The base ball game Sunday between the Forest Grove team and Allen and Lewis, was a farce throughout, choked up with errors credited to our home team. The only commendable features of the game was the work of Drew, Via and Davis. Drew pitched one of the prettiest games ever played on the grounds, and has credit for fanning out 14 men with six assists. The lineup of our team was terribly weakened by the non appearance of Cook and Eylesan, two very strong in-field men. Next Sunday the boys will play the Torpedoes of Portland.
