

GOV. G. E. CHAMBERLAIN

Speaks to Large Audience in Vert's Hall, Also to Students at University.

Met at Depot by Mayor and Leading Citizens Regardless of Party Affiliation.

Governor Geo. E. Chamberlain arrived in the city this morning on the 10 o'clock train and was met at the depot by Mayor Peterson and other leading citizens of Forest Grove. The governor spent the forenoon shaking hands with the citizens and then spoke to the students of Pacific University at the chapel hour—1:00 p. m. At 2 o'clock he addressed a large audience in Verts Hall and left again for Portland on the 4:15 train.

In spite of the strong Republican sentiment in this community, the governor has many supporters and from the fact that no important Republican candidate visited Forest Grove this campaign, the governor's visit will be significant. Mr. Manning, the district attorney from Multnomah County accompanied Gov. Chamberlain and also stayed some with the inhabitants.

Freight Rates Lowered

A big reduction has been made in the first class freight rates, which affect Forest Grove considerably. The former rates were 18c per hundred for first class goods, 16c for second class and 14c for third class. The first class has been lowered from 18c to 8c, a reduction of 10c on a hundred. Fruits and such goods are carried for 12c, while 14c and 16c still remains on other articles that are classified in those formerly mentioned classes. The exact date when these rates went into effect is not exactly known but from observations taken at this end, the merchants of our town have had the advantage of these rates since May 15, or near that time.

Burch & Reiss

With Burch and Reiss Greatest Shows whose big "ad" you will notice on the back page and which will exhibit in Forest Grove, Wednesday, June 6, will be seen the greatest number of new and distinctly novel features ever gathered together with any tented exhibition. The aggregation numbers upwards of 350 performing dogs, mules, monkeys and all manner of strange beasts. In conjunction with the multitudinous animal feature acts will be presented, troupes of Japanese acrobats, wrestlers, etc. Another feature will be the big parade which will take place at 11 a. m., Wednesday, June 6, the morning of the big day.

Dissolution of Partnership.

The Davies Bros. & Co., Lumber Company, of Banks, Oregon, has dissolved partnership. M. E. Phillips has retired and the company is continued by the Davies Brothers.

All outstanding accounts of the company, will be assumed by us.

W. E. DAVIES,

Claude Hollinger was in Salem last Tuesday attending the graduating exercises of his class. Owing to illness he was obliged to leave school last year, thereby losing the opportunity to graduate with this class.

NOT IN IT FOR A MOMENT

Hillsboro Married Lose Old Time Prowess and Fail to Make Good—Score Tells.

Baldwin, the Especial Illumination—Others Furnish Fire-Works—"The Argus" Was There.

By Pat Sparks.

Nine women are happy in Forest Grove and nine women are sad in Hillsboro today as a result of the baseball game yesterday. Well the way our married men planted their tied-up brethren, from the county seat, beneath the sod with a score of 18—11 is surely enough to make them sad, and us glad. One of the largest crowds that has ever attended baseball services here witnessed yesterday's matinee to see husbands or perhaps papa do stunts on the diamond, while the local band furnished music for the audience.

The game was ours from the start, we took a lead of three in the first inning and after that the visitors couldn't see us with opera glasses for the smoke. The bright spots of the day were Walt Baldwin, Kertson, Goff and Bradley with Baldwin perhaps as star. The way he covered his territory, glommed onto the grounders and whipped them over to the initial station, was certainly enough to make a single man wish he was married. The grandstand stood up and shouted for joy when Willie Goff made the most spectacular catch of the day by pulling down a difficult sky-scrapper from the left heavens. In the fourth canto Purdin poked out a Long drive into right garden and by the time the Editor of the Argus had recovered the ball our big first baseman was resting on third base. Via layed down another nice three bagger in the sixth. He was our heaviest clouter with four clean runs to his credit. If there were any diamonds among the visiting contingent the most unrough were probably the Williams brothers and Wallen. The line up:

FOREST GROVE	HILLSBORO
G Via	F Williams
Parker	N Williams
Bradley	Bennett
Purdin	Tucker
McNamer	Gregg
Baldwin	Wallen
Goff	Patterson
Bellingier	Oleson
Kertson	Long

Big Republican Rally.

Nominee James Withycombe spoke in the Crescent Theatre at Hillsboro, last Monday, to a large audience. The occasion was a very successful one and the Republicans feel very optimistic since the event. Hon. S. B. Huston also occupied the stump for a few minutes and everything went off smoothly. Miss Maude Shannon of this place furnished vocal music for the occasion.

"Little Gilly" Breaks World's Record in Pole Vault.

