

BIG SACRIFICE SALE OF BANKRUPT STOCK

M. SMYTH

SUCCESSOR TO

THE CHICAGO CLOTHING CO. OF FOREST GROVE

I beg to announce to the people of Forest Grove and adjacent districts that I bought the entire stock of the Chicago Clothing Co. through the creditors' agent, at a fraction of even Factory Cost and now offer it to the public at prices that will astonish you. I do this so as to make room for New Lines I propose putting in after the present SACRIFICE SALE closes. I am very much taken with the refreshing looks of your pretty little town and propose to remain here and camp among you, provided you don't starve me out. All I ask is a fair shake.

The Stock consists of, viz:

Men's and Boys' Clothing, Men's and Boys' Hats and Caps, Men's and Boys' Shoes, Men's and Boys' Underwear, Men's and Boys' Dress and Work Shirts, Men's and Boys' Sweaters, Neckties, Hosiery, Gloves, Suspenders, Handkerchiefs, Umbrellas, Notions, etc., in fact, everything to be had in any Regular First Class Clothing Store. Take advantage of this SALE and thereby save considerable of that much prized article, The Big American Dollar. Would be pleased to have you call on me, whether you purchase or not. Yours truly,

I. O. O. F. BLDG.

JOHN ANDERSON'S, The Tailor

Mrs. Roos, who owns property near the Roe place and where the new laundry is being built by Mr. Blair, was in Forest Grove last week looking after her interests here.

Pete Elliot, who was reported to have started around the world via San Francisco and east, has returned after making a trip to Seattle. He will make a new start soon.

Melvin Markham who has just recovered from the typhoid, is in town having arrived last Friday. He will remain here a few days before returning to his work in Portland.

W. H. Hicks arrived from Seattle a week ago last Wednesday, to take up Mr. Callender's work at the Condenser as book-keeper. Mr. Callender has been given several months vacation.

Lucius A. Long, of the Argus, and Jack Bailey, also of Hillsboro, were in Forest Grove last Sunday, having ridden to our city on horseback for a little enjoyment of that exhilarating pastime.

Miss Irene Cadwell, pianist, will give her graduating program, assisted by Miss Maud Shannon, soprano—Friday evening, June 1st, in Marsh Hall. The general public is invited.

The Fish Warden turned in 1200 Rainbow trout in the Tualatin River last week and reports an obstruction in the creek in the way of an old dam and notified the owners to remove it.

Attorney E. B. Tongue of Hillsboro, will speak in Tillamook county on the 28th, 29th and 30th, and will address republican meetings in this city, Nehalem and Cloverdale.—Tillamook Headlight.

—Have you pains in the back, inflammation of any kind, rheumatism, fainting spells, indigestion or constipation. Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea makes you well, keeps you well. 35 cents. Dr. Hines' Drug Store.

Mrs. Via and daughter Stella will leave immediately for the Wilson river and begin a good mountain air and out door treatment to improve the health of the latter. These are the first of the summer pleasure seekers.

Those who happened to be on the mid-night train last Thursday evening had the pleasure of spending the entire night on a side track at Beaverton and arriving home at 6:45 a. m. Friday. A wrecked freight was the cause.

—WANTED—Local Salesman to open and operate branch store in this town. We sell everything. Good rustler desired, with or without capital. Address W. D. Garman Company, 516 Chamber of Commerce Building, Portland, Oregon. It

W. N. Sears, Forest Grove's up-to-date tonsorial artist, was a passenger on the Buxton stage, Tuesday, going north—not south. He is going to buy shakes in Nehalem for the Ocean Wave Dancing Pavilion which he is constructing at Newport.

One car of Carnation Cream was shipped to Vicksburg, Miss., last week and one from Kent to Havana, Cuba, by the Pacific Coast Milk Company. Jesse Crosley has begun work at the Condenser as night watchman. His first night was Tuesday.

Ira Hampton, J. J. Wirtz, R. U. Peterson and Art Caples were out last week manipulating the bamboo but were unable to get many raises. The result was that the wily Oregon game was not seriously disturbed by this motley array of sportsmen.

Emmett Quick moved his family over from Tillamook last week and intends to stay in the Valley. Mr. Quick will work on the Tillamook railroad, driving a grader. His proficiency as a teamster is so well recognized that he commands his own prices.

An automobile service will be established between Tillamook and Sheridan this summer. This will be much better than so much heated atmosphere about railroads that pervade and are characteristic of the Tillamook environment. One $2,350 car has already been secured.

Sidney Soule, local manager of the Revere Rubber Company, was a guest at the St. Francis hotel during the terrible earthquake at San Francisco.

Sidney says he carries the key of his room at the St. Francis as a memento of his rapid exit from his room to the mother earth. He did not stop long enough to ask the amount of his bill or return the key.—Timberman.

Miss Alyce Cronin, Mrs. N. L. Atkins and Mrs. Dr. Hines went to Clatskanie last Saturday to attend the wedding of Miss Mary Titchehor, formerly a student at the college and a close friend of the above mentioned people. Miss Titchehor will make her future home near Baker City where her husband, a minister, has a parish.

It seems the thieves of Tillamook are no respecters even of graveyards as note the following from the Headlight: "$10.00 REWARD"

"The undersigned will pay the above reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the contemptible hound who stole the hedge surrounding the grave of the late Mrs. Allendorf in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. B. C. LAMB."

A street fakir succeeded in entertaining quite a crowd on the street Monday evening and added somewhat to the interest of the performance by occasionally advising everyone to vote for "Geo. E. Chamberlain for governor and Chas. F. Miller for coroner," having been so ordered by the chief contributor when the hat was passed. The gentleman didn't seem to know either who Geo. E. Chamberlain was or who Chas. F. Miller was but earned his $1.60 in a satisfactory manner just the same, much to the amusement of the crowd.

Miss Anna English, a former student at the college, was married last week to Mr. Chas. Hall, a brother of Arthur Hall who married Miss Gertrude Marsh last fall. Professor Bates performed the ceremony. The young couple wished to be original and had arranged to spend their honeymoon over on the Wilson River where Mr. Hall has a claim, but, although successful in shaming their friends in Portland and gaining the midnight train for Forest Grove, which unluckily happened to be the ill-fortuned "Thursday Owl," and with this combined with the inclemency of the weather, they decided to postpone the trip on the Wilson River and returned home. They will make their home in Hood River where Mr. Hall owns a drug store.

We are soon to know the result of the oil wells. It has now struck another strata, and if below that there is no oil work will cease. It is there or not at all. As no one knows how thick that strata may turn out to be, it is impossible to say how long the work will continue.—Cloverdale Courier.
