Buy Goldenrod Flour

Superior Brand

At All Stores

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

~

F. A. Watrous was a Portland passenger Tuesday.

Charlie La Follette, of Salem, was in the city this week.

-Nice fresh Bread every day at Watrous & Allen Co.

Earl Shephard, of Portland, was. visiting friends here Sunday.

Atty J. N. Hoffman, visited Portland Tuesday, on business.

Mrs. T. Miller, of Gales Creek, was shopping in the city Friday.

Mrs. Marie McGilvery, of Gales Creek, was in the city Friday.

D. G. Lilly and family, of Gales Creek, were in town Saturday.

Mrs. Eva Jacobson, of Gales Creek, was visiting friends in town Friday.

--Bread, Bread, Bread, Bread for the hungry at Watrous & Allen Co.

Dr. Lowe does not sell all the good glasses, but all his glasses are good.

Wm. Foley, a Portland attorney, was in the city this week on business.

Col. Wm. Hunter after a long siege of sickness is again able to be about.

George Morgan, the well known Hillsboroite, was in the Grove Friday.

Have Dr. Lowe cure your head and eye ache with a pair of his superior glasses.

Newell Macrum, former freight agent at the S. P. depot, was here over Orego Sunday.

Arthur Chandler, of Newport, for merly of McMinnville, is the guest of his mother Grandma Chandler.

O. Brown, who is manager of the creamery at Fulda, Wash., is expected home for a visit in the near future.

Thomas Roe and wife arrived from Newport Thursday evening. They will remain here until after the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. John Pike, who have been visiting with Mrs. S. F. Richardson, have returned to their home in Portland.

Elmer McNutt, salesman at Watrous & Allen Co., has been confined to his room the past week, on account of sickness.

The two little daughters of B. P. Welch are much bet ter. They have been suffering from an attack of pneumonia.

Clackamas County Court has voted an appropriation of $1,000 for an exhibit of county products at the Lewis and Clark Fair.

—In order to make room for Xmas goods The Bazaar will sell their stock of Pianos, Organs and Sewing Machines at greatly reduced prices.

The hewing down of the tall fir trees on College Way opposite to D. Rode's place, has much improved the appearance of that thoroughfare.

Geo. H. Himes, secretary of the Oregon Pioneer Association, was in the city Monday, in the interest of the Oregon Historical Society. Rev. J. Staub of the Sunnyside Congregational church, of Portland, preached both morning and evening for the local Congregationalists. Mr. and Mrs. Tom Chinick, of Portland, were in Forest Grove this week. Mrs. Chinick is a sister of Mrs. Stephens who died Thursday evening.

Mrs. Minnie Baber is remodeling her house on Second avenue and Third street. A new roof has been put on and extensive repairs are being made in the interior.

It seems that there will be some competition in the milk business. Both Dick Rode and J. Vanoy, of Dilley, expect to run a milk wagons to any part of the city.

Next Monday, Tuesday and to noon Wednesday Dr. Lowe the well-known oculo-optician will be at Hotel Laughlin. Dr. Lowe has been coming to Forest Grove for over 15 years.

J. C. Pidcock. late of Oklahoma, has bought the George Chapman property of 32 acres, situated $1\frac{1}{2}$ miles south of Cornelius. M. L. Noble was the agent and \$2900 was the consideration.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Venen went to Portland Saturday to visit their daughter, Mrs. Lola Brockman. They returned Monday. While in the city Mr. Venen made a selection of goods for his jewelry shop.

Mrs. Chauncy Goodnough of Goldendale, Wash. 1s visiting her daughters, Mrs. T. W. Thornburgh and Miss Edythe M. Goodnough of this place. This is her first visit to her old home after an absence of 17 years.

For more than 18 years Dr. Lowe has made a specialty of testing and fitting glasses to children's eyes. Parents who do not know the condition of your children's eyes, consult Dr. Lowe, November 21, 22 to 23.

Hines' drug store, Goff Bros Hardware, Ritchey's Feed Store, Watrous & Co., Abbott's Jewelry, and Russell's Shoe Store.

City Treasurer Hudson and wife were in Portland this week, visiting their son, Harvey, who has been for years an offic er in the Customs House. He has recently been appointed to the position of Supreme Master Artisan for he lodge of that name.

Miss Stella Boscow, well known in this city, was the leading candidate for the Hillboro Merchants' $100 Cash Prize in this week's vote. Her strongest rival is Miss Susie McKinney, sister-in-law of Mrs. Emma McKinney of our contemporary, The Argus.

—It is not much use for a Sewing Machine agent to come to this town any more, as the Bazaar is offering a swell up to date Drop Head Sewing Machine with all the latest attachments for $22.00. Just think of it. And they warrant them for five years.

It appears that the plans drawn up for the organization of a city athletic club have been frustrated. The boys had decided to rent the second floor of the Purdin sash and door factory but were unable to do so, the college boys having been more active and securing a lease first.

B. Dimick, of Grants Pass, visited his son Dr. V. L. Dimick this week. Being a member of the grand jury that recently met in Portiand, he took

Dr. Hines, Judge Hollis, John Wagner and J. F. Woods were in Portland, Saturday.

-Shoes, did you say? Watrous & Allen Co. sell the Star brand, the best in the world.

Wm. Billinger was in Portland the past week the guest of Mrs. Emma Hawes, his sister.

Rev. H. L. Bates preached at the Hillsboro Congregational church' Sunday morning.

-Men and boys sometimes pant, but the place to buy Pants is at Watrous & Allen Co.

Prof. G. B. Hardin, of the Eclectic School, has added a course in book keeping to his curriculum.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Oscar Baldwin.

Pat Cronin, the city's efficient police officer, was in Portland over Sunday, the guest of his son John.

Julien Josephson, at one time a student at the Academy, has a poetic contribution in the October Sunset. Josephson will graduate from Stanford University in June.

-The Bazaar people are busy crowding their stock together in order to give room for their immense lot of Xmas goods, which has begun to arrive by the wagon loads.

The Free Methodist church held its circuit quarterly meeting the past week, beginning Friday evening and extending to Sunday evening. Rev. Symns and Rev. W N. Coffee, the district elder and late of North Dakota, had charge of the meetings. E. B. James expects to move his family to Leidlaw, Crook county, Ore., next Tuesday. He has purchased a general merchandise store at that place. His son Otis will remain here to finish his course at the college.

Charlie Hoge, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hoge is now reporter on the Daily Star, of Lincoln, Neb. Charlie has just resumed his work after a couple of weeks' vacation spent at the St. Louis fair and in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Hathaway and family and Mrs. G. D. Coleman arrived here Sunday from Springfield, Oregon, to visit a few days with the former's brother, J. F. Woods and family, before returning to Anoka, Minnesota, where they will reside.

Many of the merchants have taken opportunity of the past week's nice weather to have the front of their places of business painted anew. Among these were: Partons' saddlery, the opportunity to come out to see Forest Grove. While here, he renewed acquaintances with his school mate, Rev. Belknap.

Miss Frances M. Abernethy entertained a number a friends at her home last Friday evening. The affair was enjoyable. Among those present were: Rev. and Mrs. Cephas Clapp and family, Rev. and Mrs. Barber, Rev. H. L. Bates, Mr. H. E. Wilson, and Misses Peterson, White, and Chandler.

Some unknown parties broke into the Magnet Friday night. By the use of a crowbar one of the windows was raised and the thieves entered the store. When the proprietors came the next morning they, were considerably put out as they beheld both the window and the back door wide open. After investigation it was found that