

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

South Park grocery handles best goods.

Cedar posts and tiling at T. A. Ritchey's,

Plumbing Fixtures of all kinds at Goff Bros.

Money to loan on real estate. Hollis & Hawks.

Fresh milk cows for sale. Langley & Campbell.

Rapid transit from us to you. McNamer & Johnson.

Buy less and buy the best at McNamer & Johnson's.

Ash wood for sale. Enquire of Lee Sparks or Will Sparks.

Lumber at Callahan & Herring's mill, Gaston, Oregon.

Best groceries at the Home Grocery. S. E. Williams, proprietor.

"Oct Styles" of meats and groceries just received at McNamer & Johnson's.

1000 harmonicas of the latest patterns with beautiful tone just in at the Bazaar.

The parlors of Mademoiselle LaCourse can be found at The Laughlin.

There are yet a few fine second hand sewing machines at the Bazaar to be sold at a bargain. New machines from $20. up.

Miss May Jackson is clerking at Weitzel & Christian's, the Up-to-date Grocery, in the absence of Carl Christian who will return October 15.

Mr. Marble and daughter, of Beaver City, Nebraska, arrived here Monday and will remain a few months seeing the country and recuperate their health.

Organs and sewing machines are sold now at the Bazaar every day. Yesterday a fine solid walnut case organ good as new was sold at the extremely low price of $40.

Everyone who can, should save money by laying in their winter supply now. About two hundred customers are using Corvallis flour ask your neighbors how they like the bread made from this famous flour, for sale by Thomas & James.

G. B. Hardin has moved his office to the Wagner building. Students desiring to take up the study of shorthand should see him before making arrangements to take elsewhere. Have a large growing class in stenography. Another class starts Monday, Oct. 3. I also give lessons by mail. Students living in the county can avail themselves of this opportunity at no greater expense than if they were in the city. Satisfaction assured. Come and see me.

Auction house for furniture.

Eat at the Michigan House.

Fancy dishes at Nicholson & Son's.

Art squares beat carpet.—Roe & Buxton's.

Try the South Park grocery. J. W. North, proprietor.

Agitate our telephone wire. McNamer & Johnson.

Standard ranges and Moore steel King stoves at Goff Bros.

Meats—The best in town delivered to your home. A. Saelen & Co.

Cheney the tinner. You always get the brand of tin you bargain for.

Mr. J. H. Lafferty, of Gales Creek, was in town Tuesday on business.

Peacock Brand of Eastern Oregon hard wheat flour at Ritchey's.

Mrs. Geo. Wilcox, of near Banks, was visiting with friends here Tuesday.

Try the Home Grocery. Corner 3rd. and Pacific Avenue. Everything the best.

Watch for our wagon. It will be at your door during the week. A. Saelen & Co.

Wanted—100 students to take lessons by mail. G. B. Hardin, Forest Grove, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, of the Dalles, were in this city Tuesday, en route for Gales Creek where they will visit her mother, Mrs. Walter Lilly.

Any person who has a copy of The News of the date of Aug. 18, 1904 that they do not care to keep will confer a favor by leaving the same at this office.

The Bennett warehouse situated near the S. P. R. R. track in this city has been purchased by the merchantile firm of Jackson & LaCourse to use for their extensive produce business.

The people in and about Greenville are justly proud of the fact that they have a new Macabee hall at that place, and on the evening of Oct. 15, they will dedicate it by a genuine social ball.

Quality talks, everybody who bought a sample sack of "Our Best" Corvallis flour wants more, many were so well pleased with the bread made from it they have laid in enough to last all winter. Money back if you want it. For sale by Thomas & James.

While working in the boiler room of the P. C. C. Milk Co. here one day last week, W. I. Haney, the fireman and Mr. Van Orsdale, helping, opened the manhole of the boiler lid which falling into the hot water below caused it to splash upon them, inflicting very severe burns. Mr. Haney and Mr. Van Orsdale are as yet unable to return to their work. The accident was due to no fault of the company yet it has treated the men exceptionally well, for which they feel grateful.

Miss Estella Via was visiting friends in Portland this week.

For a fine Sunday dinner go to the Colonial. Dinner served from 6 to 7:30 p. m.

