

Local Happenings

See Goff Bros' big ad in this issue.

Downs' pop corn—The best on earth.

Tiling and sewer pipe at T. A. Ritchey's.

Nicholson & Son has an exclusive grocery stock.

Any kind of lumber and finishing material at the old factory.

Mr. J. C. Woods is on a business trip to Portland and vicinity.

Cameras and supplies, everything you need at Dr. Hines' drug store.

Notions of all kinds, spring goods, everything the latest at the Magnet.

Ladies should not forget to see the new stock of summer hats at Mrs. A. E. Dixon's.

Columns and brackets made and general wood work done to order at the Old Factory.

Dr. Hines' drug store for cameras, paper and films and all kinds of supplies. Call in.

Planing, turning and band sawing, any kind of wood work done to suit you at the Old Factory.

Ernest Hubbert was a business passenger to Portland last Friday, returning on the evening train.

Miss Susie McKinny, from Hillsboro, is spending the week at the Grove, the guest of Mrs. L. M. Beebe.

Tuesday was a busy time for M. Peterson. Two car loads of furniture and hardware were retailed from his store on that day.

Call and see the car load of buggies at S. G. Hughes'. The only car load that has been shipped to Washington county. His prices will surprise you.

Ralph Bacon is wearing a pair of elegantly illustrated eyes, as the result of being in line with a curve thrown by one of the players on the local field last Saturday.

Attorneys Burke Tongue and Harry Bagley drove up from Hillsboro last Saturday evening on business and incidently took in the Band Boy's ball at Vert's Hall.

One of Forest Grove's fair daughters is in Portland visiting and receiving instruction in the gentle art of needlework, an art in which all gracious daughters should be proficient.

Rev. Daniel Staver has materially changed the appearance of his home near South Park. He has removed the house and barn from the corner and located them on an inside lot, rearranging the house and is otherwise improving it. The spirit of progress and activity can be seen on every side of our beautiful city.

Mr. Elmore Rice, a violinist of excellent ability, gave a concert at McMinnville last Tuesday evening. A large audience of the best musical people of the city greeted him, and showed their appreciation of his talent by repeated encores. The concert was of a high order comprising numbers by Beethoven, Handel, Mendelssohn, and Chopin, the favorite numbers being the Mazurka by Musin, Nocturne in G minor by Chopin, Canonetta by Godard, and the beautiful Serenade by Schubert. Mr. Rice's playing was a delight to all who attended. He has a complete mastery of his instrument, displays good technique, and plays with much feeling and expression. Several from Forest Grove attended this concert and our citizens made a mistake in not securing Mr. Rice for an appearance at this place.

John Brown, Jim Morgan and Art Shutes, of Hillsboro, and Dr. C. B. Brown of Portland, came up to Forest Grove Sunday in the handsome automobile owned by Dr. Brown. Dr. and Mrs. Brown have recently returned from an overland trip through California and Oregon and are making a short visit at Hillsboro before returning to business duties in Portland, where the doctor enjoys an extensive practice. It will be remembered that Mrs. Brown was one of the unfortunate victims of the Navine railroad wreck last fall.

In the absence of Pastor Belknap, of the M. E. Church, Rev. Arthur Nichols will conduct the morning services and Prof. Robertson will fill the pulpit in the evening.

We have the finest prizes ever put out with baking powder. Come and investigate. Every can guaranteed.

Weitzel & Christian.

Holcher & Patton's mill is being moved from its present location to a point near Cornelius where many thousand feet of logs await them.

Women should not read this and forget that Mrs. Dixon has the finest assortment of ladies and misses hats in the city.

Wall paper. For spring brightness you need new wall paper in your home. We sell the latest designs. Roe & Buxton.

If you are troubled with catarrh, sore throat, diseases of lungs, stomach or kidneys.—Consult Dr. Geiger.

His Imperial Majesty—The baby, should have one or those elegant carriages at Roe & Buxton's.

