

FOREST GROVE IN BIOGRAPHY

N. L. ATKINS:—To go to press without a sketch of Mr. N. L. Atkins our very popular young station agent and band master would be unexcusable indeed. He has been with the company five years and is an esteemed and valued employee. He has been located at the Grove one year and a half. As band master his untiring labors are highly appreciated by the citizens of Forest Grove. He is a young man of rare business talent and executive ability whose record is gilded in all the relations of life and we take pleasure in according him generous mention in this edition.

The Poet has well said:

Though I could sketch from pole to pole
And grasp creation in my span,
I'm but a clod without the Soul
The MIND'S the Standard of the MAN."

Success is where you can apply the greatest amount of knowledge enthusiastically, enchantingly. Or by placing yourself in unison with the Creator and then assisting the RACE to do the same.

PACIFIC UNIVERSITY:—No institution in the entire West or for that matter, in the Union can boast of a better record among its graduates than the Pacific University of Forest Grove. In every noble calling and profession throughout the world representatives of this institution are filling positions of honor, trust, responsibility and marked usefulness. It is with pleasure the writer bespeaks a word to prospective students on behalf of the Pacific University. The superior advantages for a well rounded education must be considered by every student entering college. Forest Grove is an ideal college town. The professors are scholars and devout men of the highest ideals and principles. Students desiring to enter this fall will do well to write Dr. Ferrin, president, for their catalogue. Space will not permit details but we shall give the Pacific University and Tualatin Academy the place of honor in this edition.

HOFFMAN & WELCH:—Are two of the best known attorneys in Washington county. For advice and legal questions they stand in the best of repute. As practitioners they have attained a positive degree of eloquency. By their untiring efforts and successful work, their practice has increased substantially. Both are gentlemen of the best characters and are among the most progressive citizens of Forest Grove

Cornelius

Those of our people who attended the A. C. Conference at Gaston, returned home Monday as the meeting closed Sunday night. All report a good meeting. There were eight ministers present: Elders E. H. Carmen, of Noonsack, E. P. Hayward, W. G. Dunlop and Robert George, of Seattle, B. F. Winterstein, of Goldendale, J. Spencer Tilton, of Bandon, Coos Co. C. A. Meade, of Carlton and M. M. Anderson, of Cornelius. The same conference officers were re-elected with the exception of Vice-President, J. A. Bryan, of Dilley, being elected to fill that place.

Married at the home of Joseph Bryan, of Dilley, Ora Van Orsdel and Miss Mollie Bryan. Elder M. M. Anderson, of Cornelius, officiating. The bride is well known to many of our people as a young lady of good judgement, consequently we extend our congratulations to both, with the wish that they may be enabled to overcome all obstacles.

On Sunday, June 26th, at the home of the bride's father, J. H. Cornelius, of this city, Marion Tibbits and Miss Grace Cornelius. Rev. Wilkins performed the ceremony, before quite a number of relatives and friends.

East Gaston

People are still looking for that rain.

L. Shogren and family have moved to the Grove taking their last load Friday. They will be greatly missed in their old neighborhood as they are valued friends and neighbors, but what is our loss is others' gain.

The old Indian friends of A. Hill paid them a visit last week bringing over a lot of baskets and taking back cherries.

E. J. Shotwell went down to Portland Wednesday to attend the Teacher's Association.

E. W. Paget on Tuesday received a lot of ready made window frames for his new house.
