Mrs. B. F. Blood, of Carlton, formerly a resident of Forest Grove, has been visiting at her brothers', C. W. and H. G. Fitch, over Sunday. Mrs. Blood intends soon to leave for Ogden where her son is living. He has just completed his studies and graduated from the seminary at Rochester, N. Y., and has accepted a call to the First Baptist Church, at Ogden, at a salary of $1,000.00 a year.

Charley Neep and wife are up from Eufalia visiting Mrs. Neep's mother, Mrs. Tibbits.

H. S. Sturdevant and son assisted by Chas. Shiffer, are putting up the new store building for Mrs. Matthies just east of Bunning's livery barn.

We observe that there is a line of new telephone poles being set toward Blooming and we are told that Blooming, Hergerts and Hendricks mill are to be furnished with this modern convenience.

Will Rogers is hauling lumber for a new house, which he intends building on the corner lot west from the M. E. parsonage.

The Base Line Co. has put on several more hands and are rushing business. We are waiting patiently to hear that whistle. They are running in dressed lumber from Scroggins creek, and as soon as they start there will be no difficulty in securing lumber that will fill the bill of the most fastidious carpenter.

Banks

N. C. Shipley is building a large barn, Wm. P. Beard at the helm.

J. L. Banks has made his surroundings more attractive by the painter's white touch upon his house.

Banks shows forth the same progressive spirit as manifested all over this beautiful country of ours. J. C. Schulmerich is building an addition to his already capacious barn, Benjamin Dooley being the contractor.

The creamery is running at this place under the management of Herman Thurner, with an out put of about 18 boxes of butter per week, which always commands good prices.

Messers L., Frank and Buff Creps, and Al. Bledsoe returned this week from a six week's trip down the Columbia where they had been peeling cascara bark. They report a successful trip, gathering about four tons of the bark.

Miss Minnie Schneider was the guest of Miss Florence Hurness, Sunday.

Carl Banks is visiting for a few days at his father's home.

The Banks base ball team gave Glencoe a hard fight Sunday, being beaten only a few scores on the last round. Practice is all the boys need.

John Friday will soon begin the erection of a "cottage we call our own." Then John will fully appreciate the term "Home, Sweet Home." Joys be yours John, is the wish of your humble scribe.

Glencoe

The Grange on Pumpkin Ridge held a picnic at the Arcade school house, it being Children's Day. A very interesting program was rendered. J. H. Davis read a very interesting piece. Miss Eva Cypher recited a poem entitled "June," and Mrs. S. Harvery recited a piece. It being open meeting, quite a few visitors were present. Those from this place were Mr. and Mrs. A. Gordon and daughters Anna and Nellie, Mrs. George Helleire, and Miss Eugenie Sanford.

Dr. Connell of Portland, spent Sunday with his brothers on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Walter spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Walter of Portland.

Mrs. Wood of Hillsboro, is visiting with her daughter Mrs. Joseph Connell, this week.

Dr. and Mrs. Sanford spent Tuesday in Forest Grove.

W. F. Hallenbeck, who resides four miles north of Mountindale, has been very ill but is recovering.

Mr. G. F. Helleire is building a cellar for W. F. Hollenbeck, of above Mountindale.

No trace of the robbers who broke into Mays Bros. store last week, has been discovered.