Farmers—For bargains in wire nettings, hardware, tools, etc, see W. R. Hicks.

Captain Rackett.

Fancy dishes at Nicholson & Son's.

Shingles and cedar posts at T. A. Ritchey's.

Feed, hay, and grain at Martin's Feed Store.

The local sports are catching some nice strings of fish these days.

Every Sunday—You can enjoy a splendid dinner at the Colonial.

The summer term of school begun Monday with Mr. Falting as teacher.

Standard ranges and Moore steel King stoves at Goff Bros.

Mr. Clark of Newberg, an intimate friend of J. T. Loyd, is here visiting this week.

Farmers—Call for prices on seeds, shingles and cedar posts. T. A. Ritchey.

Our good natured caterer, Col. O. R. Downs, was doing business in the metropolis Saturday.

Redding Standard Bicycle, the only wheel that goes 50 miles an hour at S. G. Hughes'.

Do you know—That the Colonial serves an elegant Sunday dinner? Take your friend there to dine.

The Lewis & Clark Club will hold a regular meeting at the home of Mrs. B. O. Rogers at 3 p. m. on Monday afternoon.

A fine shampoo and face massage will make you feel younger. Madam LaCourse is a specialist in this work. Call and see her.

We will buy your pork, beef, mutton and farm products, and we will sell you seeds and farm implements. Wagons and buggies. W. R. Hicks.

Goff Bros. have added a commodious ware room to their store on Main street. The large consignment of goods they are receiving makes their stock the finest in the city.

Forest Grove Prohibition Alliance No 44, will hold their annual election Friday May 6th, 8 p. m., at Hollinger's hall. Let members be present and others interested come. L. L. Hollinger, sec'y.

Mrs. George Dorsey, of Dayton, Oregon, mother of Mrs. Rev. Belnap, of this place, died at her home last Tuesday. Mrs. Belnap has been with her for some time and H. V. Belnap, left Wednesday for Dayton.

Cut price on Monopole canned fruits and vegetables. Last September before the advance in prices we bought about two tons of these goods, we own Monopole goods for less and therefore can afford to sell them for less than any firm in Forest Grove. Every article in our store for sale for less than retail price. Remember you will pay more when we are out.—THOMAS & JAMES.

Buxton
This community had a sad loss last Saturday in the death of Mr. Crawford. He was sick several days with pneumonia. His funeral Sunday was well attended, and he felt deeply the loss of so good a friend and neighbor.

Road Supervisor Adam Smith is beginning some permanent improvement on the roads here.

Vine Ornduff is getting his mill nearly in shape for a good run.

Dilley
Mr. and Mrs. Odell, of Forest Grove, visited at the home of George Sunday.

Clifford Taylor left Monday for Tillamook.

Oscar Shoegren, of Portland, Sunday with his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson, Gales Creek, spent Sunday here.

Newt Hoover, of Hillsboro, with his mother, Saturday.

Hillsboro
C. B. Brown and wife are home with Mr. Brown's mother. They just returned from a trip through California with an automobile.

Ira Hoard, son-in-law of W. H. Bagley Sr., was badly hurt by a fall Monday while riding horseback at the Bagley place.

The dwelling house occupied by P. Atkinson, city marshal, was partially destroyed by fire on Monday noon. Most of the goods were saved.

The Hughes Telephone Company has put in a switch-board at Seaside Reasoner as operator, at Seaside store.

Ira Ingram broke his leg Sunday, while working on a farm east of Hillsboro.

Miss Lena Johnson, of Portland, the guest of Miss Bessie Schmitt, over Sunday.

W. R. HICKS

PAINTS, ETC.

If you want the best White Lead, Paints, Oils, Brushes, Mixed Paints. W. R. Hicks sells them.

DOORS & WINDOWS

You can see by the quality that we have Doors and Windows at a low price. W. R. Hicks.

NAILS! NAILS!

Nails and Builders' Hardware. Also Heavy Hardware for the People.

W. R. HICKS