New York, May 30.—A new world's record at pole-vaulting was established today by A. C. Gilbert, of Yale, at the Decoration day track and field athletic games of the Irish-American Athletic Club at Celtic Park, Long Island City. Gilbert cleared the bar at 12 feet 3 inches, the best previous record being that of Norman Dole, of Oakland, Cal., who cleared 12 feet 1.32 inches, April 23, 1904.—Oregonian.

The Mothers and the Schools.

Every mother is interested, as no one else can be, in the welfare of her child. This appeal is sent to you as a mother, because what is of vital importance to the welfare of your child is of vital interest to you, and because the schools are now in great need of protection.

For a large part of the day, five days in the week, you send your child to school, and turn the boy or girl over to the care of the teacher. Have you thought how largely the child's well-being depends on the character of the school and of the teacher, or how great the danger is that the appointment of teachers will become only the spoils of politics. If the school is unsanitary—if the drainage, or the ventilation, or the air, or the light is bad, your child's health will suffer. If the teacher is not what the teacher ought to be, your child's mind and morals will suffer.

Mothers have therefore, reasons for taking an intelligent interest in the management of our Public Schools such as no other class in the community can have. Who, then, can more appropriately decide who shall manage the schools of Boston than the mothers of Boston? Will you not help now to purify the school system?

To do this you must register and vote for the School Committee. You may not believe in woman suffrage and you are not asked to believe in it, or to vote for anybody or anything else. But is it not a plain duty for you as a mother, to do what you can to provide that good men and women and only such, shall manage our schools? The Commonwealth gives you the right to vote for members of the School Committee. Is it, not neglecting a duty and an opportunity to fail to do so?

Mrs. Lizzie Hiatt was in town this week, having come out from Portland to look after her homestead above the Soda Springs.

The case wherein O. D. Sikes and A. M. Grubbs of this place figured prominently, has been appealed by Mr. Grubbs, who has employed S. B. Huston to conduct the suit for him. It will be remembered that Grubbs was fined $20 and costs before a jury in Justice Wirtz's court last March. The case will come up at the Fall term of the circuit court.

Herrick Hall, the woman's dormitory of Pacific University, that was destroyed by fire a few months ago, will be rebuilt in time for the opening of the Fall term of that institution. This announcement will be gratifying to the friends of Pacific University throughout the state. The loss, which produced consternation in the old college town at the time, will in the end prove beneficial, since the new dormitory will be modern in construction and much more commodious than was the old hall which it will replace.—Oregonian.

There is going to be a shortage in grain sacks this coming harvest, says a well-known traveling man for one of the large wholesale houses of the Pacific Northwest. Many thousands of these bags were destroyed in the late San Francisco disaster and it will be impossible to get new material to this country and turn it into grain holders in time for the crop. Such being the case, hold onto what you have no matter if they are somewhat in need of repairing. If you are a grain grower to a considerable extent, you should deliver your crop in bulk, anyway; by so doing you would be saved the useless expense of paying for sacks.—Pacific Homestead.

Cora Edmond, at work in the condenser at Forest Grove, has sued her husband, John T. Edmond, asking for divorce. She alleges they were married in Evansville, Indiana, in 1898, and that later he asked her to go to Oregon, and told her he would follow. This he did not do, and finally wrote her that he would not come and that he wanted to live with her no longer. She also alleges that he repeatedly called her a "fool" and a "liar," and that at one time he pointed a gun at her and threatened to kill her. They have one child, a daughter of seven years, and she asks for its custody. Mrs. Edmond says that he has not contributed to her support since coming to Oregon, and she has been compelled to make her own way. M. B. Bump is her attorney.—Hillsboro Argus.

SUITABLY SOLEMNIZED

In Remembrance of the Unknown Dead of the Civil War, G. A. R. Decorate.

Are Aided in Their Efforts by Loyal Citizens and Woman's Relief Corps Who Work Harmoniously

Decoration Day was observed yesterday in the usual manner and the perfect weather aided considerably in making it one of the most pleasant occasions in the history of our little town. In the morning at 10:00 a. m. the parade, consisting of the band, Grand Army, W. R. C. and citizens, proceeded to the cemetery, where the obligations to the unknown dead were fulfilled in impressive services. All interests this time worked harmoniously together and as the result, a very agreeable service was rendered.

The afternoon was taken up with services in Verts Hall, where Judge Hollis presented an address before the Grand Army of the Republic. Some music was also provided and the universal opinion gathered is that Judge Hollis was at his best and gave greater satisfaction than in any previous attempt. The latter part of the afternoon was devoted to the national sport in a game of baseball especially arranged for the occasion, an account of which will be found in another column.
