Mr. McGill and family came Saturday evening to make Forest Grove his future home. Mr. McGill was in the city a few years ago and sold his blacksmithing business to Ballard & Lenneville and returned to his former home in southeastern Ohio. The rigorous climate made it desirable to return with his family to the coast, so he intends to make his home with us again. Being a royal good fellow a host of friends welcome him back and are glad to hear that he will arrange to open a shop soon.
