The semi-annual meeting of the Washington County Veteran Association was wellattended and everything passed off pleasantly. The meeting convened at 10 a. m. After the usual opening exercises with a speech of welcome by Mayor Talbot and some music by a volunteer choir composed of people of Cornelius, the business of the association was taken up. The principal matter for consideration was to decide at what place and time the annual reunion should be held. A cordial invitation from Mayor Hoge of Forest Grove, was read by the secretary, also proposals from Mr. E. Naylor generously offering to move the grandstand to a greater distance from the part of the Grove conceded to speculative part of the proceedings, that the exercises of the Veterans might not be disturbed. Substantially the same offers were made verbally by Hillsboro comrades, after having conferred with the city authorities there. It was finally decided to hold the reunion at Hillsboro, as it has been several years since it was held there. After partaking of a sumptuous dinner gotten up by the ladies of Cornelius, quite a lengthy programme was rendered, which was interspersed with speeches by Mr. E. Hawks, editor of the News, Prof. M. C. Case, Elders Wilkins and Anderson, pastors of the Methodist and Advent Christian churches of Cornelius. The thoughts advanced were patriotic and elevating and all speeches (although short) were interesting. There were 41 Veterans that registered and a goodly attendance of the ladies auxiliary, and we are glad to say quite a large attendance of citizens. The Veteran's work is not forgotten, that the Nation is what it is. Its wonderful development, its possibilities for the future, its influence over other nations, is owing to the fact that we are not a divided people.
