This deer was killed on Canyon Creek, near West Fork, by G. W. Donnell, a Grants Pass, Oregon, sportsman. It was with four other deer when first seen, and was at first taken for a young calf. Its white coat made it a conspicuous mark, and it is probably for this reason that albino deer are usually shunned by the main herds.

Like the albino of the human family, the albino deer is purely a freak of nature. Aside from its white coat and pink eyes; it is like other deer. Its fur seems softer and more silky, but this may be due to the natural inclination the beholder has to rub the white coat.—From The Pacific Monthly for April.

Mr. Dewey, formerly of the Michigan house, stepped on a loose board in the sidewalk near Cornelius & Hancock's livery barn, last Thursday night and received injuries that will lay him up for several days.

The Woman's Lewis and Clark Club will hold its next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. S. C. Kane, on Monday, April 10, at 3 p. m. This is the time for the regular election of officers and payment of dues. Secretary.

H. G. King was elected as a delegate to the State Modern Woodmen convention to be held in Baker City May 2, at Hillsboro yesterday morning at the county convention. All of the four camps of this county were represented and much business of importance was transacted. Mr. King was elected by acclamation. W. W. Goff of the local camp was a delegate to the county convention.

Monday's Morning Oregonian contained a dispatch from Omaha, Nebr., which stated that the gasoline motor car which was built for the Southern Pacific had made a trial trip of 40 miles in 75 minutes. This is the car that is to be put on the run between Forest Grove and Portland. At its trial trip, it is said it has proven considerably more than was expected of it by the builders and would no doubt prove to be amply adequate for suburban traffic.

An Albino Deer

An albino deer is a rare, a very rare, freak of Nature. Nevertheless, a pure albino, with a coat as white as the drifting snow, and eyes a delicate pink, was killed not long ago in the pine clad mountains of Southern Oregon. It is one of the very few albino deer ever seen in the mountains of the West. Old hunters tell of seeing them, usually separate from the main herds, and at various times during the early days; but they were always too shy and discreet to be approached near enough for a shot.

HOLD STORMY SESSION.

City Dads Meet in Special Session Saturday to Transact Business.

Councilman McNamer Resigns and Place is Filled by H. J. Goff—Other Notes.

The council met in special session Saturday night for the transaction of general business. All were present with the exception of Councilman Starrett, who is visiting in the east.

The new bond of E. W. Haines to the city was acted upon and ordered returned to the fidelity company for the correction of numbers.

The sidewalks that are in need of repair were ordered to be fixed.

The council also confirmed the appointment of Ula Hanna as deputy marshal.

The resignation of C. W. McNamer as councilman was read and upon motion was accepted. After declaring the office vacant the council proceeded to elect a new member, when some opposition was met with. Councilman Hollinger immediately arose and asked to be excused, whereupon the mayor stated that it was the last business of the evening and requested him to remain. This the Alderman would not do and left the council chamber without the consent of the mayor. This left but four councilmen to finish up the business and every prospect for a new councilman seemed bright, when Councilman Harris, too, desired to be excused, but with a little persuasion remained and took a hand in the affair. The name of H. J. Goff, the hardware man, was proposed and, there being no other name, he was elected. Council adjourned.

IGOROTTES SET SAIL

Native Filipinos Leave the Islands this Week for the Lewis and Clark Exposition

Two hundred Igorottes, Moros, Negritoes and Aisayans will leave the Philippine islands this week, arriving in Portland the latter part of April, where they will proceed immediately to the grounds of the Lewis and Clark Exposition. These natives will populate the Philippine village on the government peninsula at the Exposition.

Upon their arrival, the construction of the Philippine village will start at once. A feature of this will be a city of houses built on poles over the surface of Guilds lake. This is a characteristic of the expedient resorted to by the natives to avoid reptiles and foes of similar kinds. The city of pole-houses will be occupied by the Moros, who with the Igorottes stand lowest in the scale of civilization.

Boiled dog will represent the principal sustenance of the Igorottes, who are conceded to be epicureans regarding this delicacy. The general supposition is that a hearty meal of boiled, fried or roasted canine adds fervor to the fighting powers of Igorotte warriors. Accordingly, the dogflesh is served only to the males, the fairer sex being denied this rare treat.

Visitors to the Centennial, however, need have no fear of witnessing a blood-curdling combat, unless the Portland police should become obstreperous in the presence of the Igorottes, which would naturally result in a lively seance.

—Bring me your wool and Mohair, highest market paid, either in cash or trade. J. E. Bailey, Forest Grove.

W. O. W. Convention at Los Angeles

The Southern Pacific Company will sell on April 12th; 13th and 14th, round trip tickets to Los Angeles, at greatly reduced rates, account Convention Woodmen of the World and Women of Woodcraft, to be held at Los Angeles, April 18th, 1905.

Call on nearest Southern Pacific Agent for rates and full particulars.

Dr. E. B. Rentz Returned.

Dr. E. B. Rentz, who with his wife and aunt left Forest Grove last August for a trip to the St. Louis fair and to spend the winter in the south, returned last Saturday and intends to again locate here and practice medicine. They spent the winter in the Pecos Valley in New Mexico and found the climate ideal, with the exception that at one time the thermometer registered 19 below zero.
