

Bailey's Big Store for everything.

Bath tubs—the very best at Goff Bros.

Oscar Baldwin is back from an outing at Newport.

"Water melons on de vine"—Sold by McNamer & Johnson.

Cheney the tinner. You always get the brand of tin you bargain for.

Weitzel & Christian handle choice groceries. Everything for the family use.

Carriage trimmings of any kinds and carriage repairing, at Stribich's shop, Old Factory.

The Watrous & Allen Co.'s Best Blend coffee has found favor within a host of homes.

The wheat crop is a good average this year and the price remains high. The quality is above the average.

Prof. Coghill has rented the M. C. Case property, and is now moving his household effects to his new location.

The camp meeting held in the Naylor grove by the Free Methodists is being well attended and much interest shown.

Attorney Welsh is home from Portland where he has been the past ten days with his father-in-law, who has been quite sick.

For sale cheap—Some fine full blooded Poland China boar pigs. Write W. B. Logsdon, Manning, Oregon. Hughes phone.

Postmaster Atwel is back from a week's vacation from duty. He saw much of the far famed scenery along the Columbia River.

Mrs. Hugh Smith received a message of the illness of her father, Mr. Carsten, of Hillsboro, last Friday, and at once took the train for that place.

Mr. John Rupert and family have arrived from Eugene and will soon take possession of the J. Q. Jackson property, which they purchased a few days ago.

Mrs. Idonia Thresher and her two daughters, Mildred and Grace Stinchcombe, are in the Grove to spend a month with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Keen.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Greer and two daughters Jessie and Vesta, accompanied by Mrs. L. M. Beebe, Mr. and Mrs. Goar and Miss Maggie Mahoney left today for "Netarts by the Sea."

W. A. Dimmick and C. H. Williams, of Oregon City, A. C. Gilbert, of Portland; Willard Wirtz, Haven Belknap and Horace Thomas returned Saturday evening from their outing in the Nehalem.

Miss Anna Pomeroy made the News office a call Monday which will not soon be forgotten as she left a mammoth bouquet of beautiful sweet peas. Oregon is famous for sweet peas as well as roses.

Herrick Hall is receiving a much needed coat of paint.

Ash wood for sale. Enquire of Lee Sparks or Will Sparks.

Neat fitting and late patterns in cloth at Bailey's Big Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. A. Roe and son returned from Newport Sunday evening.

Take a vacation and buy your sporting goods, camp stove and amunition at Goff Bros.

Rev. Geo. F. Zimmerman is spending the week at Woodburn, Oregon, on business.

Shingles—none better anywhere at Ritchey's at right prices. Tile and posts at Ritchey's.

10 cts a button, and $1.00, a rip will be paid at Bailey's Big Store on Dutchess trousers.

A good cup of coffee is half the meal. Watrous & Allen Co.'s Best Blend, will suit you.

Good bread made from Pendleton White Satin Flour, Warranted the best. Nicholson & Son.

The little three year old son of Mrs. G. Hartrampf was taken suddenly ill Sunday morning, with convulsions. He is now much improved.

Haynie & Son have two fine teams and do all kinds of team work at reasonable rates. Contracts preferred. Independent 'phone. They use everybody right.

Everett Hall and Roy McPherson returned, Sunday, from a ten days outing at Netarts. They report a pleasant time during their stay and a large and jolly crowd at "Happy Camp."

Shari Johnson, who formerly resided her, brother of Frank Johnson, living west of Forest Grove, was home to spend a few days. He goes to Eastern Oregon to look after his land interests there.

Weitzel & Christian have some new shelving in their grocery store to accomodate their extra stock. They have built up a fine business which accounts for their successive enlargement of their stock space.

Prin. H. L. Bates haa returned from his summer's study at Berkeley, California. He reports a strong course of advanced work, yet he feels rested in spite of his hard work of the past year and summer. Berkely is located upon the bay, making it cool and refreshing to study and delightful recreation at the same time.

The Mrs. J. F. Schoch farm of 79 acres, north of Forest Grove, on Hillside has been sold to J. D. Mickle, a son-in-law of Henry Hunter, of Forest Grove. Mr. Mickle will take possession Nov. 1st and endeavor to regain his health after many years of business life in Portland. The sale was consummated by the old reliable realestate dealer, H. G. King.

