

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Bellingher will keep your bicycles in repair.

Art squares beat carpet.—Roe & Buxton's.

Latest racycles at the lowest price at Bellingher's.

Cheney the tinner. You always get the brand of tin you bargain for.

Don't forget the ice cream social at Dilley, Wednesday evening, June 1st.

A fine lot, city water, shade and side-walk, and best location. Enquire at News office.

P. H. Buxton of Buxton, Oregon, will deliver you shingles. The very best of cedar. Write him for prices.

Mrs. Stephens, of Amity, is in the Grove visiting her daughters, Miss Myrtle Stephens and Mrs. G. B. Hardin.

Ladies—Have your hair dressed in the latest fashion, it costs you nothing for advice at the parlors of Mademoiselle La Course.

You are invited to call at the parlors of Mademoiselle LaCourse, up stairs in Caples building. Manicuring and massage. Special scalp treatment.

A good roof saves trouble. P. H. Buxton, of Buxton, Oregon, will deliver to you first class cedar shingles, either cut or sawed. Write him for prices.

Earl B. Hawks has sold his house near South Park to Stephen Morgan, through the agency of H. G. King. Mr. Morgan will take possession at once and make Forest Grove his permanent home.

We regret to announce that Madamoselle La Course will close her parlors in the Caples block, Saturday, June 4th. She has business in the East which will necessitate her departure in the near future.

John B. Beal, who has been suffering from an attack of pneumonia the past two months, left Tuesday for Arizona where he goes to recuperate his health—his wife and sister will accompany him during the summer.

In last week's issue an article was published mentioning the thrift of a successful dairyman, giving the name as W. H. Nelson, which was a typographical error, for the party is W. H. Wilson, well-known as "Billy" Wilson, of Gales Creek.

There will be no preaching services Sunday morning at the Christian church on account of union Memorial services at Marsh Hall. Sunday school will be held as usual. Preaching services in the evening, subject, "The Saints in Caesar's Household." A cordial welcome extended to all.

Mrs. Arthur Downs and baby, of Portland, visited O. R. Downs and family over Sunday, returning Tuesday.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hunley of Gales City, May 21, a 10-pound son. Dr. Gieger, the attending physician, reports mother and child doing nicely.

J. T. Fletcher has opened an office next door to Peterson's Hardware store and will engage in real estate, brokerage, surveying and transferring of real estate.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Smith, of Verouqua, Wisconsin, arrived in our city last Saturday. They will permanently locate here and Mr. Smith will engage in the carpenter business. He is a first class mechanic and we bespeak success for him in this vocation.

H. P. Stowell, of Buxton, was in town Tuesday, marketing his stock of cedar posts, which is the finest lot in the valley and is selling them at 4 cents each at his ranch. Parties who intend building fences should write him at once for orders to be delivered.

S. T. Crow and son left last week for British Columbia, where he will engage in practice as a veterinary. Mr. Crow, well known here, is one of the best veterinary surgeons in the state, and has been very successful in many difficult cases. With his extensive experience his success is assured where he goes.

On Monday night was given the last performance by the Daley Comedy Company in Vert's Hall and the votes were closed which were to decide which was the most popular young lady of our town. Miss Mae French is the fortunate young lady and the proud recipient of the gold watch given by the company. She received 1476 votes.

The school board met and elected the following teachers for the ensuing year: Zelfhia Knight, Susie Jackson, Hattie Starrett, Oral Beal, Elva Baker, Emma Gordon, Edna Jensen. Emma Gordon has been teaching in North Yamhill and resigns a place there to come to the Grove. Miss Edna Jensen has also been newly appointed. The Misses Jackson, Beal, Baker and Starrett were re-appointed to their respective grades having given universal satisfaction.

At the earnest request of Post Commander Baker, Past Senior Commander F. S. Barnes will conduct the Post services on Memorial Day, next Monday. As the final services of the day will commence promptly at 10 o'clock in Marsh Hall, it is more than probable that they can be closed before the commencement of the athletic contest which takes place on the campus that afternoon. While it is to be regretted that this contest takes place on this day, no blame for it can be placed against the authorities of our college.

