

Try

Goldenrod Flour

Guaranteed

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Yesterday was Ash Wednesday.

—Mattresses made to order by C. F. Harris.

Ed Catching was in Portland the past week.

Grant Hughes was a Portland visitor Saturday.

The Baldwin brick is approaching the first windows.

—Seeds in bulk and package at Hoffman & Allen Co.

Miss Manche Langley visited Portland friends this week.

—See R. S. Baker for carpet cleaning g. Scrubbing a specialty.

C. F. Harris made a business trip to Portland, returning Monday.

—Money to loan on farm security. W. H. Hollis, Forest Grove.

—The best enameled steelware at C. F. Harris' Hardware store.

James Sewell Jr., of Hillsboro, spent Sunday with Forest Grove friends.

—Lady clerk wanted—for store work and bookkeeping. Address in writing J. K. care News office, Forest Grove.

Rollie Walker has gone to Deep River, Wash., where he has accepted a position.

Prof. G. C. Hardin was in Carleton in the interest of his commercial school last Saturday.

—Have your furniture repaired by C. F. Harris, near Farmers & Merchants' Bank.

Brooks & Wing, harness makers, have placed a large sign over their place of business.

Walter Hansen, formerly of this city, but now of Portland, visited in the Grove the past week.

—Have you spoken to C. F. Harris about having your furniture repaired. If not, do so at once.

Hon. Wilbur Newell was in attendance at the Grange meeting held here Saturday afternoon.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hubbert of Dilley, Friday, March 3, a boy, weight 9½ pounds.

Harry Wescott, formerly of this city, recently sold his farm near Gaston to A. Mr. Jones, of Portland.

Mrs. Sarah Crow of Portland, has been the guest of friends in the city for several days this week.

There will be a game of baseball at the park Sunday afternoon between Cornelius and Forest Grove.

Mrs. McKenzie, of Astoria, was the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Crang, the first of the week.

Miss Heisler and Miss Effa Boak, of Gales Creek, spent Friday and Saturday visiting friends in the Grove.

Ira Bradley who has been logging in Patton's Valley, spent several days in this city the forepart of the week.

Willis Goff, of the enterprising hardware firm of Goff Bros, was in Portland, Saturday and Sunday on business.

—Have you seen those Khaki suits at Hoffman & Allen Co.'s. Government made and the best on earth.

P. Ritchey, of East Gaston, was visiting relatives and transacting business in the city last Saturday.

Forest Grove gives notice that she will celebrate the Fourth of July this year, as it was never celebrated before.

—Lady clerk wanted—for store work and bookkeeping. Address in writing J. K. care News office, Forest Grove.

—Go to Hoffman & Allen Co.'s for anything you want; they have everything kept in a first-class department store.

The Women's Lewis and Clark club will hold a regular meeting on Monday, March 13, at 3 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Harry Haynes.

J. L. Hunt, a member of the Bradley logging crew, came in from the camp at Patton's Valley, Saturday to visit his family for a few days.

Coming—Home Dramatic Co. Greatest success of the season. Watch for dates. Funds to go to the re-fitting of scenery in Vert's Hall.

Mrs. A. T. Knox and Miss Wilda Crossley, former residents of this place, but now of Bellingham, Wash., are visiting friends here, this week.

Mrs. Esther J. Wood, of this place, recently bought the H. W. Wilkes property in Dilley. The place sold for $600, Mrs. Nixon was the agent.

H. Mizner, who lives near Dilley and who has been ailing for some time, was taken seriously sick Saturday evening. Dr. Via was summoned to his bed-side.

A company has been incorporated in Hillsboro for the purpose of building a brick opera house and it is said that work will begin in about two weeks.

W. R. Hicks has rented a room from L. J. Corl on Pacific avenue and has opened up a real estate office, where he is prepared to handle all kinds of properties.

—Early cabbage plants and lettuce for sale at the Greenhouse on Third avenue between Main and A streets. C. H. Stanbridge, proprietor. All other plants in season.

—C. F. Harris has an entire new line of neat and beautiful samples of tapestries, velours, and plush. Now is the time to have your furniture upholstered and repaired.

Opening of the latest and up-to-date Spring Millinery, Wednesday and Thursday, March 15 and 16, at Mrs. A. E. Dixon's, the leading milliner, Main street, Forest Grove.

Miss Alice Cronin has resigned her position with Watrous & Co., to follow her chosen line of work, book-keeping and stenography. She has accepted a position with the Ward Lumber Co.

—It will bring rich, red blood, firm flesh and muscle. That's what Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea will do. Taken this month, keeps you well all summer. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Hines Drug Store.

Rev. Holcomb, the M. E. minister of Dilley, was chosen by the board of directors of that district, as successor to Mr. E. Allen, who was recently elected to the principalship of the Forest Grove Public school.

Frank Knox, of Yuma, Col., arrived in Forest Grove Saturday morning to join his family who have been living here for several months past. Mr. Knox is an old acquaintance of H. G. King.

M. S. Allen has been making some noticeable improvements on his property at the corner of Third avenue and Second street. He began by filling-in his lawn and followed by renovating the interior of his residence.

Senator Haines, in a speech before the student body of P. U. last Friday afternoon, presented it with a handsome portrait of President Roosevelt. The occasion was in celebration of the president's inauguration.

