Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Staten returned last week from Forest Grove, where they visited the family of Colonel Haynes. Mr. Staten says there is a noticeable difference between Hood River and Forest Grove. The two towns are about the same size, but the business done in Hood River would represent a city of 3,000 people in the Willamette valley. Pacific University does more than anything else to keep up the city of Forest Grove, says Mr. Staten. It is a very pretty little town, and many homes have been built in the last two years.—Hood River Glacier.

Sullivan's Eleventh Hour Advice. This is what the ex-champion says: "Smoking cigarettes, eh? Chop it, chop it, that's my advice. Cigarettes never did any one any good and they've done a lot of people a lot of harm. Cut 'em out."

"Do you ever drink? You do, eh? Well cut that—cut it quick. It'll save you a lot of money and a lot of trouble."

"I don't believe in lecturing youngsters but you take my advice and cut out drinking and smoking cigarettes. When you get older and must smoke why, smoke a good cigar or a pipe."

"I ought to know what I'm talking about boy. I've owned 40 or 50 saloons in my time, and was glad to get out of that business. I know as much about drinking as anyone."

"I've drunk it in my day. I was never a drunkard but I've drunk too much, lots too much and smoked too much."

"About the only thing I brag about is that I never smoked a cigarette in my life."

"I'm an advocate of temperance in all things, and especially in smoking, drinking and eating. I used to be a great drinker, but I cut that out."

"Only eat two meals a day, and I'm better off for it."

"I had a wonderful constitution. I have a wonderful constitution now, but smoking and drinking never did it any good. They haven't worn it out as they have some men, but still they did me no good."
