

Local Happenings

Bath tubs—the very best at Goff Bros.

Mr. Davis' little girl of Buxton, is quite sick.

"Water melons on de vine"—Sold by McNamer & Johnson.

Cheney the tinner. You always get the brand of tin you bargain for.

Henry Hannon's family of Buxton, are sick this week with measles.

Weitzel & Christian handle choice groceries. Everything for the family use.

Hon. B. F. Purdy of Scoggins valley, was at Hillsboro Monday on business.

Carriage trimmings of any kinds and carriage repairing, at Stribich's shop, Old Factory.

Columns and brackets made and general wood work done to order at the Old Factory.

The Watrous & Allen Co.'s Best Blend coffee has found favor within a host of homes.

A fine lot, city water, shade and side-walk, and best location. Enquire at News office.

Mrs. Brunner, of Portland, is visiting with her parents here, Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Cronin.

Cheap—A fine 8 year old horse, well broke to drive or ride, must be sold. Call at News office.

Mr. J. K. French and family with friends left Tuesday for a two week's outing on the coast at Netarts.

I. Baldwin, city, is reported as very sick, taking to his bed suddenly Monday noon, and is in a critical condition.

The dance and ice cream social at Vert's hall last Friday evening given by the band boys, was a very pleasant social event.

Mr. Stephen Morgan and family departed Tuesday for Puget Sound, where they will visit friends and relatives for a few weeks.

A good roof saves trouble. P. H. Buxton, of Buxton, Oregon, will deliver to you first class cedar shingles, either cut or sawed. Write him for prices.

K. N. Staehr returned from his sojourn at Newport last Saturday. Mrs. Staehr and daughters Anna and Lyda, left Monday for the above place, where they will spend a few weeks in recreation.

The News force acknowledges their thanks to Mr. John Heisler for a box of fine Royal Ann cherries, which he presented to them Monday. Mr. Heisler's ranch in Gales Creek valley is one of the most productive in the county, and its fertile acres produce nearly every thing common to the climate.

Art squares beat carpet.—Roe & Buxton's.

Shingles, the best on the market at the right price, at T. A. Ritchey's.

Farmers—For bargains in wire nettings, hardware, tools, etc, see W. R. Hicks.

For Sale—Fine horse, good driver, gentle and true. McNamer & Johnson.

Wilson Bolby, a former resident of Forest Grove, now of Nez Perce is here visiting friends.

Miss Mary Tichenor, of Claskanie, is here this week visiting Mrs. Dr. Hines and Miss Alice Cronin.

Attorney L. L. Langley of Portland, was out the first part of the week in attendance at the county court at Hillsboro.

Mrs. E. E. Mink, of Forest Grove and Mrs. D. Feour, of Dilley, go to the coast this week where they will enjoy a summer outing.

Your hair dressed in latest style and special scalp treatment. Mademoiselle La Course, residence corner 4th and Pacific Avenue.

Pendleton White Satin flour, warranted in every way or money refunded, if not satisfactory. Nicholson & Son, Main Street.

If you die you beat it and if you live you beat it. Modern National Reserve policies give fullest protection at lowest cost. Get one.

Invitations were received in the city by friends of Miss Minta Bayles, who formerly resided here, to her marriage July 21, to Mr. Dudley W. Stephens, of Portland.

If you intend buying hardware you should call and see the most complete stock in the valley. It costs nothing, see for yourself. Goff Bros. are up-to-date merchants.

Haynie & Son have two fine teams and do all kinds of team work at reasonable rates. Contracts preferred. Independent 'phone. They use everybody right.

Estrayed:—A liberal reward will be given to learn the whereabouts of the following stock: 6 head sheep with lambs. Sheep marked with slit in left ear, part marked with slit in right ear. When last seen were in pasture 2 miles south of Cornelius. Information to J. Dixon, Cornelius, or News office.

The contract was let last Friday by our hardware merchant, M. Peterson, for the painting and decorating of his new residence. Frank Wagner is the successful artist and as this is the finest residence yet built in Forest Grove, Frank will no doubt put forth his best efforts to surpass any work that has ever been done in his line in the city.

Fancy tea and coffee at Nicholson & Son's.

Take a vacation and buy your sporting goods, camp stove and amunition at Goff Bros.

