

LEGISLATORS SPEAK

Prominent Politicians Give Their Views on The Political Crisis.

State Senator Haines and State Representative Newell Voice Their Sentiments.

In Wednesday's Oregonian is a symposium containing the views of prominent political personages throughout the state, on the necessity of Oregon having a full representation in congress at this time where now there is a crippled delegation lacking in power and influence. The opinion expressed is that Senator Mitchell and Congressman Williamson and Hermann should resign. Such a step if taken by our representatives would not be considered as a token of dishonor but rather that these men had placed their personal feelings after the welfare of the state. Some of the republicans who have been interviewed, are willing if need be to see Oregon represented by men of an opposite political faith. Governor Chamberlain speaking upon this delicate situation says: "The need of this state is so great at this time that Senator Mitchell and Representatives Williamson and Hermann should resign and permit other men to go to Washington in their places. They cannot show their patriotism, their interest in the state's welfare in a more effective manner than by relieving the state of an embarrassing situation * * * Oregon's need of a full representation at Washington to look after appropriations for the Columbia, the Willamette, the coast harbors and the Federal interests, is so pressing that if the two congressmen should resign I would at once call elections to fill the vacancies."

Hon. W. K. Newell, one of our state representatives speaking of Senator Mitchell and Representative Williamson states that: "They are not sent to Washington to honor them but because they are expected to do important work for the state, and if through misfortune or otherwise, they are placed in a position which renders it impossible for them to perform their duties, then they owe it to their state to give place to others who can. As to Representative Hermann this responsibility does not apply. He has not yet been tried and is entitled to the presumption of innocence until proved guilty."

Senator E. W. Haines said: "It is a matter of great importance that Oregon should be fully represented in both halls of congress at this time. It would be a serious blow to this state should congress fail to make appropriations for continuing improvements on the Columbia, both at the mouth and at The Dalles, but the men occupying these positions are fully aware of the situation and if they should be willing to step aside in order that others who can do it more successfully might take up the work, then the people of the state would recognize the sacrifice as a patriotic one and would give them credit accordingly. But knowing the Senator and Representatives as I do I am willing to leave it to their own best judgment as to what would be the proper course to take in the matter."

State Senator Squire Farrar of Marion county, believes that "these men can be of no further service to the state as representatives at Washington and they should make way for men who can go there and look after the state's interest."

Dr. W. Kuykendall, of Eugene doubts the wisdom of asking Senator Mitchell and Congressman Hermann and Williamson to resign.

George C. Brownell of Clackamas, declined to be interviewed.

Senator J. L. Rand of Baker, acknowledged the situation as serious but "would not like to say anything about what these gentlemen should do."

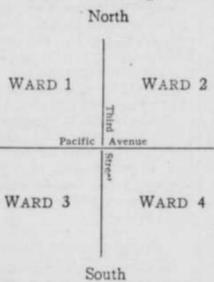

Hoffman-Hatch

Wednesday in Portland at the home of the groom's mother, Robert Hoffman was married to Miss Pearl Hatch, of Cornelius. Both young people are well-known in Washington county and their many friends will wish them much happiness.

FIREMEN MEET

City is Divided Into Fire Wards.

At a recent meeting of the local fire department an important innovation was introduced, namely the division of the city into four wards for the purpose of locating immediately any conflagration that might arise within the city limits. The division is to be brought about by taking Pacific Avenue and Third street as dividing lines as shown in the diagram below:

A fire will be signaled by the usual ringing of the bell at the close of which one or more rings will be given according to the number of the ward in which the conflagration is located.

An Incident

While Mr. Crowther of Gales Creek was in the Auction House, Mrs. R. Dewalt from Eastern Washington, but who lived here twenty years ago and is here for the winter, came in. Mr. Crowther looked at Mrs. Dewalt thinking he knew her but not speaking for fear he might be mistaken, and she saying to herself, this is not the place I was in yesterday for this man I knew over twenty years ago. In the meantime Robert Johnson, who arrived from Wisconsin, came in. He too, thought he knew the lady. A conversation and inquiry took place when the three renewed their childhood acquaintance and talked over the times when Mrs. Dewalt handled the birch in the school-room with the Johnson boys as pupils.

Mrs. Dewalt is here to be near her sister, Mrs. Wells of the northwest part of town, and to make it her future home if she likes it here.

Tillamookers Purchase Steamer

The leading business men of Tillamook city have recently effected the organization of a company to procure facilities between Tillamook bay ports and the Columbia river. Up to this time the merchants and dairymen of Tillamook have been at the mercy of a single company whose service has not been entirely satisfactory. It is the purpose of the new company to purchase a steamer fitted up for passengers and freight traffic, and also to establish a better tug service on the bay.

The Sewing Machines at the Bazaar are selling very rapidly on account of the low prices and easy terms offered just now. By November 14th the special sale will close.

HALLOWEEN FESTIVITIES

Numerous Parties Are Given to Make The Occasion Glorious.

Freshmen Are Initiated Into The Mysteries of College Life.

