

Bath tubs—the very best at Goff Bros.

H. T. Atwell is taking a few day's vacation this week.

"Water melons on de vine"—Sold by McNamer & Johnson.

Cheney the tinner. You always get the brand of tin you bargain for.

E. A. Hyde and family are enjoying the sea breeze at Garibaldi.

T. H. Adams is visiting friends and relatives in Kalama, Washington.

Before buying shingles, see J. P. Wagner. He has bargains in shingles.

Weitzel & Christian handle choice groceries. Everything for the family use.

Carriage trimmings of any kinds and carriage repairing, at Stribich's shop, Old Factory.

The Watrous & Allen Co.'s Best Blend coffee has found favor within a host of homes.

Harry Giltner, Robt. Wirtz, Chas. Walker and Harvey Baldwin are at Newport for their vacation.

For sale cheap—Some fine full blooded Poland China boar pigs. Write W. B. Logsdon, Manning, Oregon. Hughes phone.

Bert Doan, the genial clerk of Watrous Allen Co. with several friends will spend a week or two on the Trask River, hunting and fishing.

J. Q. Jackson and John Templeton left Monday for Eastern Oregon to visit the Bend Country and incidently to attend to some business matters.

Hicks & Rode have opened a cold storage and meat market and invite friends and patrons to call and see how comfortably they are located. They also solicit the public to investigate their prices.

The house of Mr. Lybarger, west of Dilley, was entered Sunday evening by a party who stole $5.00 in cash, sundry articles and a bank deposit book. The party who did the work will be apprehended and arrest will take place this week.

J. H. McNamer, the manager of the Forest Grove—Tillamook Stage Line and Wilson River Road, arrived here Monday with a load of passengers. The road is in the best condition that it has been in for years and the trip is worth the time and money to any one passing through that most scenic part of Western Oregon.

A. C. Philips and H. D. Haynie have secured a large hay bailing contract near North Yakima, Washington, which extends over 4½ months. On two farms alone are 6000 tons awaiting them and 10,000 tons are now being bailed on one farm in that section. We are glad to note that Philips and Haynie received this large contract, as they are both hustlers and worthy of the confidence bestowed on them.

H. J. Goff, our hardware merchant, was in Portland over Sunday.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford at Booses Quarry, July 31, a son.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Art Cook, near Gaston, Sunday August 8, a boy.

Mrs. J. H. Wirtz is with a party of young people in the mountains on the Nehalem.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Geo. W. McGraw near Greenville, August 5th, a daughter.

Take a vacation and buy your sporting goods, camp stove and amunition at Goff Bros.

Shingles—none better anywhere at Ritchey's at right prices. Tile and posts at Ritchey's.

A good cup of coffee is half the meal. Watrous & Allen Co.'s Best Blend, will suit you.

Good bread made from Pendleton White Satin Flour, Warranted the best. Nicholson & Son.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Lilley, Saturday, Aug. 6, a fine daughter. Nick is the proudest father in the state.

Mrs. Josephine Patton, one of the News force, is back in the office again after a week's visit at her home near Gales Creek.

If you die you beat it and if you live you beat it. Modern National Reserve policies give fullest protection at lowest cost. Get one.

Union meeting at the Christian Church next Sunday evening. Rev. Belknap will preach the sermon.—Everybody cordially invited.

Fancy and plain steaks, mutton chops, best of bacon and hams, bologna, pure lard, at the right prices at the shop of A. Saelen & Co.

Everett Hall and Roy McPherson started for Netarts, over the Wilson river route last Wednesday. They expect to remain about ten days.

Our famous cartoonist, F. Brown, and Ed. Wagner, made the round trip to North Yamhill, Sunday, looking over the hop fields and while out made arrangements to pick for Mr. Williams, who has a fifty acre field, one of the largest in the state.

J. P. Wagner and wife, Met Wagner and wife and W. K. Curtis returned Saturday evening from the head of Scoggins Valley where they have been camping in the mountains. They had a fine time and brought home lots of berries which are found in abundance on the hillside.

Estrayed:—A liberal reward will be given to learn the whereabouts of the following stock: 6 head sheep with lambs. Sheep marked with slit in left ear, part marked with slit in right ear. When last seen were in pasture 2 miles south of Cornelius. Information to J. Dixon, Cornelius, or News office.

Fancy tea and coffee at Nicholson & Son's.

