EXCITEMENT IN GASTON

Nine Young Men From City Have Good Times and Enrage Inhabitants

Deputy Game Wardens Stevens and Nichols Go to Get Unruly Visitors

A rather peculiar incident, which happened in our southernmost burg, near the Yamhill line, served to stir up some of the inhabitants of that community, last Saturday evening, and caused our game wardens some inconvenience by compelling them to make the drive of some 15 miles after night.

The trouble began when nine young men of more or less dangerous appearance, rather crowded the little city of Gaston, by getting off of the train all at once. They had been amusing themselves on the way up the valley by taking a crack occasionally at stray dogs and other animals from the back steps of the rear coach and when they reached Gaston, as is usually the condition, in such a bunch, out for a good time, spirit was running high—and probably spirits were also running down. Anyhow, according to the Gaston account, the boys, who evidently were planning to go fishing, proceeded to shoot up the town in real old fashioned style to the discomfiture of the inhabitants. Three of them were brought up before Justice Hardin and fined $5.00 apiece, which however, was promptly paid.

Someone had a premonition that the boys intended to catch fish by night, so sent for Deputy Wardens Nichols and Stevens, who hurried around and finally started for the distressed burg. But no amount of detective work could find any evidence against the crowd and Game Wardens Stevens and Nichols came home, reaching Forest Grove about 3 a. m., Sunday. James Nichols reported that he did some effective work in preventing the total annihilation of the town, as well as some good scraps, for some of the neighbors were in for cleaning out the whole bunch.

John Holder, of Gaston, was arrested last Sunday for selling liquor without a license. His case will come up soon before Judge McBride, who has not shown much of a disposition to treat these offenders lightly. This case is similar to the Banks affair which came up last week, and the present offender is likely to get the full extent of the penalty.

SLOW BUT SURE

Electric Line is Coming—Work to Begin This Week.

J. Whyte Evans, president, and J. W. E. Taylor, executive engineer, of the United Railways Company, arrived in Portland Monday from Los Angeles, ready to begin operations on the Forest Grove line. The work of pulling up the 60-pound rails laid on Twelfth street will probably be begun this week, and 72-pound steel laid in its stead. As soon as that work is completed the building of the line on Stark street will be begun. Work will shortly be commenced on grading and surfacing the line up the hills west of the city. Rails in sufficient quantities to complete the Forest Grove line have arrived and are piled at Twelfth and Pettygrove streets.—Oregonian.

BEAUTIFY EELLS PARK

City Fathers Concur With Church Trustees and Civic Improvement Society to Create Plaza.

New Skating Rink Ordinance Dropped Rather Unceremoniously—Western Union Granted Permit.

The city council met in regular session, as usual, last Tuesday evening and transacted some business, of more or less importance, as well as leaving some undone which might have been classed under an important head. All members were present except Councilman Starrett. The action of the previous session was reviewed and approved after which the monthly allowance of bills was taken up and warrants ordered to be drawn for the following:

The council agreed to co-operate with the church authorities and the Civic Improvement Society, in a plan drawn up by the Congregational church, whereby Eill's Park is to be created into a beautiful plaza. This had been talked of some time before this, but no arrangement could be made, agreeable to the church, as this property belongs directly to them and they wish to retain as complete control of the property as possible but still allow it for purposes of beautifying the city.

It has now been arranged that a permanent committee be appointed to proceed with the work of constructing a park of the church block, two of which are to be appointed by the church, one by the Civic Improvement society and one by the city council. These four are to choose a fifth, all of which are to serve for life and the vacancies will be filled just as the original members were appointed. The Civic Improvement Society have already appointed, in a meeting of their executive committee, at the Free Reading room, Tuesday, Mr. Chas. O. Roe, as their committee-man and the council in accepting this adjustment, as proposed by Prof. H. L. Bates, who represented the trustees of the Congregational church, at the council chamber last Tuesday evening, appointed Mr. A. G. Hoffman. The church is only awaiting the action of the council and Civic Improvement Society, to appoint their members when the actual work of building the park will come under the advisement of this committee.

The Western Union asked to be allowed to move the line which comes up Pacific Avenue to First Avenue and set some taller poles. The request was granted without a murmur. It was also voted to allow the expenses of a man and team to aid the Civic Improvement Society in their efforts to clean the city next week. The condition of some of the streets was looked into and some good advice given to the chairman of the street committee in this regard.

The ordinance, discussed at a previous meeting, wherein it was provided that a heavy license be imposed upon skating rinks, bowling alleys, billiard tables, etc., was brought up again by the ordinance committee and Wm. Langley offered some good advice in regard to the contents of the ordinance. After having expressed his opinion quite freely to the effect that the ordinance was discriminating, purely class legislation and an unjust tax upon a legitimate business, Mr. Langley sat down and the council, on motion of Councilman Hollinger, who introduced the measure, moved to adjourn without taking any action whatever on the proposed ordinance.