The annual initiation of the Freshman class into the mysteries of college life was this year celebrated at the home of President and Mrs. W. N. Ferrin. The initiation was conducted under the auspices of the Sophomore class and the Freshmen were made to perform all sorts of nonsense to the delight of the Sophomores in particular and the rest of the college classes in general. The parlors had been appropriately decorated for the occasion and the spirit of Hallowe'en brooded over all. A banquet was served later in the evening and toasts were delivered by prominent students. After the score or more of guests had had their future foretold in a comical and pleasing manner, all gathered 'round in a circle and were served ice cream and cake by Messrs Howard Thomas and Frank Clark. Songs were sung and stories told and the guests departed at a late hour voting it one of the most enjoyable events of the year.

One of the most pleasant social functions of the year was a Hallowe'en party given by Miss Reba Hoffman last Tuesday evening at "The Green Gables." The plans of entertainment were cleverly arranged and there was not an unhappy moment during the whole evening. The events of the evening were: The Spring of Perpetual Youth; The Famous Astrologer; The Witch of Enderly, and the Sibyl of Syria.

At the residence of Mayor Johnson the third class of the Academy held a most pleasant reunion. The climax of the occasion being the serving of a swell spread.

The residence of Rev. Cephas Clapp was the scene of merry-making on Hallowe'en. The event was a gathering of the first year academy class.

Hallowe'en, the night of witches, of spooks and of fairies, was appropriately celebrated in our city. Small boys and girls went about the streets singing and yelling and had the time of their lives. Large boys were active in playing pranks on their elderly neighbors and only jokes of the proper sort were perpetrated. Grown up folks entertained their friends with parties and the evening was a delight to all.

The 4th year class held a class party on Hallowe'en at the home of Miss Maveve Templeton. Games were played and a fine luncheon was served to the guests.

The pretty home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi Walker was the scene of a very unique and enjoyable party last Tuesday evening when the Christian Endeavor Society of the Christian Church took possession.

Jack-O'-Lanterns sent forth golden rays as one approached the entrance, ghosts in sepulchral tones directed you up the stairs and another ghost at the head of the stairs guided you on to the dressing room to remove your wraps.

Ghost stories were told in a room over which streamed crimson rays, and a fortune-teller in a green-bowered corner in the green rays of light, told of the brilliant future awaiting you. Hallowe'en games were played and refreshments were served. At a late hour the guests departed realizing that they had been pleasantly entertained.

Mr. and Mrs. Lauren Watkins entertained a number of friends at their home on Fourth avenue, last Tuesday evening. The parlors had been beautifully decorated for the occasion with evergreens and jack o'lanterns. Games of various sorts were indulged in and a dainty luncheon was served. The event proved a very pleasant one.

The Tobacco Industry

Washington county can further demonstrate herself as the best county in the state for diversified farming. Good tobacco can be grown here and it usually sells at from 10 to 15 cents per pound. An acre will produce an average crop of 1500 pounds, which means 22500 gross receipts for the crop. Try a small patch boys and see what it will do.

Lumberman Receives Injuries.

Harry Davies, one of the operators of the Davies Bros.' saw mill located ten miles north of town, was hurt Tuesday afternoon while hauling logs out of the timber. He fell and a huge log rolled upon him, striking one of his hips. Dr. Hines was summoned immediately and found that the man was not injured internally. Mr. Davies' bruises will require of him a few weeks' rest before he can resume his work.

Pioneer Passes Away.

John Kirts, a pioneer of 1852, died at his home in Lafayette, Ore., yesterday. He was born in Indiana in 1830, came to Oregon with an ox team when 21 years of age and located near Greenville, where he lived up to 10 years ago. In 1859 he married Miss Eunice Marsh and from this issue 12 children were born. In religion Mr. Kirts was a Congregationalist; in politics a republican. He was also an Indian War Veteran and a member of the Masonic Lodge. The interment will take place in Wilkes cemetery near Banks, tomorrow at 10 o'clock under the auspices of the Masons.

P. U. DEFEATED BY P. C.

By Tremendous Effort P. U. Holds the Score Down to 5 to 0.

Out-weighted but not out-played was the report brought home by our team, Saturday evening. Though handicapped nearly ten pounds to the man our boys held the sturdy Quakers down to a score of only 5. The Pacific College squad was enabled by superior weight to carry their opponents back over the line. Only two plays were used by them, the straight buck and the end run, while P. U., used at least seven different formations.

The game was opened by P. C. kicking off to Quarterback Ferrin who brought the ball in ten yards. P. U. immediately punted and covered the ball but was held for downs. P. C. then advanced the ball until on the ten yard line when she succeeded by running P. U.'s left end on a delayed pass through the failure to back up the line of P. U.'s safety.

In the second half P. U. kicked off. P. C. brought the ball to the 20 yard line. P. U. immediately held their opponents for downs and by steady live bucking brought the ball to the 7 yard line where it was lost by half a yard. P. C. then forced their opponents back. Though repeatedly held for downs they recovered the ball several times by Huston's attempts to punt. Time was called with the ball in P. U.'s territory but also in their possession. The lineup was as follows:

- Humphreys..... R E..... Wilson
 - Aller..... R T..... Rice
 - Allen..... R G..... Saunders
 - Jensen..... C..... Hoskins
 - Garrison..... L G..... Nelson
 - Lawrence..... L T..... Haworth
 - Boyd..... L E..... Spaulding
 - Ferrin (Capt)..... Q..... Pemberton
 - Huston..... R H..... Maris
 - Fletcher..... L H..... Hodson
 - Rasmusen..... F (Capt)..... Clough
- Officials, Nelson and Shannon.