Fancy tea and coffee at Nicholson's & Son's.

Garden and feed seeds of all kinds at Martin & Co.

Money to loan on real estate. Enquire at News office.

Fresh banquet wafers and other fancy picnic goods at Nicholson & Son's.

Daily—We will pay you the highest cash price for hides and wool. Johnson & McNamer.

Spring is here—and you should see the elegant art squares for the floor at Roe & Buxton's.

Mr. J. N. Lockwood, who has been quite sick, is improving under the care of Dr. Rentz.

Call and see the car load of buggies at S. G. Hughes'. The only car load that has been shipped to Washington county. His prices will surprise you.

Mrs. Nora Barrett, of Portland, who was elected president of the State Grand Lodge of the Rebekahs at Astoria, last week is a cousin of Mrs. G. H. King, of this place.

Bargains—In order to reduce our stock for removal to our new location on the east side of Main street, we will trade goods for dollars or cents for a very small profit until we have moved. L. L. Hollinger.

The suit of Noble vs. Fugua, which was brought to a close Tuesday afternoon in the court of Justice Wirtz, resulted in the jury bringing in a verdict of no cause of action. The case was hotly contested by Hoffman & Welch for the plaintiff Noble, and Attorney Harry Bagley of Hillsboro, for the defendant.

Miller, the dentist, is an "ad" appearing in the Capt. Racket program and when Charley's friends ask him how he became a dentist he replies that he sells Nervine to get people ready to meet dentist No. 2. We had not thought of that but if the dread can be taken away by taking Nervine we are ready to be converted before seeing dentist No. 2.

The Memorial Services will be held May, 29th at the Congregational Church at 11 o'clock a. m. The G. A. R. and W. R. C. are requested to meet at Masonic Hall at 10:30 and march in a body to Marsh Hall. Everybody invited to attend. On Decoration Day, May 30th we will meet at Masonic Hall at 9:30 leaving for the Naylor cemetery at 10 o'clock, where the soldier's graves will be decorated and other exercises held. School children and all citizens are cordially invited to march with us. We will then return to Masonic Hall for dinner and at 12:45 o'clock we will re-assemble at the same hall and march to Marsh Hall and listen to an address by Rev. Arthur Nichols.

By order of COMMITTEE.

Dr. Wm. M. Pollock,
DENTIST.

Office over Bazaar, Forest Grove, Ore.
All work in the dental line. Regulating children and adult teeth. Prepared to work at night, must be by appointment.

Dr. V. L. DIMMICK, Dentist

Upstairs, Wagner Building,
Forest Grove, Oregon

W. N. SEARS

Proprietor of

The Leading Barber Shop.

Up-to-date Hair-cutting and Shaving. Laundry agency.

Main Street. Forest Grove

E. B. Rentz, M. D.

Physician and Surgeon
Office over Abbott's
Jewelry Store. . . .

Both Phones. Forest Grove, Ore.

City Barber Shop . .

Baths. Laundry Agency. Situated on Pacific Ave., Forest Grove.

. . A. J. Wirtz, Proprietor

E. W. HAINES, Banker

(Established in 1898)

General banking business transacted. Drafts issued on the principal cities of the world. Interest paid on time deposits. Conveyancing. Insurance. Notary Public always in.

Farmers and Merchants

Bank of Forest Grove,

Capital, $25,000.

Transacts a general banking business. Correspondent Wells Fargo & Co. Bank

W. H. Williams & Son

Headquarters for

Lumber in Rough

R. F. D. Route 1, FOREST GROVE, OREGON

O. R. Downs Tobacco and Cigars, Etc.

Candies and Fruits of all kinds, Soda Water, Bread, Pies and Cakes, Hot Pop-Corn and Peanuts.

Sunday Oregonian for Sale Here

FOREST GROVE, OREGON

Brooks & Son

Can suit you. They have a complete stock of Harness, Whips, Lap Robes. Repairing a specialty. Call in.

Pacific Avenue