Fancy tea and coffee at Nicholson & Son's.

Miss Marie Staehr visited in Reedville last Saturday.

I. K. Weitzel and family returned Monday from the coast.

If you want the best of work in plumbing get H. L. Deckert.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lewis, near Kansas City, Aug. 7, a son.

F. S. Myers, of Portland, was in town Friday, transacting business.

Shingles, the best on the market at the right price, at T. A. Ritchey's.

Practical plumbing is our specialty. Prices reasonable.—H. L. Deckert.

Miss Marie Carrye Watt left Monday for Newport for a few weeks' outing.

Farmers—For bargains in wire nettings, hardware, tools, etc, see W. R. Hicks.

Miss Sadie Cronin returned from Newport Saturday after a two week's vacation.

A fine lot, city water, shade and side-walk, and best location. Enquire at News office.

Messrs. Peter and John Fields, with their families, are enjoying an outing at Netarts this week.

Do you know—That the Colonial serves an elegant Sunday dinner? Take your friend there to dine.

John Q. Jackson and John Templeton have returned from Eastern Oregon and report a pleasant trip.

If you die you beat it and if you live you beat it. Modern National Reserve policies give fullest protection at lowest cost. Get one.

Miss Lizzie Rupert and Mrs. Burns, of Eugene, Ore., arrived at the Grove, Thursday evening to spend a few weeks with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Ruppert, who recently became residents of our city and who purchased the John Jackson property in East Forest Grove.

Among those who enjoyed last Sunday at Soda Springs, were the Misses Merchant, of Portland, Maud Dant and Helen Johnson, of Reedville, Liepha Ruble and Irene Young, of Hillsboro and Marie Staehr, of Forest Grove, Messrs. Rasmussen and Dant, of Reedville and Tilbury and Sewell, of Hillsboro.

Rev. Cross, D. D. now of Eugene, but formerly of Denver, Colo., addressed the morning meeting at Marsh Hall Sunday and also the union meeting at the same place in the evening. Rev. Cross is a highly educated and polished speaker and his addresses were forceful as well as full of deep religious thought. His address at the laying of the Cornerstone of Marsh Hall six years ago, is still well remembered by those present and all were out to hear him again Sunday evening.

Cooking a pleasure on a stove M. Peterson.

Hop gloves, 10, 15 and 25 cents at Bailey's Big Store.

National Stock Food the only reliable kind. Martin's Feed Store.

Born—Monday August 15, to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Moore, a son.

Mr. N. J. Walker made a business trip to Portland Wednesday.

Prof. William Fletcher and wife left yesterday for the Nehalem valley for an outing.

Mrs. N. J. Walker went to Cannon Wednesday to look after her business interests.

Merle Markee is back from his trip to Southern Oregon and reports a good time.

Farmers—When in town have a good square meal at the Michigan House. Only 25 cents.

Of all the annoyances, poor plumbing is one of the worst. We guarantee our work.—H. L. Deckert.

Cutting the meat correctly helps the cook, and pleases all the family. Try A. Saelen & Co's for fancy cuts.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Walling and daughters returned Tuesday from Astoria, where they have been visiting friends and relatives.

J. R. Ballard and family returned from "Netarts by the Sea," Saturday. He brought home a jug of salt water to prevent sea sickness.

Pendleton White Satin flour, warranted in every way or money refunded, if not satisfactory. Nicholson & Son, Main Street.

Fancy and plain steaks, mutton chops, best of bacon and hams, bologna, pure lard, at the right prices at the shop of A. Saelen & Co.

Lost—A shawl, red with varied colorings, on Gales Creek road between Watt's school house and Forest Grove. Finder please leave at News office.

Miss Martha Brown sustained a very severe accident Monday. As she was passing down the steps of her residence she slipped and fell, badly spraining her ankle. Dr. Geiger was at once summoned and dressed it.

For Sale—A nice home in Forest Grove, only three blocks from business center, 1½ acres, good 9 room house, large new barn, buildings all nicely painted. This property at a bargain, R. W. McNutt, Real Estate Agent, Cornelius, Oregon.

Count Von Roy McPherson and Sir Esquire Everett Hall, with Vallets and Dunnage arrived here via the overland route from the sea side, where they have been the guests of the Hotel de Store, the past ten days. Both are much recuperated in health, but were glad to put their feet again under their mother's table.