business trip to Salem and other points throughout the valley. Prof. Garrison is one of the finest penmen on the coast and instruction under him is eagerly sought.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Brunner, of Portland, arrived in Forest Grove to visit with Mrs. Brunner's family, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Cronin and daughters. Mr. Brunner returned home Monday, remaining until Wednesday.

Weitzel & Christian have been taking stock the past week and find business satisfactory, so much so that they will increase their stock of goods to double its present value.

For Sale—The tower standing on the property opposite the Laughlin hotel. Reasonable price and a bargain. Call at Pacific Gallery.

Dr. Epplert, a well known physician of Colorado Springs, Colorado, is here visiting his brother, Thos. Epplert.

Prices that make you come again, at the Magnet.

Garden and feed seeds of all kinds at Martin & Co.

Needed—1000 persons to call and see the stock of racycles at Bellinger's.

We have the stock for you. Ladies' and childrens' furnishing goods. The Magnet.

Mr. and Mrs. Brickley, of Portland, are visiting at the home of Mr. and Elmer Pointer.

Miss Nola Geigory, of Portland, has been visiting her friend, Mrs. Jack Latta, for a few days.

If you are troubled with catarrh, sore throat, diseases of lungs, stomach or kidneys.—Consult Dr. Geiger.

Mrs. David Keene was called to Astoria Monday, to the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Clark, who is ill.

D. C. Latourette, a banker and attorney-at-law, of Oregon City, was in the Grove on business last Friday.

Wall paper. For spring brightness you need new wall paper in your home. We sell the latest designs. Roe & Buxton.

We have the finest prizes ever put out with baking powder. Come and investigate. Every can guaranteed. Weitzel & Christian.

Rev. L. T. Belknap and wife expect to start to California next Tuesday, to attend the great Missionary Convention at San Francisco and the General Conference at Los Angeles.

Messrs. Frank E. and R. M. Dooley, Jr., spent Sunday in the Grove visiting their father and mother, Mr and Mrs. R. M. Dooley. R. M. Dooley, Jr. will remain in the Grove for a few days' vacation.

Madamoselle La Course, late of Boston, with Mrs. G. Hartrampf have recently opened parlors in the Caples building where they are prepared to receive patrons for special scalp treatment, hair dressing, and manicuring. Madamoselle La Course is a graduate practitioner of Madame Mays Institute of Boston, and comes well recommended as a member of the profession. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to call in. Consultation free.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hartrey and daughter took their departure Monday, for their farm home in Cavalier county, North Dakota, after a seven months stay in Washington county. Mr. Hartrey purchased a small farm two miles from Forest Grove, where he intends making his home during the winters. He much prefers Oregon climate to that of North Dakota and will return in the fall after harvesting his immense wheat crop which usually averages 8,000 to 10,000 bushels. We regret losing this estimable family even for a few months, however, they will receive a hearty welcome on their return this fall.

Judge Hollis made a flying trip to Oregon City Tuesday evening.

Miss Hill of St. Helens Hall, Portland has been visiting her cousins, the Misses Chandler of this city.

Mark Noble, the hustling real estate agent looks carefully after the new comers. Ask Mark about the latest arrival.

Notice—We need the rule which some person with an overstock of unmitigated forgetfulness borrowed from our shop. Bring it in at once.

Brooks & Son.

J. F. Haynie & Son have two fine teams and if you have any team work call up Haynie & Son on the Hughes 'phone for any information you may desire. They will treat you right.

Mrs. Ruth Scott of Portland, was here a few days this week visiting her son Robt. Stevenson. Mrs. Scott is one of the early pioneers of Oregon, and resided in Forest Grove many years. She is exceptionally active for one of her age and now enjoys life far more than many much younger.

At the close of the regular meeting of Holly Circle, W. O. W. last Wednesday evening, the members passed into the dining room where a delicious supper was served. The table was beautiful with its snowy linen, shining silver, dainty white dishes and tall crystal vases filled with branches of cherry blossoms, sandwiches, cake, oranges, bananas, and coffee with an abundance of rich cream, satisfied those who were indifferent to the artistic effect alone.

C. M. Collins, the manager of Elmore Rice Violin Recitals, was in the city Wednesday endeavoring to arrange a date for Mr. Rice, who is one of the leading violinists in America. Mr. Collins did not obtain support from those who should have given it, and we thereby missed one of the musical treats of the season. Even though we have a fine violinist in our midst still we would better appreciate our own by hearing others, as each musician has his own individuality and technique.

Sunday Services April 24.

At the Christian church, the communion service will precede the morning preaching service. Subject, "A Common Sense Religion." Evening, "The Rich Fool." You are cordially invited to attend the services.

For Sale at a Great Bargain

160 acre stock ranch, with house, a large log barn, and other small buildings; 5 acres under cultivation and 10 or 12 under fence; small orchard, some other partly cleared; about 25 acres easily cleared. Place well watered by springs and small creek, 3 1/2 miles south west of Forest Grove. This place is well worth $1500. If taken inside of 30 days will sacrifice it for $1000. cash. Call on Dr. C. E. Geiger.