Halloween Gaieties

The annual reception by the upper classes to the freshmen was given at The Colonial Hotel, Halloween. The parlors were attractively decorated with jack o'lanterns and other things suggestive of the occasion. Halloween games and tests of portraiture were the order of the evening. Each person was given the name of some other person present and requested to reveal the future of that one. The results when read aloud, were a source of much merriment and showed that the prophetic spirit had certainly fallen upon the assembly. A sculptor's test was given in which each person modeled the face of some arrival out of gum by the use of toothpicks. Quite a menagerie was collected in this way and the judges finally awarded first prize to Mr. Wirtz. The consolation prize went to Miss Wood.

The freshies were put through various tortures and required to perform one jest after another until the upper classmen were thoroughly convinced that they had proved their eligibility to college life, when they were invited to the dining-room, where a sumptuous feast was spread. Cider, nuts, apples and other Halloween dainties were there in abundance and the tables presented a pretty spectacle. The gods of fate decreed that the ring should go to Mr. Hall, while the thimble was found by Mr. Peterson and the dime by Mr. Bump. Toasts were given by Messrs. Sparks, Thomas, Bump and Miss Wood.

Academy Students Make Merry

The Academy classes each observed Halloween as follows: The First Year class, chaperoned by Miss Bain met at the tastefully decorated home of C. N. Johnson, where Halloween games and dainties were the order of the evening.

The Second Year class had a jolly time at Mrs. A. William's where they were chaperoned by Prof. and Mrs. Woods. They proved the fact that they are a merry class for they had a jolly time.

The Third Years banqueted at The Laughlin chaperoned by Mrs. Will Fletcher and Prin. Bates. After the feast of Halloween dainties the party repaired to the home of President Ferrin where they made merry 'till a late hour.

The Fourth Year class, a party of twenty-five chaperoned by the Misses Winnie Marsh and Irene Cadwell, drove to Hillsboro, where they were royally entertained at the residence of Capt. Merryman. A witch told their fortunes while a hidden spirit made dreadful noises. A ghost ushered them into the beautifully decorated dining room where they feasted on the season's Halloween dainties.

World's Fair Contest to Close.

The contest that the merchants are giving in which a trip to the St. Louis Exposition was to be given the winner, did not come to a close in time to give the trip as expected, hence a cash prize will now be given to the winner in place of the trip. The final count will be made on the evening of Nov. 16 and the winner announced in The News on Thursday.

PUBLIC SCHOOL NEWS

Miss Starrett and Miss Jackson spent Sunday in Portland.

Alma Clark after her somewhat extended visit in Cal., is back to school again.

Miss Jackson has one new pupil and three of her pupils are absent on account of sickness, from Miss Gordon's room.

The teachers hold meetings on Monday evenings and just now they are making a study of "Phelps and His Teachers" which is proving very interesting.

In Miss Knight's room some of the blackboards were taken out and preparations for new ones are being made and we will be very glad when they are done.

The pupils of the First grade are eagerly looking forward to the time when they will be the proud occupants of the new rooms which they will occupy in about two weeks.

A sad state of affairs exists in the eighth grade. Six girls have to sit up in front, not because they are bad, but because there is no other place for them to sit. There are 56 pupils in the room and only room for 48 desks. Miss Knight, driven to desperation by the state of affairs, had a table put in the front of the room and 6 chairs were placed there but there are still 2 more pupils than seats.
