A leading North Dakota newspaper says: "It is reported that one of the Harvey, North Dakota, fastidious newly married ladies kneads bread with her gloves on. The incident may be somewhat peculiar but there are others. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on, he needs bread with his pants on, and unless some of the delinquent subscribers of this 'Old Rag of Freedom' pay up before long, he will need bread without a damn thing on, and North Dakota is no Garden of Eden in the winter time."

While Dr. Chas. Hines was reading a January number of one of his Medical Journals recently, he discovered an item telling of the death by suicide of Al Barnes, who was a resident of this city some twenty years ago and at one time taught the band. CENTENNIAL NOTES

Work on the California building is progressing rapidly, and the building will be completed by May 1.

A model post-office will be installed on the grounds. It will prove interesting as an exhibit, and useful in handling the immense amount of mail matter received at and sent out from Exposition headquarters.

An interesting display from the Navajo Indian Reservation will show Indian blanket-weavers making the rugs that have made the Navajos famous.

Fruit raisers of Pierce County, Washington, will give away apples and strawberries in order to convince easterners that Pierce county is an unsurpassed locality for raising these products.

A $150,000 exhibit of the products of the Philippine Islands will be an interesting feature of the United States Government's magnificent participation at the fair.

The new staff on the beautiful Bridge of Nations is now completed. The Bridge is almost half a mile long, and is built of wood and staff, in imitation of solid masonry. The Bridge crosses Guild's Lake, the largest body of water ever enclosed within an exposition fence, and connects the mainland to the Government peninsula.

Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, author of "The Conquest," who has been busy for several months tracing descendants of the Lewis and Clark party other than the leaders of that famous expedition, has located at Fowler California, a son of the "Boy Shannon" frequently mentioned in the journals of the explorers. He is Judge J. B. Shannon, an aged and respected resident of Fowler for many years. Judge Shannon has accepted an invitation to be the guest of the Lewis and Clark Exposition, which is to be held in celebration of the Centennial of the Lewis and Clark Expedition on June 1, the opening day.

Col. W. H. H. Myers, the veteran warhorse politician of Forest Grove, and who rarely misses a seat in the third house when the legislature is in session, was down to the city, Wednesday, looking for timber for a candidate for governor on the republican ticket. He says that Hillsboro and Forest Grove are about the only two towns in the state that have no indicted politicians, and he thinks that Washington county is at least entitled to the nomination on the head of the ticket next year.—Argus.

The Time is Near

When everything pertaining to Spring be uppermost in our mind, you can not think of Spring without a feeling of relief in knowing that it is soon time to discard that big heavy Overcoat. That old Suit which the Overcoat has hidden will no doubt look to you as if it should also be put aside.

Now in shedding your feathers don't forget that there is one place where they are replaced with new ones.

The price is the lowest and the work is in every way the best. Do not feel that you are risking anything. The risk is all mine if I do not please you in every way.