Ed. Wirtz is visiting with brothers at Gresham, Ore., this week.

If you want the best of work in plumbing get H. L. Deckert.

Shingles, the best on the market at the right price, at T. A. Ritchey's.

Practical plumbing is our specialty. Prices reasonable.—H. L. Deckert.

Farmers—For bargains in wire nettings, hardware, tools, etc, see W. R. Hicks.

A fine lot, city water, shade and side-walk, and best location. Enquire at News office.

Mr. Frank Bester, a prominent rancher of Tillamook, is in the Grove visiting his brother-in-law, Chas Stokes and his mother Mrs. Reher.

A good roof saves trouble. P. H. Buxton, of Buxton, Oregon, will deliver to you first class cedar shingles, either cut or sawed. Write him for prices.

Haynie & Son have two fine teams and do all kinds of team work at reasonable rates. Contracts preferred. Independent 'phone. They use everybody right.

Ed. Boos and Attorney E. Mendenhall passed through the city, Monday, en route for the Nehalem River where they will spend a few weeks vacation, fishing and hunting.

J. H. Wirtz is having his home remodeled and improved. A neat addition is being built to the house and when completed will add much to the appearance of A street.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams have recently opened for the patronage at the corner of Pacific avenue and 4th street, a nice line of groceries and general supplies. Their prices are right and goods the best to be had. Give them a call.

Z. Wing, who recently came from California, has purchased the Ware farm near Gales City. It consists of 120 acres and will make a good dairy farm. Mr. Wing is a hustler and the people of that vicinity will be glad to know of the purchase.

One of the finest and most productive gardens in the county is that of Mr. M. I. Conwell, near Dilley. No irrigation has been used and the land is what would be called hillside being at the foot of the mountains. Nearly every vegetable for farm and table use are grown and their thrift and quality are not excelled in any country. The 2½ acres in cultivation will produce 25 or 30 tons of roots, corn, melons, squash, pumpkins, etc., every variety of vegetable in fact common to our soil. People who have poor gardens would do well to see this splendid example of gardner's art and profit by the successful methods used in its production.

For Sale—Fine horse, good driver, gentle and true. McNamer & Johnson.

Of all the annoyances, poor plumbing is one of the worst. We guarantee our work.—H. L. Deckert.

Farmers—When in town have a good square meal at the Michigan House. Only 25 cents.

Cheap—A fine 8 year old horse, well broke to drive or ride, must be sold. Call at News office.

Do you know—That the Colonial serves an elegant Sunday dinner? Take your friend there to dine.

Cutting the meat correctly helps the cook, and pleases all the family. Try A. Saelen & Co's for fancy cuts.

Pendleton White Satin flour, warranted in every way or money refunded, if not satisfactory. Nicholson & Son, Main Street.

Tom Brown is finishing M. Peterson's house with the Celebrated Hard Plaster. If you are interested in this class of work, call and see it.

70 acres ¾ mile from Forest Grove, all in cultivation, 10 acres in orchard, good barn. $85 per acre. Easy terms. R. W. McNutt, Real Estate agent, Cornelius, Oregon.

Att'y. Wm. M. Langley and family and Thos. E. Lewis and family left yesterday morning for a two weeks camping in the mountains near the Nehalem river. Wm. M. assured the party that they would have venison for breakfast this morning.

S. A. Walker and family returned home last Friday evening, the 5th inst. from a four day's trip to Bacona, about twenty miles north of Forest Grove. Wild blackberries and venison were found in plenty. Sam returned with a large quantity of black berries, and his share of venison. As a result of a days hunt, two fine buck deer were captured, one a six point buck, the other a two point buck. Mr. Sherman Bacon also gave a splendid exhibition of his skill as a marksman, the deer that he captured being at least four hundred yards away when it was brought down. One day was spent watching the modus operandi of one of the finest shingle factories in the north west. Sam reports that Mr. Bacon has the finest supply of cedar that it has been his pleasure to look at for many years, also the best facilities for converting the cedar into shingles. Anyone wishing to secure first class shingles, will make no mistake to buy of S. Bacon.

County Court

On August 2nd, one Claud Jackson was arraigned before County Judge L. A. Rood on a charge of rape alleged to have been committed on the person of one Belle Gerritse, who is alleged to be under 16 years of age. Jackson's bail was fixed at $1000 pending examination.