

Ho! For the hop-fields!
"Quality" is the pass word at McNamer & Johnson's.

Big cut in big mouth vacuum fruit jars at Thomas & James.

Cast-iron range, piped for water, cheap, at the Auction House.

Mrs. Sloan spent last week in Portland visiting friends and relatives.

Fine hams, bacon and prepared meats at Nicholson & Son's.

C. W. Rosa was at Newport over Sunday, enjoying the pleasures at the Seaside.

Dutchess Trousers—10 cents a button and $1.00 a rip. Bailey's Big Store.

Just in—new line of ladies fall hats at prices you can afford. Mrs. Dixon, Main Street.

Girl wanted—Will pay $15. per month for good girl domestic for work. Inquire Goff Bros.

Clyde Wellman, of South Forest Grove, was in Portland Sunday visiting his friend, Ralph E. Dugan.

Do you know—That the Colonial serves an elegant Sunday dinner? Take your friend there to dine.

Prof. Chapman has moved from Herrick Hall into the home of Frank Waters, which he recently vacated.

Mr. and Mrs. Brunner, of Portland, was out Monday, visiting at the home of Mrs. Brunner's parents, P. W. Cronin.

L. W. Russell Jr., of Leads, South Dakota, spent Monday with his uncle, C. V. B. Russell. He is touring the west on an outing.

$1.00 buys a sample sack of "Our Best" Willamette Valley flour. Your money back if you want it. Thomas & James.

Tabitha Brown Cabin, Native Daughters, will meet at I. O. O. F. Hall, Tuesday Eve, Sept. 13, 7.30

AGNES HINES, secretary.

Smile producers. Boiling beef at 5 cents per pound; beefsteak 8 cents per pound; veal stew 6 cents per pound and mutton 5 cents per pound at McNamer & Johnson's.

After weeks of much perseverance and much worry Haven Belknap has been compelled to part with the light complexioned down on his upper lip. Such is life.

Mrs. N. J. Walker is visiting with friends at Gaston this week. The students are returning from their homes after their summer vacation to enter P. U. again for the ensuing year.

20 acres, all in cultivation, between Hillsboro and Cornelius on base line road. Some beaverdam, good house, barn and orchard. $2800. easy terms. R. W. McNutt, real estate agent, Cornelius, Oregon.

Fine teas and coffees at Nicholson & Son's.

Hunting and trespass signs for sale at the News Office.

Big cut in big mouth vacuum fruit jars at Thomas & James.

You get the values, we get the business, McNamer & Johnson.

Big cut in big mouth vacuum fruit jars at Thomas & James.

Big invoice of second hand goods now on at the Auction House.

Prices count when ever money is counted at McNamer & Johnson's.

Dutchess Trousers—10 cents a button and $1.00 a rip. Bailey's Big Store.

Finest stock of hats in the city at Mrs. Dixon's millinery store, Main Street.

Dutchess Trousers—10 cents a button and $1.00 a rip. Bailey's Big Store.

Miss Daisy Woodard, of Wordner, Idaho, has returned to enter school again this year.

Take a vacation and buy your sporting goods, camp stove and amunition at Goff Bros.

Out-of-date methods do not satisfy up-to-date people. Go to the popular place, McNamer & Johnson.

Remember the auction sale on Sept 15, 16 and 17, at the Eastern Bargain Store, by values at less than 1/2 price.

Chas. Miller was in Portland Wednesday to buy a new up-to-date plate glass front for his new store building.

The very latest in the new styles of fall and winter hats, prices that will please you. Mrs. Dixon, Main Street.

Misses Frances and Katherine Myers are home from Newport where they have been the past few months for their vacation.

The Lewis and Clark Club will hold its regular meeting, Sept. 12, at 3 o'clock at the home of Miss Minnie Martin. Secretary.

Big cut on big mouth vacuum fruit jars. We bought too many and now cut the price to save carrying them over to next year. Thomas & James.

Pies and Cakes:—The ladies of the Methodist Church will hold a sale of bread, pies and cakes in the front of the store of Watrous, Allen Co. Store. Saturday, September 10, beginning at 10 a. m.

Many applications are made by young men and women to secure room and board with the privilege of working out the same, thus assisting themselves to secure educational advantages. Anyone having or knowing of such a place will confer a favor by notifying Prin. H. L. Bates, of Tualatin Academy.

Fancy tea and coffee at Nicholson & Son's.

Big cut in big mouth vacuum fruit jars at Thomas & James.

Shingles, the best on the market at the right price, at T. A. Ritchey's.

Nicholson & Son have a fine line of dishes, call and see them.