—If taken this month, keeps you well all summer. It makes the little ones eat, sleep and grow. A spring tonic for the whole family. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Hines Drug Store.

The Forest Grove baseball association gave a delightful dance at Vert's hall Saturday night. The proceeds of the dances being given now will go towards defraying the expenses of organizing a first-class ball club, which will this season be one of the attractions at the ball park.

The Old Saying That:

"A man may as well be out of the world as out of Fashion," if changed to read: "A man out Fashion is out of the World," might more clearly express a social truth.

By buying your Clothing from JNO. ANDERSON, you will be both in FASHION and the WORLD.

Ready-made Suits, $8, $10 and up
Tailor-made Suits, $12.50 and up

JOHN ANDERSON,

The Tailor

FOREST GROVE,

OREGON

Did You Know

That we have the finest line of wheels ever shown in your city and the prices are right too?

We repair Bicycles, Sewing Machines, Guns, Locks, Umbrellas, etc.

All work entrusted to us carefully and promptly attended to.

L. J. CORL,
Billinger's Old Stand
FOREST GROVE, OREGON
Agency Singer Sewing Machine

Mrs. McKenzie, of Astoria, was the guest of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Crang, the first of the week.

Miss Heisler and Miss Effa Boak, of Gales Creek, spent Friday and Saturday visiting friends in the Grove.

Ira Bradley who has been logging in Patton's Valley, spent several days in this city the forepart of the week.

Willis Goff, of the enterprising hardware firm of Goff Bros, was in Portland, Saturday and Sunday on business.

—Have you seen those Khaki suits at Hoffman & Allen Co.'s. Government made and the best on earth.

P. Ritchey, of East Gaston, was visiting relatives and transacting business in the city last Saturday.

Mrs. Esther J. Wood, of this place, recently bought the H. W. Wilkes property in Dilley. The place sold for $600, Mrs. Nixon was the agent.

H. Mizner, who lives near Dilley and who has been ailing for some time, was taken seriously sick Saturday evening. Dr. Via was summoned to his bed-side.

A company has been incorporated in Hillsboro for the purpose of building a brick opera house and it is said that work will begin in about two weeks.

W. R. Hicks has rented a room from L. J. Corl on Pacific avenue and has opened up a real estate office, where he is prepared to handle all kinds of properties.

—Early cabbage plants and lettuce for sale at the Greenhouse on Third avenue between Main and A streets. C. H. Stanbridge, proprietor. All other plants in season.

—C. F. Harris has an entire new line of neat and beautiful samples of tapestries, velours, and plush. Now is the time to have your furniture upholstered and repaired.

Clyde Wellman, of this city, who has been pursuing commercial studies in one of the Portland business schools, left last Friday for Oil City and other California points. He expects to be away several weeks visiting relatives.

—If you cannot eat, sleep or work, feel mean, cross and ugly, take Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea this month. A tonic for the sick. There is no remedy equal to it. 35 cents, Tea or Tablets. Dr. Hines Drug Store.

Mr. and Mrs. Alec Todd who live on their farm southwest of town, entertained a few friends at dinner last Sunday. Among the guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Austin Buxton and children, Mrs. Lou Todd Buxton and Mrs. Josephine Patton.

Miles Purdin, the planing mill man, has finished his new building on First avenue and moved his machinery thereto. Mr. Purdin's business has grown to such proportions that a new building was necessary to carry on his business successfully.

John Anderson is making some improvements in his place of business. He has moved the work tables to the rear of the room and put on display a fine line of spring goods, besides re-staining the woodwork and otherwise brightening up the place.

—Money to loan on farm security. W. H. Hollis, Forest Grove.

For Sale.
The old Helts' Place in Patton's Valley, 62½ acres, $600. Inquire Wm. F. Schober, 318 East 29th St. Tacoma, Wash. m914

The Fire Sale at LaCourse's has proved to be the

GRANDEST BARGAIN EVENT

That Ever Happened in Washington County. Never before was such a sacrifice made on Reliable, Dependable Merchandise. Thousands of people have crowded the big store during this sale, and they all found what they were hunting for---Bargains. Better values for their money than they had expected.

The Grand Slaughter Sale of Smoked Goods Still Goes On

Our Big Stock of Shoes was brand new 1905 Styles. They were damaged by the Smoke only, but must go at regular Fire Sale Prices. The sizes are getting broken but we still have a good assortment of styles and sizes that you can own for less money than you ever dreamed of. Big Stacks of Wool Dress goods that must go, all colors and weaves.

Ladies' underwear of all kinds, Ladies Hose and Gloves, Embroidery, Ribbons, Outing, Gingham, Percale, Table linen, Toweling, Men's hats, Shirts, Neckwear and Hose and hundreds of other articles that went through the smoke, go at Fire Sale Prices.

Wagon Loads of Groceries left that have to go! Goods Delivered to all Parts of Town

Wait for Our Grand Spring Opening of Seasonable Goods.

Remember that Every Article in the Store that is in any way Damaged in the Least Must be Sold

The Sale is now on in FULL BLAST

NELSON B. LaCOURSE

Three Miles of RIBBON Almost for the Asking

Woods & Admas' Old Stand