The G. A. R. State Encampment held at Hood River last week, was one of the best and most successful meetings ever held in the state. Over 300 old veterans registered during the week. Those who attended from Forest Grove were: O. R. Downs, H. T. Gordon and wife, Wm. Leach and wife, J. N. North and wife, Dave Keen, John Faber, G. C. Thomas, R. W. McNutt, Col. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. John Anderson, Mrs. Haverstraw, Miss Anna Peterson and the Misses Lota and Nora Laughlin.

Miss Myrtle Porter, who has been teaching the Roy school east of Greenville, closed a very successful term last Friday, with one of the most interesting programs ever rendered at a country school. The drills, recitations and dialogues showed that the teacher as well as pupils had faithfully worked to make this entertainment the social success that it was. Miss Porter's faithful efforts in this district are in evidence by the marked improvement her pupils have made during the term. It is with deep regret on the part of both pupil and parent that she will not be with them another year.