Dutchess Trousers—10 cents a button and $1.00 a rip. Bailey's Big Store.

Of all the annoyances, poor plumbing is one of the worst. We guarantee our work.—H. L. Deckert.

The Ladies Working Society, of the Congregational Church, met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Ferrin.

Union Services will be held in the Congregational Church next Sunday night. Services will begin at 7:30. Rev. L. F. Belknap will preach.

Mrs. G. Hartrampf, who has been handling the California perfume goods, will keep a supply on hand at Jackson & La Course's store.

Dr. E. B. Rentz left yesterday for St. Louis by way of California and New Mexico. After visiting St. Louis he will visit old friends in Oklahoma and Kansas.

Dr. Otto Gagzon, a forestry expert from Germany, who is studying our timber resources, and Mr. Max Eitel, of Chicago, registered at The Laughlin last night and left on the morning train for Portland.

Mr. Frank Bernard left at the News Office an apple measuring 16 inches in diameter and weighing 26 ounces. Eastern people please take notice that Oregon can't be beat for fruit in size, quality and quantity.

The Working Society of the M. E. Church met yesterday at the home of Pastor Belknap yesterday afternoon and a very enjoyable session was held. This was the first fall meeting and plans for work were discussed. Dainty refreshments were served.

Auction Sale

On September 15, 16 and 17 occurs the big auction sale of goods of all kinds at the Eastern Bargain Store on Pacific Avenue.

A Snap

This 40 acre farm 3 1/2 miles from Cornelius must be sold by Sept. 20, or it will be withdrawn from the market, owner has a business opening which he wishes to take advantage of on that date and in order to do so is anxious to sell and will sacrifice land, stock, crop, everything, the price of the land alone has been held until the present time at $3600, it was cheap enough at that but from now until Sept. 20, $2800 will take it all including 1 span good horses, harness, wagon, 2 cows, 3 hogs, 2 doz. chickens, 2 acres potatoes, fine garden, between 5 and 6 tons hay and all the straw in the barn, 1 buggy, 1 hayrack, 1 14-inch plow, 1 springtooth harrow, and 1 drag row. Of the 40 acres, 25 are cleared and in cultivation, balance slashed and seeded to clover except 3 acres timothy for fuel, good 1 1/2 story house, 30x40, grainary, new wood shed, orchard, all kinds of fruit, grapes, berries, 2 wells, living stream of water irrigates the finest garden in the county. Good fences on good level road. This is surely a snap at $2800 and must be sold by Sept. 20.

R. W. McNUTT, Real Estate agent, Cornelius, Oregon.

Hair Raising.

Just when the mutilation of the head by tearing the skin from the head began will never be known, for the origin is lost in the midst of ages, the record extending back beyond even the mythical period of man's existence. In the book of Maccabees it is recorded that at the termination of one of the battles of which that bloody history is so full the victorious soldiers tore the hair from the heads of their vanquished foes. This would be evidence that the custom of scalp taking was one of the indulgences even of those people whom we have record in the Bible.

Be it as it may, it is an established fact that the custom is a universal one so far as savage man is concerned. Whether ethnologists can build a theory of a common origin of man from this or not, or whether this can be taken as an evidence that the Indians are the descendants of the lost Israelites because of their habit of securing mementos of hair from their fallen enemies, is something time alone will develop. Be that as it may, it is a fact that all Indian tribes, to a certain extent, scalp their enemies who have fallen in battle.—London Globe.

Curious Fact In Natural History

An incident which will be interesting to naturalists is told in a recent number of the Scotsman. One of the foresters in the employ of the Marquis of Lothian was returning from work when he noticed a wild duck flying from a larch tree. On close examination he observed a common brown owl looking down from what appeared to be a nest in the cleft of the tree about thirty feet from the ground and apparently near the place from which the duck had flown. Curiosity prompted him to climb to the place, which he did with great difficulty. The owl, on his approach flew off, and to his surprise he found in the nest two eggs, one an owl's and a wild duck's. It is uncommon for both owls and ducks to build their nests high up on trees, and it is unheard of for one nest to be appropriated by both birds.

A Clever Minister.

"To the town of Norridgewock, Maine," said a clergyman, "a strange minister once came to preach. He preached duly, and after the sermon was over he mingled with the congregation, expecting that some one would invite him to dinner. One by one, however, the congregation departed, offering the hungry minister no hospitality, and he began to feel anxious. What was he to eat? As the last deacon was leaving the church the minister rushed up to him and shook him warmly by the hand.

"I want you to come home and dine with me," the minister said.

"Why, where do you live?" said the deacon.

"About thirty miles from here."

"The deacon reddened. 'Oh, you come and dine with me instead,' he said."