

W. O. W. Honored

Mr. F. A. Falkenburg, Head Counsel of the W. O. W., who has just been elected president of the National Fraternal Congress at its session in St. Louis, which body represents 4,800,000 members of various fraternal insurance societies of America, was born in Indiana in 1857. He is the son of the Rev. S. B. Falkenburg, a Methodist divine of that state. Mr. Falkenburg is an educated and cultivated gentleman. He became identified in fraternal work, and was appointed by Head Consul Joseph Cullen Root as one of his deputies in extending the order of Modern Woodmen of America. It was while in that service that he moved to Denver in 1889, which city has since been his home. Desiring to see the principles of Woodcraft extended beyond the narrow field of eight or nine states, to which it was by its charter then limited, he and Joseph Cullen Root, the head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, on June 6th, 1890, founded the Woodmen of the World, and he has been head consul of the Western, or Pacific jurisdiction of that order ever since. He is also sovereign adviser of the Eastern, or Sovereign jurisdiction, and is commanding general of the uniform rank of the entire order. The Woodmen of the World and its allied ladies' organizations (though but fourteen years of age) have a membership of over 400,000 members, and have over 5,000 camps in the United States and British America. The Western or Pacific jurisdiction, of which Mr. Falkenburg is official head, has become the largest fraternal insurance order in that field, with a membership now approaching the 100,000 mark.

The presidency of the National Fraternal Congress is the highest honor that can be conferred upon an American fraternalist, and his friends, which are numbered by the hundreds of thousands in the various orders of America and Canada, will rejoice in receiving the news of his election to this high office.

Holly Circle "Getting Busy"

Holly Circle, W. of W. has decided to "get busy" and are not only taking in new members but have planned several entertainments for the winter. A drama is ready for rehearsal, the hall and music engaged for a leap year dance to be given New Year's Eve, and invitations are being sent out for an At Home, the 26th of this month. At the meeting last Wednesday the committee in charge of entertainment for the evening surprised everybody by preparing an old fashioned supper of fried chicken, mashed potatoes and gravy, salad, cake and coffee.

Forest Grove - - Oregon

Death of Mrs. L. J. Hunt.

The body of Mrs. L. J. Hunt, accompanied by her daughters Leona and Bessie, also Jim, her son, passed through our city Wednesday, on their way to Tillamook, her home, for burial. Mrs. Hunt was one of the old settlers there and leaves a large family and a host of friends. Her burial will be Thursday when she will be laid to rest in the Odd Fellow's cemetery.

Died

George Show, aged 14 years, died at the home of his father, Samuel Show, in this city last Thursday afternoon at about four o'clock of typhoid fever. The little fellow took sick a few weeks ago, after having just started to school. The remains were immediately prepared for burial and were taken back to his former home in Melvern, Iowa, to be laid beside his mother, who preceeded him by many years. George was brought here for his health by his father, who believed the Oregon climate would be beneficial to him.
