A good roof saves trouble. P. H. Buxton, of Buxton, Oregon, will deliver to you first class cedar shingles, either cut or sawed. Write him for prices.

The finest line of china and glass ware is that at the store of M. Peterson. The very latest in style and design and going at prices that you can afford to make your table attractive.

Sunday services at the Christian Church. Preaching at 11 a. m. Subject, "The Necessary Fruit of Christianity." Evening 8:00 p. m. "On the Wrong Side of the Gulf." Special music will be rendered at both services. A full attendance of church members is requested at morning service, as some business will come before the church. Every body cordially invited to attend these services.

Mr. Sikes and others who deliver fruit to this city are having some difficulty with trespassers, some of them have been recognized. One young man with a small black dog was seen by Rev. Grubb, through a field glass and thereby recognized at close range just as the young man took to the woods thinking he was about to be shot at by the reverend. It seems strange that people cannot enjoy the results of their own labor without molestation and we trust that hereafter the depredations will not be repeated.