The telephone franchise, in the interests of which Mr. Langley was present, and for which many citizens are asking never came up for consideration on account of this sudden adjournment.

However, a quite largely signed petition is being circulated among the voters of Forest Grove, asking the council to grant this franchise in order that direct telephone communication with Portland can be had by anyone so desiring.

REGISTRATION COMPLETE

Registration for Primaries Closed Tuesday

The registrar's books show some interesting facts in regard to the registration, which was completed for the primaries last Tuesday.

The total registration in Forest Grove was 575, in South Forest Grove 284, in North Forest Grove 291; the figures also show that 199 registered as Republicans in the South Precinct, while there were 141 Republicans registered in the North; there were 70 Democrats in the South, 35 in the North and 15 in each precinct who registered as belonging to no party. It is also to be noted that nearly 50 voters registered who were over 70 years of age; about 10 who were over 80; and two, Mr. James Luck and Mr. Obed C. Thornburg, who were 90 and 94, respectively.

The registration books will be opened again on the 25th of April, for the June elections. Anyone who has not registered now cannot vote at the primaries unless he is sworn in and his party affiliation given.

"MADE IN OREGON" FAIR

All Oregon to Be Asked to Help Make Big Street and Window Fair a Success.

Admen's League of Portland Will Ask Support of Entire State for the "Made in Oregon" Exposition.

The attention of the country will soon be solicited, from Portland sources, for the purpose of exploiting Oregon made goods. An organization known as the Admen's League of Oregon have conceived of an admirable plan, by which Oregon manufactured and Oregon grown products are to be exhibited for the examination and the approval of those who are likely to need these wares. The purpose is to create a larger demand for "Oregon made," as well as to foster the further development of Oregon's resources both in manufacturing and in agriculture, however the manufactures are to be uppermost. The exposition will be held in Portland, from May 19 to 26, immediately under the auspices of the Admen's League, but assisted by the local manufacturers, business men and commercial bodies. Subscriptions are being taken up in the city and the big stores have expressed their willingness to grant window space for the project. Prizes will be awarded for the best dressed show windows and considerable work toward these different objects has already been accomplished. The scheme has been carefully worked out and the men behind the enterprise should receive the hearty support of the country constituency. The work has been divided between the different committees in a systematized manner and is bound to be successful.

The result will be that "Oregon made" will be shoved to the front and perhaps, some of us, who are so closely affiliated with Oregon, will be able to learn a few things about what is made in Oregon, as well. "It pays to advertise" is one of the fundamentals of success and it is on this principle that the Admen are working and are seeking to make Oregon more famous.

Declaration of Principles of the International Woman's Suffrage Conference.

We, the delegates assembled in the Second International Woman Suffrage Conference, held in Berlin, Germany, June 3rd and 4th, 1904, do hereby re-affirm our faith in the following principles:

1. That men and women are born equally free and independent members of the human race; equally endowed with intelligence and ability, and equally entitled to the free exercise of their individual rights and liberty.
2. That the natural relation of the sexes is that of inter-dependence and co-operation, and that the repression of the rights and liberty of one sex inevitably works injury to the other, and hence to the whole race.
3. That, in all lands, those laws, creeds and customs which have tended to restrict women to a position of dependence; to discourage their education; to impede the development of their natural gifts, and to subordinate their individuality, have been based upon false theories, and have produced an artificial and unjust relation of the sexes in modern society.
4. That self-government in the Home and State is the inalienable right of every normal adult, and the refusal of this right to women has resulted in social, legal and economic injustice to them, and has also intensified the existing economic disturbances throughout the world.
5. That governments which impose taxes and laws upon their women citizens, without giving them the right of consent or dissent which is granted to men citizens, exercise a tyranny inconsistent with just government.

6. That the ballot is the only legal and permanent means of defending the rights to "life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness," pronounced inalienable by the American Declaration of Independence, and accepted as inalienable by all civilized nations. In any representative form of government, therefore, women should be vested with all the political rights and privileges of electors.

Masquerade at Skating Rink.

Quite a social affair came off at the skating rink last Friday evening when the managers prepared a masquerade for the diversion of the patrons. The rink was crowded early with spectators anxiously awaiting the advent of the masqueraders while Walker's Orchestra, at frequent intervals throughout the entire evening supplied them with the latest in rag time. The zenith of the evening's entertainment saw at least twenty on the floor decked out in every conceivable make up, representing nearly as many different nationalities and races. Prizes were awarded to the following participants; for the best sustained character and best get ups, Miss Edna Morley and Rudolph Schultz; for the best skaters Mrs. J. G. Lenneville and Floyd Loomis, while the booby was awarded to Elisha Fields, as he was considered by the judges to be the most awkward skater in the world, however he had some very active competition. Only standing room could be had in the spectators section and the large crowd stayed until a late hour when the floor was thrown open to all.
