

THAT ELECTRIC ROAD AGAIN

Secretary to be Here in Few Days— $40,000 Raised in Portland

The electric line from this city to Portland now looks like a sure go. Asst. Secretary Keady of the Oregon Traction company wishes us to inform the public that he will be in Forest Grove in about ten days at which time he will close up the subsidy subscriptions made at this point. The $40,000., that was necessary to raise in Portland has been secured, and matters at Hillsboro, it is reported, are shaping themselves satisfactorily.

The promoters who will be here in a few days promise to satisfy a committee composing the business men here that the company has sufficient backing to carry the project through.

Pacific Seconds Defeat Y. M. C. A.

The Portland Y. M. C. A. team came out from the city yesterday and was treated to a defeat at the hands of the Pacific's second eleven by a score of 12 to 0. The game was hard fought from start to finish but the result was never in doubt from the first play. The visitors outweighed the local players several pounds to the man but the supporters of the crimson and black showed better team work and a more thorough knowledge of the game.

One touchdown was made in each half. Brown made the most sensational play of the game, running half the length of the field for a touchdown during the first minute of play. He also succeeded in kicking good after both touchdowns. At one time the visitors, aided by a costly fumble of Pacific, carried the ball quite near the varsity goal line but the collegians braced and a score was prevented.

In the first half the Y. M. C. A. held the local team down but in the last half they were decidedly outclassed. Plays were put around their ends or through their lines almost at will and had it not been for fumbles at least one more touchdown would have been scored.

The line up was as follows:

Founder's Day at College.

Yesterday was the annual Founders' Day at Pacific University. All classroom work was suspended for the day and the students, Faculty and a number of visitors gathered in the chapel at 10 a. m. to hear the exercises of the occasion.

Founders' Day was originally set apart to commemorate the early founding of the institution in pioneer times but this purpose has lately been lost sight of to a large extent and the day is now more of an occasion for a student rally. Instead of having an orator address the students as usual, yesterday was given over entirely to the undergraduates and the exercises were under the auspices of the senior class. R. F. Peters, vice president of '05 presided and the various student organizations were represented on the program.

A musical selection by the Alpha Zeta quartet was the first number and received a hearty encore. W. B. Shively spoke for a more enthusiastic support of the college paper, The Index, and H. E. Thomas presented the cause of athletics from the standpoint of the football management. W. B. Rasmussen represented Gamma Sigma and C. R. Fletcher spoke in behalf of the newer men's literary society, Alpha Zeta. Philomatheon, the women's society, was upheld by Livia Ferrin, and Ethel Waters of the senior class called attention to the work being done by the Christian associations.

The program gave occasion for a manifestation of class spirit and the freshmen, sophomores and juniors were well represented. Gordon Clapp spoke for '08 and improved the opportunity by getting off some hits at the Sophs. The sophomores, however, won the honors by presenting a neat take off on the freshies. John Peters displayed caricatures of each member of the booby class in turn and at the same time made some spicy comments. Willard Wirtz, for the juniors, made a hit with an oration on "Knockers." Two of the most enjoyable numbers of the day were vocal solos by Mrs. McEldowney and Miss Hartly.

At the close of the exercises, the sophomores presented to the seniors a stuffed figure, clad in cap and gown, to be henceforth the class mascot.

Two Scotch Stories.

A Scotch schoolmaster in Banffshire years ago had strong views on the subject of dress. In the day when crinoline was the rage a girl came to school with a very extensive one, which much exceeded the space between the desk and the form on which she had to sit. The teacher, seeing this, said to her, "Gang awa' home and tak' off the girls' (hoops) and come back to the school as God made ye."

Another rough and ready domineer was examining his boys in a catechism and asked if God had a beginning. "No," said the boy. "Will he have an end?" "Yes," he replied. This was followed instantly by a buffet on the side of the head. "Will he have an end noo?" "No," said the boy, and the master was satisfied.

Tennyson's "Married Brows."

"I have a question to ask," announced the literary man. "You know Tennyson's line:
"The charm of married brows."
"Well, did he mean by that the crowning charm of married women, or did he refer to the charm of eyebrows that meet in the middle? In the 'Arabian Nights' there are many passages in which such eyebrows are spoken of as a great charm, indeed, but in the west our beauty doctors give explicit directions to prevent such growths. What did Tennyson mean, anyhow?"—Philadelphia Press.