Shingles—none better anywhere at Ritchey's at right prices. Tile and posts at Ritchey's.

Do you know—That the Colonial serves an elegant Sunday dinner? Take your friend there to dine.

Mademoiselle La Course. The expert chiropodist and hair dresser at residence, corner 4th and Pacific Ave.

Send your friend to the St. Louis Fair. Coupons given with cash purchases at the firms mentioned on another page.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McPherson in company with Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Jackson, left for the coast Tuesday for a ten days outing. They go overland via Tillamook to enjoy the delight of a camping trip for which the route is noted.

Some of the finest cherries brought to this market were those raised by Mr. David, on David's Hill, two miles north of town. The crop of Kentish cherries are now ripe and one day last week he marketed 800 pounds. Mr. David's crop of grapes is said to be excellent, in fact better than for the past ten years.

If you doubt the old saying that "Men are but boys grown older" just go down to "th' swimmin' hole" one of these fine evenings and watch some of our staid business men as they prance up and down the sands in undress uniform and hear them as they plunge, howling, into the water, and you will be ready to believe the old saw.

Mr. J. H. Brien, of Dickenson, N. D., friend of our townsmen Messrs. Ballard & Lenneville, has purchased the blacksmith and wagon shop at Dilley, owned by Mr. Gray. Mr. Brien comes with the best of credentials as a citizen and a first-class mechanic. He will add new stock to his shop and be prepared to do all kinds of work. Those needing work in his line should call on him at his shop at Dilley, they will find him a good workman, clever and accommodating.

Fred Watrous and family, of the firm of Watrous & Allen, of this city, are now at Newport for the summer and have recently written to friends here that they are having an extremely pleasant vacation there and have called on Hon. Thos. Roe and family who are now occupying their cottage, which was recently built and is one of the most comfortable on the Coast. It is neatly arranged and tastefully furnished, possessing every needed comfort. Its location is such that the view from the veranda is grand. Here Mr. and Mrs. Roe are enjoying the real pleasures in their old age which they have so justly earned.

L. L. Morgan has accepted a position as instructor in the Greenville school.

Keep the flies off your cows. So Bos So and spray pumps. Martin's Feed Store.

Good bread made from Pendleton White Satin Flour, Warranted the best. Nicholson & Son.

The big warehouse at Gaston is nearing completion under the efficient direction of contractor Nauffts.

Leslie and Pigeon St. Clair are enjoying a few days of farm life at the home of their uncle, Lewis Wilcox, in Scoggin's Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. I. N. Goar of Callaway, Nebraska, arrived Monday to pay an extended visit to their daughter Mrs. Joe Mahoney of Banks.

Editor and Mrs. J. F. Woods, and son of the Springfield News of Springfield, Oregon, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Earl B. Hawks Monday and Tuesday.

All doctors agree that its very healthful to use lemons in drinking water during the hot summer months. M. Turner keeps fresh stock of the best lemons at all times.

The union service of the churches will be held next Sunday evening in the Methodist church. Rev. Geo. F. Zimmerman will deliver the sermon. Everybody cordially invited.

Try our violet wheat flakes for mush, the finest package made for the money. Every package contains a coupon, 20 of which entitles you to a White House cook book. Weitzel & Christian.

Will Thompson, the noted writer and lecturer of Seattle, Washington, and Dr. Jones of Portland, spent Monday and Tuesday shooting with Capt. F. S. Barnes of this place. Mr. Thompson is called the best archer in America.

Miss Cora Beek, who has been staying at the home of her uncle, Nelson La Course, taking advantage of Forest Grove's musical facilities, has returned to her home in Goldendale, Washington. She was accompanied by her cousin, Mrs. Ivy Hartrampf.

John Williams has his combined store and dwelling house on Pacific Ave., corner of Third Street, ready for occupancy and will move in this week. Mr. Williams erected his store to meet the growing needs of the city, and will carry a line of groceries and notions.

Between work and a young man of our town there is supposed to exist a mortal enmity. Therefore, rumor having it that he had come in contact with a job, a delegation went forth to see the mix-up, but they found the young fellow and his employment quietly lying side by side, across the young man's placid countenance flitted a seraphic smile, as gently he slept the sleep of the ever weary.