Oregon Development League

The Portland Commercial Club has issued a call for a convention of the Oregon Development League, to be held at the Marquam Grand Theater in Portland August 2nd and 3rd. All commercial, agricultural, mining, stock-raising and irrigation interests will be represented; every editor in the state will be invited to attend as a delegate; county commissioners and mayors of all towns and cities will also be called upon to name delegates. The Portland Women's Club will look after the comfort of ladies accompanying delegates, and, among other entertainments, have arranged for a trolley ride on August 2nd, taking in the most interesting and beautiful environs of Portland, and on August 3rd ten street cars will be provided for a trip over the entire city.

The Southern Pacific Co. will sell tickets at the very low rate of one fare for the round trip, from all points on Oregon lines to Portland and return, for this occasion, and it is hoped that every section of the state will be well represented at the convention, to work in harmony for the development of Oregon.

Notice

State of Oregon
Washington County

I, J. W. Sherwood, after being duly sworn say; that owing to the fact that Richard Raycraft has seen fit to publish a statement in The Washington County News, denying that he ever made any detrimental statement to me with regard to the character or reputation of Mark L. Noble, I wish to state again to the public, under oath, that Richard Raycraft did state to me that he would not take the word of Mark L. Noble with regard to a certain piece of land which he was talking of purchasing and came to ask me concerning same. This I stated on witness stand and hereby again state under oath for the knowledge of the public who may have seen Mr. Raycraft's statement. I believe it is generally known that my word as well as my oath is to be depended upon.

J. W. SHERWOOD
Subscribed and sworn to before me this 12th day of July, 1904.
