DR. V. L. DIMMICK

Up stairs over Russel's Store

The Dentist

Main Street, Forest Grove, Oregon.

Mrs. Josephine Patton spent Sunday with her parents at Gales City.

M. M. Smith, the artistic finisher, is engaged upon the Forbis house east of Dilley.

L. Morgan has bought the John Edwin home with one acre of fruit trees, just east of town.

M. Beebe and wife were visitors at the home of Mr. Beebe's parents at Greenville Sunday.

Dr. Sanford, of Glencoe, is still a very sick man. His many friends hope for his rapid recovery.

J. Backus of Orleans, Nebraska, arrived Thursday night to make his home on the famous Tualatin plains.

Mr. H. S. Turner, well known to all Kansas people living here, arrived Saturday from the east and expects to locate somewhere in the valley.

Rev. Daniel Staver has sold to Mr. [Name], the 150x200 lot from which he moved his house last week. It is a corner and Mr. Milne will at once erect a fine residence. Consideration $750.

Harold Adams had his eye seriously injured by being accidentally hit with a piece of dirt, which adhered to the eye. Medical assistance was obtained and it is thought the sight will not be destroyed.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Buxton are the most successful "artists" with the fishing rod of the season. Last Saturday they succeeded in landing over fifty fine trout. J. S. has succeeded, by his wonderful skill with the rod, in working up quite an enviable reputation among the sporting fraternity.

The ball game Sunday May 8, at the Forest Grove diamond, by the Torpedoes of Portland, and the Grove team, resulted in a 2 to 1 victory for Portland. The game was interesting throughout, but was lost through rank errors on the part of our boys owing to want of practice. The game resulted in a score of 4 to 8. Batteries: Barnard-Goetter; Hughton-Harndere. Time, one hour and forty minutes.

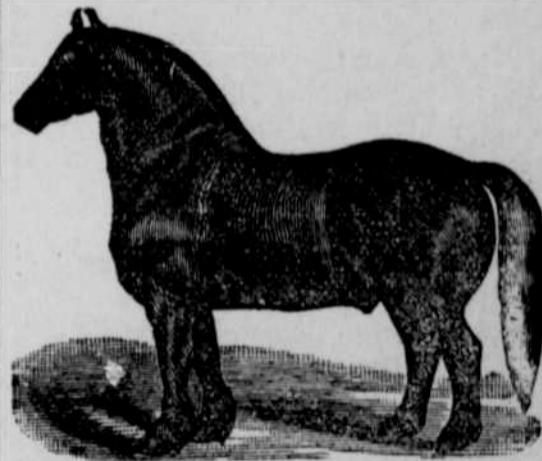

Few of our townspeople are aware that we have with us an expert in the art of curing and packing meats for the fancy and regular trade. Such is a fact however. He worked for years in Armour & Co's houses as an expert along these lines and he also has secret processes of his own which cannot be equalled. The first consignment was recently taken from the process, and nothing finer in the line of bacon and ham can be produced. This is none other than Mr. Johnson, of the firm of Johnson & McNamer.

The Forest Grove base ball team has reorganized this week. The team is now much stronger than heretofore and some good games can be expected in the near future. With the present line-up and a reasonable amount of practice, they are sure to win the majority of the games to be played. They now have a number of dates made to meet the best amateur teams in the state. The return game will be played with the Torpedoes on Sunday, May 15, at the Forest Grove ball park.

Dr. W. M. Pollock and Wilber McDowney took their departure for Buxton Saturday morning, preparatory to a two day's recreation. They were well supplied with a full equipment of fishing tackles, salmon eggs, flies, etc., and to judge from their lay-out should have made arrangements for an extra vehicle to transfer their big catch back to town. However, they arrived in the Grove Monday and have a very interesting and romantic "fish story" to tell. Wilbur's reputation as a rodsman has long been established and his success under favorable circumstances is almost a sure thing, but his failure to land his game this time is still a mystery. As for doctor Bill, any one who knows him can diagnose his case and can easily comprehend his affliction. Thus the News would advise that the next time they go fishing they should not go too close to the Buxton school. To catch a good mess of trout you must have plenty of water.