The medicine man on the street last evening did a remarkably good business.

Born—to Professor Chapman and wife, Wednesday, Sept. 28, a son Dr. Hines the attending physician reports both doing nicely.

New up-to-date stock of ladies' trimmed hats and street hats, call and see our millinery stock on second floor. Thomas & James.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Allen are now comfortably settled in their new home. They have one of the cosiest and most attractive homes in the city.

The display of cloaks and jackets in the window of "The Progressive store" makes one realize that the fall and winter seasons are approaching.

Chas. B. Smith, of Anderson, Indiana, was a visitor at the News Office today. He expects to remain on the coast and open a job printing office in Portland or Seattle.

Joe Lilly, of Gales Creek, returned Wednesday from Idaho and Eastern Oregon where he has been to see the country. He expects to return to Moro to engage in business.

German Lutheran Services—This coming Sunday, October, 2nd, there will be services at the residence of Mr. Chas. Reinemer on Fifth Street, third house south from 2nd. Ave S. Beginning of services 2:30 p. m. A cordial invitation is extended to all. H. C. Ebeling, pastor.

The Forest Grove Rod and Gun Club went to Gaston the first of the week to shoot with the denizens of Wapato lake for practice. Our boys lost the meet and the Gaston boys are now coming down to retaliate. Some star scores were made by J. J. Wirtz and "Bud" Watson but the exact score will not be mentioned as "Johnny" and "Bud" asked us not to refer to it. Ask them.

The K. P. Lodge, "Delphos No. 39, of Forest Grove," have elected J. A. Abbott and J. J. Wirtz as delegates to Grand Lodge to be held at Seaside, Oct. 11th to 14th. It is expected that this will be one of the largest assemblies of Knights ever held in the State. Could our city accomodate the crowd it would be possible to have its meeting here next year.

Candidates for the trip to St. Louis

Following is the total vote cast for the candidates to World's Fair at St. Louis up to last evening.

Alyce Cronin.....	7895
Pearl Chandler.....	6911
Lena Parker.....	2974
Manche Langley.....	733
Stella Via.....	30
Detta Friday.....	13
Grace Baer.....	19
Ruby Price.....	132
Birdie Sappington.....	15

College Notes.

President Ferrin visited in Portland Saturday.

Principal Bates made a business trip to Portland Wednesday.

Col. Sobieski addressed the students at chapel Monday afternoon.

Miss Lillian Bain of Portland has organized an art class, which is an innovation in the course of study offered at Pacific.

The Hillsboro contingency is smaller than usual this year as that town has added another grade to its public school course.

John Leach, an old student of P. U., visited the school over Sunday on his way to O. A. C., where he will take a course in pharmacy.

Frank Dimick of Hubbard, a cousin of W. A. Dimick, who graduated here two years ago, is in school and will make a valuable addition to the football squad.

Manager Thompson has been compelled to give up school for the year and H. E. Thomas was chosen to succeed him at a meeting of the student body held Tuesday. Willard Wirtz will assist him with the work.

The Y. W. C. A. gave an informal reception to the young women who have just entered school at Marsh Hall Sat. afternoon, and the Y. M. C. A. held a similar function for men at Herrick Hall the same evening. Both events were well attended by old and new students alike.

Football prospects at the university are becoming brighter as the old men return to school and it now appears that the team will be both heavier and speedier than that of last season. The squad is out every evening and the field has been put in shape for hard work. Coach Magee is expected to arrive today and will immediately take charge of the squad.

The college reception, held Friday evening, was one of the most enjoyable events of its kind ever given at Pacific. The walls of the chapel were beautifully adorned with multi-colored autumn leaves and streamers of crimson and black. A novel feature of the evening was the absence of introductions, the new students and old mingling together and becoming acquainted by the exchange of autographs. Prof. Chapman delighted those present with several piano solos after which everyone joined in the usual "grand prom." At a late hour the young ladies of the junior class served refreshments of fruit punch and wafers.

Feed Mill.

Will F. Hartrampf's Feed Mill located east of the Farmers' Feed barn will run every Saturday until further notice. All kinds of feed ground at reasonable rates.

WILL F. HARTRAMPF.